Richard Billingham Rays A Laugh:

Ray's a Laugh Richard Billingham, 2014 Richard Billingham's Ray's a Laugh is considered one of the most important contemporary photobooks from Britain. Centered around Billingham's working class family who live in a cramped Birmingham high rise tenement apartment and his father Ray, a chronic alcoholic, these candid snapshots describe their daily lives in a visual diary that is raw, intimate, touching, and often uncomfortably humorous. Books on Books 18 contains every page spread from this classic book, including a contemporary essay by Charlotte Cotton. Publisher RAY'S A LAUGH. RICHARD. BILLINGHAM, 2024

Photography John Ingledew, 2005 John Ingledew's Photography provides a basic introduction for students across the visual arts. This accessible, inspirational guide to creative photography explores the subjects and themes that have always obsessed photographers and explains technique in a clear and simple way. Embracing the whole spectrum of photography from traditional to digital, it introduces the work of the masters of the art as well as showing fresh dynamic images created by young photographers from all over the world. An essential resource, the book also provides a valuable overview of careers in photography and a comprehensive reference section including a glossary of technical vocabulary. Photographic Realism Kieran Cashell, 2020-10-15 One of the most captivating and provocative artists of the Sensation generation, Richard Billingham b. 1970 came to prominence in the late 1990s with his visceral photobook Ray's a Laugh, a slice of everyday life in a high rise sink estate in the British West Midlands. This book is the first comprehensive discussion of Billingham's art practice, articulating the socio-historical, aesthetic, geographical, as well as anthropological aspects of Billingham's art. The book situates his work within the British neorealist tradition in visual art, cinema, and televisual culture. Beginning with the first photographic studies of his father in the early 1990s, Cashell argues that these sympathetic, haunting images prefigure the later development of his thematic concerns. Significant consideration is also given to Billingham's cinematic oeuvre, including his recent feature length autobiographical film Ray. Liz, which substantially clarifies the complex continuity of his developing aesthetic vision. Illustrated throughout with colour and black and white reproductions. Photographic Realism: The Art of Richard Billingham combines investigative research with interviews and studio conversations, providing a subtle and sophisticated critical evaluation of the artist's key photographic and film-based works from the 1990s to the present.

Fredric Jameson and Film Theory Keith B. Wagner, Jeremi Szaniawski, Michael Cramer, 2022-01-14 Frederic Jameson and Film Theory is the first collection of its kind; it assesses and critically responds to Fredric Jameson's remarkable contribution to film theory. The essays assembled explore key Jamesonian concepts such as totality, national allegory, geopolitics, globalization, representation, and pastiche, and his historical schema of realism, modernism, and postmodernism, considering in both cases how these can be applied, revised, expanded, and challenged within film studies. Featuring essays by leading and emerging voices in the field, the volume probes the contours and complexities of neoliberal capitalism across the globe and explores world cinema's situation within these forces by deploying and adapting Jamesonian concepts and placing them in dialogue with other theoretical paradigms. The result is an innovative and rigorously analytical effort that offers a range of Marxist inspired approaches towards cinemas from Asia Latin America Europe and North America in the spirit of Jameson's famous rallying cry always historicize.

Wealth, Poverty and Enduring Inequality Sarah Kerr, 2024-09-27 The rich and the poor in the UK are subject to radically different legislative approaches. While the behaviours of the poor are relentlessly scrutinised those of the rich are ignored or enabled. In this book Sarah Kerr suggests that we live in a state of wealtherty characterised by the hyper concentration of wealth and a stark distinction between the rich and the rest. Drawing on evidence from the 1500s onwards she reveals a long history of government scrutiny of the poor and ignorance of the rich. She contests contemporary policy and practice which disregards the enduring role of the rich in the production of poverty and poverty in the production of the rich. In pursuit of social and economic justice this radical book challenges policy makers and researchers to stop talking about poverty and to start addressing the problems caused by wealtherty.

Religion & Contemporary Art Anthony Padgett, 2010-02 These essays explore the relationship between art and religion. The first part 2001-2002 is essays about The Ism where 1994-9 Padgett united religious and spiritual perspectives by uniting the art forms appropriate to them. The second part is essays from 2002-2005 when Padgett studied at Wimbledon School of Art London for an MA in Theory of Contemporary Art and Performance. Padgett looks at artists Damien Hirst Thomas Hirschhorn Anton Artaud Jake and Dinos Chapman Brothers Guillermo Gomez Pena etc and develops the idea of Postmodern Religious Art. His program of uniting the art forms is progressed by uniting the specific material forms of religions in semi irony with the profane whilst keeping the sacred as of highest importance. The final part is the questionnaire that Padgett submitted to the Employment Tribunals giving the main arguments behind his claim that the Tate Galleries were exercising religious discrimination in the way they selected artworks.

The British Journal of Photography, 1999 Ungleiche Verhältnisse Eva Blome, 2025-03-19 Eine Studie zur literarischen Geschichte eines hochaktuellen Themas wie Bildung sozialen Aufstieg und Ungleichheit. Derzeit haben Erzählungen Konjunktur. Die Berichte von sozialem Aufstieg durch Bildung mit soziologischen Perspektiven auf das eigene Herkunftsmilieu verbinden öffentliche Aufmerksamkeit erregen. Jedoch auch solche Texte, die der Angst vor mangelnder sozialer Integration trotz erfolgreicher Bildung eine literarische Form geben. Diese Veröffentlichungen sind häufig von so genannten Klassenbergängern verfasst. Sie changieren zwischen Autobiographie literarischem Text und Gesellschaftsanalyse oder verbinden diese verschiedenen Genres zu einem eigenen Textformat, das von Sozial und Literaturwissenschaften unter dem Begriff der Autosoziobiographie diskutiert wird. Individuelle Bildungsgeschichten treten dabei als soziologische Gegenwartsdiagnosen in Erscheinung. Eva Blome erkundet Prägungen solcher Schreibweisen in literarischen Texten des 18. und 19. Jahrhunderts wie zum Beispiel bei Karl Philipp Moritz und Adalbert Stifter und setzt sie zu aktuellen Formen literarischer Soziologie in Beziehung. Jenseits des
