Benston, 2010 George J Benston professor of Finance Accounting and Economics at Emory University's Goizueta Business School died unexpectedly in January 2008 He was an impassioned advocate for corporate integrity and a unique scholar his research interests were as broad as those of any recent academician His colleagues have selected and organized his most important papers into two volumes This second volume consists of his publications in the fields of accounting and finance The editor has selected a broad range of papers from each of the major areas that are representative of Benston's work in the International Lawyer's Deskbook Lucinda A. Low, Daniel M. Drory, 2003 A reference tool for lawyers facing international legal problems outside their own areas of expertise The Domain Name System, Parts I-II United States. Congress. House. Committee on Science. Subcommittee on Basic Research, 1999 Securities Regulation in Cyberspace, Third Edition, Transnational Securities Regulation Antonio Marcacci, 2022-11-25 The book provides an analysis of the emergence evolution and transformation of transnational securities regulation and of the influences from and the interactions between global regulatory powers in the field Combining insights from law and political science the work employs a two tier complementary on the books and in action approach The more classical on the books approach draws on scholarship in United States and European Union securities regulation transnational regulation and global administrative law regime complexity global governance studies and the regulatory production of the International Organisation of Securities Commissions IOSCO The law in action approach leverages the author's experience as Compliance senior professional in a multinational financial institution as well as research interviews with senior IOSCO staff The author's findings enable the reader to develop an original understanding of IOSCO its standards and its unique place in the transnational regulatory arena They also challenge the doxa that the US are the only driving regulatory power in the securities area when in fact other regulatory powers are emerging for the time being the EU The balance has shifted and regulatory compromises are achieved at different points in the rule making process Compilation of Securities Laws Within the Jurisdiction of the Committee on Commerce United States, 2003 Economics and Regulation in China Michael Faure, Guangdong Xu, 2013-10-15 This book from a top international group of scholars explores the ways in which economic tools can be used to improve the quality of regulation in general and legislative tools in particular As the role of law becomes increasingly important in China the question arises of how effective regulatory and legislative tools can be developed to accompany the Chinese evolution towards a welfare state China therefore provides a unique case study for scholars and policymakers interested in examining how regulation can play a role in promoting sustainable development Economics and Regulation in China goes beyond traditional economic analysis of law by focusing specifically on the question of how economic tools can guide the quality of legislation To this end the book centres in on three areas regulation as a tool of economic growth competition policy and environmental policy Not only are these three domains of great importance for China but they are also relevant for a broad scholarship interested in the economic analysis of law. This volume contributes to discussions on how ex ante evaluation of legislative proposals and ex post analysis can increase the effectiveness and efficiency of regulation using economic tools offering insights that go beyond the particular case of China. The analysis offered by this book makes it an invaluable resource for academics and policymakers alike. Code of Federal Regulations, 1979 Special edition of the Federal Register containing a codification of documents of general applicability and future effect with ancillaries.
