War and Shadows Mai Lan Gustafsson, 2010-12-15 Vietnamese culture and religious traditions place the utmost importance on dying well in old age body unblemished with surviving children and properly buried and mourned More than five million people were killed in the Vietnam War many of them young many of them dying far from home Another 300 000 are still missing Having died badly they are thought to have become angry ghosts doomed to spend eternity in a kind of spirit hell Decades after the war ended many survivors believe that the spirits of those dead and missing have returned to haunt their loved ones In War and Shadows the anthropologist Mai Lan Gustafsson tells the story of the anger of these spirits and the torments of their kin Gustafsson's rich ethnographic research allows her to bring readers into the world of spirit possession focusing on the source of the pain the physical and mental anguish the spirits bring and various attempts to ameliorate their anger through ritual offerings and the intervention of mediums Through a series of personal life histories she chronicles the variety of ailments brought about by the spirits wrath from headaches and aching limbs often the same limb lost by a loved one in battle to self mutilation In Gustafsson's view the Communist suppression of spirit based religion

after the fall of Saigon has intensified anxieties about the well being of the spirit world While shrines and mourning are still allowed spirit mediums were outlawed and driven underground along with many of the other practices that might have provided some comfort Despite these restrictions she finds victims of these hauntings do as much as possible to try to lay their ghosts to rest

Attracting Investment in Bangladesh—Sectoral Analyses Sanjay Kathuria, Mariem Mezghenni Malouche, 2016-10-17 This is volume 3 of a three volume publication on Bangladesh s trade prospects Bangladesh s ambition is to build on its very solid growth and poverty reduction achievements and accelerate growth to become a middle income country by 2021 and share prosperity more widely amongst its citizens This includes one of its greatest development challenges to provide gainful employment to the over 2 million people that will join the labor force each year over the next decade Moreover only 54.1 million of its 94 million working age people are employed Bangladesh needs to use its labor endowment even more intensively to increase growth and in turn to absorb the incoming labor The Diagnostic Trade Integration Study identifies the following actions centered around four pillars to sustain and accelerate export growth 1 breaking into new markets through a better trade logistics to reduce delivery lags as world markets become more competitive and newer products demand shorter lead times to generate new sources of competitiveness and thereby enable market diversification and b better exploitation of regional trading opportunities in nearby growing and dynamic markets especially East and South Asia 2 breaking into new products through a more neutral and rational trade policy and taxation and bonded warehouse schemes b concerted efforts to spur domestic investment and attract foreign direct investment to contribute to export promotion and diversification including by easing the energy and land constraints and c strategic development and promotion of services trade 3 improving worker and consumer welfare by a improving skills and literacy b implementing labor and work safety guidelines and c making safety nets more effective in dealing with trade shocks and 4 building a supportive environment including a sustaining sound macroeconomic fundamentals and b strengthening the institutional capacity for strategic policy making aimed at the objective of international competitiveness to help bring focus and coherence to the government s reform efforts This third volume provides in depth analysis of eight different manufacturing and services sectors of the Bangladeshi economy which help to illustrate the thematic analysis of volume 2 and ground it in sector experiences Besides pointing to cross cutting themes the analysis also highlights some specific issues and actions that could help relieve constraints to faster export growth in these sectors

Contemporary Issues in Business and Economics Chia-Lin Chang,Duc Hong Vo,2020-07-01 This book is a collection of high impact papers accepted and presented at the 2019 Vietnam s Business and Economics Research Conference VBER2019 organised by Ho Chi Minh City Open University held on 18th 20th July 2019 The Special Issue is associated with a broad coverage of the contemporary issues in Business and Economics in Vietnam and other emerging markets reflecting a key theme of VBER2019 Vietnam s Place in the Asia Pacific Region A total of 14 papers were published from more than the 120 submissions to the VBER2019 Conference Published papers had been undergone a rigorous reviewing process conducted by the Journal of Risk and Financial Management The papers incorporated in this book address contemporary issues in business and economics from Vietnam and other emerging markets in the Asian region from various angles such as economics finance and statistics to management science At the time of writing this note some of the papers have attracted more than 1000 downloads in 3 months In particular a paper on Foreign Direct Investment and Economic Growth from Developing Countries in the Short Run and Long Run by Trang Thi Huyen Dinh and her team has attracted almost 6000 downloads in 3 months These statistics indicate that the papers published in this Special Issue have attracted the wide interest of readers Among these 14 published papers three main areas of important contemporary issues in Business and Economics in the Asian region can be identified First a block of papers deals with various important and fundamental issues in the emerging markets the Asian region from exchange rate regime financial inclusion and financial development to energy consumption and environmental degradation On the issue of CO₂ emissions energy consumption and economic growth in the ASEAN Vo Vo and Le utilized various time series econometrics approaches Key findings from this paper indicate that there are no long run relationships among carbon dioxide CO₂ emissions energy consumption renewable energy population growth and economic growth in the Philippines and Thailand but a relationship does exist in Indonesia Myanmar and Malaysia Loo in his paper on financial inclusion for the ASEAN concluded that advancing internet capability and availability present investors an opportunity to offer financial technology or Fintech to meet the need for financial services in this digital era Second a challenge in quantitative studies for a single country such as Vietnam with limited data is generally noted However various empirical studies on Vietnam s business and economics issues have been conducted Nguyen Quan and Pham examined the cultural distance and entry mode of foreign direct investment in Vietnam A key finding from their paper is that when there is a great cultural difference between Vietnam and their home country foreign invested firms prefer wholly owned subsidiaries over equity joint ventures Within the Vietnamese market Pham Vo Ho and McAleer conducted a study on the issue of corporate financial distress The authors conclude that the corporate financial distress prediction model which includes accounting factors with macroeconomic indicators performs much better than alternative models In addition the evidence confirms that the global financial crisis GFC had a damaging impact on each sector with the Health Education sector demonstrating the most impressive recovery post GFC and the utilities sector recording a dramatic increase in bankruptcies post GFC At another extreme of the spectrum Van and Nguyen considered that competitive context social influences the understanding of managers about corporate social responsibility CSR and the internal environment of companies are the four drivers of CSR The authors also argued that in the four drivers competitive context has the strongest impact on adopting CSR Third last but not least various papers focus on an important aspect of public finance For an example Pham Pham and Ly documented the effect of double taxation treaties on the bilateral trade of Vietnam with ASEAN member states thereby making an extensive comparison with its EU partner countries Their findings indicate the significant contributions of the tax treaties to Vietnam s trade performance not exclusively with ASEAN but also with EU partner countries In addition regarding public finance for Vietnam Nguyen Vo Ho and Vo investigated the contribution of fiscal decentralisation to economic growth across provinces in Vietnam For the first time in Vietnam the fiscal decentralisation index together its two subcomponents including fiscal importance and fiscal autonomy are developed Findings from this paper indicate that while fiscal importance and an overall level of fiscal decentralisation have provided negative impact on provincial economic growth fiscal autonomy has a positive impact on economic growth across provinces in Vietnam

Economic Diversification in Developing Countries Ms. Corinne C Delechat, Mr. Giovanni Melina, Ms. Monique Newiak, Mr. Chris Papageorgiou, Mr. Nikola Spatafora, 2024-07-30 This paper examines the significance and impact of broad based and industrial policies on economic diversification in developing economies supported by a literature review case studies and IMF

analyses Economic diversification entails shifting from traditional sectors like agriculture and mining to a variety of high quality services and sectors This transition is crucial for adapting to global market fluctuations and promoting sustainable growth and improved living standards A literature review including many IMF contributions reveals a strong correlation between economic diversification and improved macroeconomic performance in developing countries such as faster economic growth and higher incomes per capita Factors influencing economic diversification include macroeconomic stability infrastructure quality workforce skills credit access regulatory environment and income equality Six case studies highlight the experiences of Costa Rica Gabon Georgia India Senegal and Vietnam demonstrating that successful diversification strategies require a long term commitment and effective broad based policies Industrial policies can support diversification by addressing market failures but they must be well designed and effectively implemented Common lessons include the necessity of maintaining macroeconomic stability investing in human capital and fostering competition Sector specific mechanisms like Special Economic Zones should be used cautiously emphasizing underlying bottlenecks and minimizing fiscal costs Country specific insights include Costa Rica s strategic policy shift towards export orientation Gabon s reduced dependence on oil Georgia s market friendly policies India s skilled labor and software clusters Senegal s infrastructure and business environment improvements and Vietnam s transition from an agrarian to an industrial economy The IMF s engagement in diversification emphasizes improving human capital infrastructure reducing trade barriers and promoting international trade integration Policymakers researchers and international organizations increasingly recognize the importance of economic diversification for resilient sustainable and inclusive growth requiring nuanced policy interventions tailored to each country s context and capabilities USA Trade World ,1995
