Hidden in Contradiction Jeff McSwain, 2023-09-22 Does God's grace grab you and stir you to purposeful Spirit-filled living Or is the gospel that you hear and preach big on belief and short on embodiment Do you see a need for change whether personal ecclesial or social that transcends us righteous vs them wicked polarizations Beginning with every person's participation in Christ as a keystone to creation Jeff McSwain introduces the vibrant reality of Trinitarian community and shows us the dangers of losing sight of the belovedness we share as humans hidden with Christ in God Avoiding simplistic categories McSwain exalts the total goodness of every person in this world by virtue of creation in Christ while also acknowledging the simultaneous contradiction the total depravity of every person by virtue of the fall If ignoring our human duplicity contributes to relational fractures at every level McSwain's dimensional view of human agency urges us to embrace the redemptive truth of our identity in Christ and to refuse our false destructive selves that have been crucified with Christ Filled with scriptural exegesis and practical illustrations that pastors and teachers will especially appreciate this project is a refreshing application of Christology to anthropology and everyday life an inspiring work of systematic theology aimed at systematic change

months of community life in the evacuation centers onto the struggles between the citizens and local governments in formulating reconstruction plans It particularly addresses community interactions within the post disaster context assessing the locals varying degrees of success in organizing emergency committees to deal with such tasks as clearing rubble hunting down food and obtaining fuel and inquiring into the sociological reasons for these differences It also casts new light on administrative failings that significantly augmented the loss of human lives in the disaster and are threatening to bring further damage through insistence on reconstruction centered on enormous sea walls against local citizens wishes
