Authority and Political Culture in Shi'ism Saïd Amir Arjomand, 1988-07-08 The major theme of this book is authority in Shi'ism with special emphasis on its institutionalization in different historic periods from the beginning of Shi'ism in the Middle Ages to the present Part I presents new material on important or neglected issues that are at the center of current scholarly debate including the fundamental relationship between knowledge and authority in pristine Shi'ism aspects of popular culture in medieval Shi'ism the institutionalization of religious authority in Shi'ite Iran from the 16th to 18th centuries and the centralization of religious authority in the 19th century The editor provides an analysis of the ideological revolution in Shi'ism during the 1970s and 1980s Important documents and primary sources have been selected for Part II representing the major trends in the history of Shi'ism With two exceptions these sources have neither been available in English translation nor easily accessible in the original Arabic or Persian An extensive introduction by the editor effectively connects Parts I and II of the book Boom's Blues Wim Verbeij, 2017-05-09 Boom's Blues stands as both a remarkable biography of J Frank G Boom 1920 1953 and a recovery of his incredible contribution to blues scholarship originally titled The Blues Satirical Songs of the North American Negro Wim Verbeij tells how and when the Netherlands was introduced to African American blues music and describes the equally dramatic and peculiar friendship that existed between Boom and jazz critic and musicologist Will Gilbert who worked for the Kultuurkamer during World War II and had been charged with the task of formulating the Nazi's Jazzverbod the decree prohibiting the public performance of jazz Boom's Blues ends with the annotated and complete text of Boom's The Blues providing the international world at last with an English version of the first book length study of the blues At the end of the 1960s a series of thirteen blues paperbacks edited by Paul Oliver for the London publisher November Books began appearing One manuscript landed on his desk that had been written in 1943 by a

then twenty three year old Amsterdammer Frank Frans Boom Its publication to which Oliver gave the title Laughing to Keep from Crying was announced on the back jacket of the last three Blues Paperbacks in 1971 and 1972 Yet it never was published and the manuscript once more disappeared In October 1996 Dutch blues expert and publicist Verbei went in search of the presumably lost manuscript and the story behind its author It only took him a couple of months to track down the manuscript but it took another ten years to glean the full story behind the extraordinary Frans Boom who passed away in 1953 in Indonesia Economic Review ,1984 Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Select Committee on
