littérature française des origines à 1900: Dix-neuvième siècle. 1899 Louis Petit de Julleville,1899 Aristocratic Life in Medieval France John W. Baldwin,2002-03-18 Modern historians have generally approached the study of medieval society through chronicles charters and other documents composed in Latin by members of the clergy Although these records may be satisfactory for studying the affairs of ecclesiastics kings and high barons they are inadequate for assessing the major preoccupations of the aristocracy living extravagantly fighting making love entertaining eating and dressing ostentatiously and generally earning the disapproval of the clergy In Aristocratic Life in Medieval France the respected medieval scholar John Baldwin undertakes a study of this segment of society using for the first time in nearly a century the vernacular romances written exclusively for the amusement of aristocratic audiences Rather than attempting to encompass all of Middle Age Europe this study selects two writers Jean Renart and Gerbert de Montreuil and their four romances It focuses with depth and specificity on the discrete area of northern France during a precise period 1190 1230 Since Jean and Gerbert framed their fictional stories with contemporary and realistic features that could be recognized by their audiences their works provide a wealth of detail on aristocratic living Employing such literary techniques as reality effects and horizons of expectations Baldwin successfully discerns the historical content in these romance narratives
