The Secularist Heresy Harry Blamires, 1980 Blamires fullest exploration of the phenomenon of secularism and the threat it presents to the Church back cover      Religion of the Field Negro Vincent W. Lloyd, 2017-11-07 Black theology has lost its direction To reclaim its original power and to advance racial justice struggles today black theology must fully embrace blackness and theology But multiculturalism and religious pluralism have boxed in black theology forcing it to speak in terms dictated by a power structure founded on white supremacy In Religion of the Field Negro Vincent W Lloyd advances and develops black theology immodestly privileging the perspective of African Americans and employing a distinctively theological analysis As Lloyd argues secularism is entangled with the disciplining impulses of modernity with neoliberal economics and with Western imperialism but it also contaminates and castrates black theology Inspired by critics of secularism in other fields Religion of the Field Negro probes the subtle ways in which religion is excluded and managed in black culture Using Barack Obama Huey Newton and Steve Biko as case studies it shows how the criticism of secularism is the prerequisite of all criticism and it shows how criticism and grassroots organizing must go hand in hand But scholars of secularism too often ignore race and scholars of race too often ignore secularism Scholars of black theology too often ignore the theoretical insights of secular black studies scholars and race theorists too often ignore the critical insights of religious thinkers Religion of the Field Negro brings together vibrant scholarly conversations that have remained at a distance from each other until now Weaving theological sources critical theory and cultural analysis this book offers new answers to pressing questions about race and justice love and hope theorizing and organizing and the role of whites in black struggle The insights of James Cone are developed together with those of James Baldwin Sylvia Wynter and Achille Mbembe all in the service of developing a political theological vision that motivates us to challenge the racist paradigms of white supremacy

Empires of Dirt: Secularism, Radical Islam, and the Mere Christendom Alternative Douglas Wilson, 2016-11-08 As it self destructs the strategy of secularism the idea that nations can be religiously neutral is splitting between American exceptionalism and radical Islam American exceptionalism the belief that America is more than a nation is folly Radical Islam is obviously wrong as well but Muslims at least own the nature of the current cultural conflict You must follow somebody whether it s Allah the State or Jesus Christ This important and timely book is an analysis of the changing face of religion and politics and also an extended argument for Christian expression of faith in Jesus Christ This does not mean a withdrawal from politics to our own communities and churches Instead we Christians must take what we have learned from the wreck of secularism and build a Christendom of the New Foundation A network of nations bound together by a formal public civic acknowledgement of the lordship of Jesus Christ and the fundamental truth of the Apostles Creed      The Secularist , 2003

Secular States, Religious Politics Sumantra Bose, 2018-05-03 Presents a comparative study of two major attempts to build secular states India and Turkey in the non Western world      Christian Nationalism and the Paradox of Secularism

Andrew Fiala, 2025-05-08 Christian nationalism is a backlash against the success of secularism and the growth of nonreligion. Its proponents go so far as to claim that secularism is diabolical. This rejection of secularism poses a significant challenge for secular systems which aim to be inclusive of diverse religious ideas. This book explains the depth of this challenge while recounting the views of Christian nationalists including Donald Trump. It shows how key figures in the American tradition—Adams, Jefferson, Madison and others—promoted political secularism. It uses Christian theology and modern political philosophy to argue in defence of secularism and against Christian nationalism.

Encyclopedia of Fundamentalism: Volume 3 of Religion & Society Brenda Brasher, 2001-10-19 The Encyclopedia of Fundamentalism is the third volume of the acclaimed Religion Society series. The Encyclopedia of Fundamentalism follows a broad definition of fundamentalism and covers fundamentalism across time and place, although the emphasis remains on its primary manifestation: Protestant fundamentalism in the United States. It draws upon the work of historians, sociologists, religious scholars, anthropologists, political scientists and others.

Modern Heresies John McGill Krumm, 1961

Beyond Secularism and Jihad? Peter D. Beaulieu, 2012-07-13 Peter D. Beaulieu examines the challenge posed by and to modernity and historic Islam as they encounter one another. He compares the Western separation of Church and state with the unitary Islamic State and explores the proposed cultural and societal principles of the Second Vatican Council as potentially influencing long-term events in both arenas. Beaulieu's research is comprehensive and richly documented yet offers an accessible triangular inquiry into the mosque, the manger and modernity. By restoring a place at the table for Trinitarian Christianity alongside the engulfing monotheism of Islam and the alternative skepticism of Western rationalism, this inquiry broadens the pallet of inter-religious and intercultural contact points. Beyond Secularism and Jihad provides balanced attention to the differences as well as the similarities between Christianity, Islam and modernity. An emerging theme is natural law, which is universal and intrinsic to all mankind and not confined to competing theologies. Neglected in the West, that it helped create natural law might contribute to the needed grammar for dialogue between the citizens in the West and the followers of Islam.

Tell It Often - Tell It Well Mark McCloskey, 2018-06-19 Jesus Christ offers His love and forgiveness to a lost and hurting world. This is the most important message your family, friends and neighbors will ever hear. If the church is to succeed in its evangelistic mission, the good news of the gospel must be boldly, clearly and sensitively communicated so that as many as possible might listen and all those who listen may truly understand and experience the transforming power of God's grace. Followers of the risen, reigning and returning Christ need to tell the good news often and tell it well. If you want your life to count toward bringing others to the Savior, if you want to recommend Jesus to all who will listen, this book is written for you. God is ready, willing and more than able to use you right where you are. No matter your personality type, spiritual giftedness or circumstances, you can play a vital role in helping the love and forgiveness of Christ become a reality in the lives of your family, friends, neighbors and indeed anyone ready to listen.

Heresy and Borders in the Twentieth Century Karina Jakubowicz, Robert

Dickins,2021-03-10 This book explores the shifting and negotiated boundaries of religion spirituality and secular thinking in Britain and North America during the twentieth century It contributes to a growing scholarship that problematises secularization theory arguing that religion and spirituality increasingly took diverse new forms and identities rather than simply being replaced by a monolithic secularity The volume examines the way that thinkers writers and artists manipulated and reimagined orthodox belief systems in their work using the notion of heresy to delineate the borders of what was considered socially and ethically acceptable It includes topics such as psychospiritual approaches in medicine countercultures and religious experience and the function of blasphemy within supposedly secular politics The book argues that heresy and heretical identities established fluid borderlands These borderlands not only blur simple demarcations of the religious and secular in the twentieth century but also infer new forms of heterodoxy through an exchange of ideas This collection of essays offers a nuanced take on a topic that pervades the study of religion It will be of great use to scholars of Heresy Studies Religious Studies and Comparative Religion Social Anthropology History Literature Philosophy and Cultural Studies The Shield of faith ,1880 Secularism and its Opponents from Augustine to Solzhenitsyn E.

Joskowicz,Ethan B. Katz,2015-06-30 For much of the twentieth century most religious and secular Jewish thinkers believed that they were witnessing a steady ongoing movement toward secularization Toward the end of the century however as scholars and pundits began to speak of the global resurgence of religion the normalization of secularism could no longer be considered inevitable Recent decades have seen the strengthening of Orthodox movements in the United States and in Israel religious Zionism has grown and radically changed since the 1960s and new and vibrant nondenominational Jewish movements have emerged Secularism in Question examines the ways these contemporary revivals of religion prompt a reconsideration of many issues concerning Jews and Judaism from the early modern era to the present Bringing together scholars of history religion philosophy and literature this volume illustrates how the categories of religious and secular have frequently proven far more permeable than fixed The contributors challenge the problematic assumptions about the development of secularism that emerge from Protestant European and American perspectives and demonstrate that global Jewish experiences necessitate a reappraisal of conventional narratives of secularism Ultimately Secularism in Question calls for rethinking the very terms that animate many of the most contentious debates in contemporary Jewish life and far beyond Contributors Michal Ben Horin Aryeh Edrei Jonathan Mark Gribetz Ari Joskowicz Ethan B Katz Eva Lezzi Vivian Liska Rachel Manekin David Myers Amnon Raz Krakotzkin Andrea Schatz Christophe Schulte Daniel B Schwartz Galili Shahar Scott Ury
