Ascent to Bankruptcy Carmelo Mesa-Lago, 2010-11-23 In 1990 Carmelo Mesa Lago the foremost authority on social security in Latin America concluded that all of the region's programs were imperiled especially those in the most advanced nations His study of twenty countries originally sponsored by the United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America critically reviews major financial problems low and uneven population coverage erosion in benefits increasing costs and the impact of social security on development In words that eerily echo current U S debates Mesa Lago analyzes virtually all social insurance programs old age disability and survivors pensions health care occupational hazards family allowances and unemployment For social security specialists this impressive study will serve as a comprehensive regional handbook on the legal administrative and financial features of Latin America's programs Students of comparative policy and applied economics will find Mesa Lago's methodology analytical framework and policy recommendations invaluable Informe de la comisión de expertos en la aplicación de convenios y recomendaciones. Informe 87 III (1A) Oficina Internacional del Trabajo. Comisión de Expertos en Aplicación de Convenios y Recomendaciones, 1999 El presente informe elaborado por la Comisión consta esencialmente de tres partes el Informe general constituye la primera y en ella la Comisión examina las cuestiones generales relativas a las normas internacionales del trabajo y a otros instrumentos relacionados así como a su aplicación En la segunda parte figuran observaciones sobre la aplicación de convenios La tercera parte constituye un volumen aparte Informe III Parte 1B consiste en un estudio general sobre los instrumentos respecto de los cuales los gobiernos han sido invitados a presentar sus memorias Bounded Rationality and Policy Diffusion Kurt Weyland, 2009-02-09 Why do very different countries often emulate the same policy model Two years after Ronald Reagan's income tax simplification of 1986 Brazil adopted a similar reform even though it threatened to exacerbate income disparity and jeopardize state revenues And Chile's pension privatization of the early 1980s has spread throughout Latin America and beyond even though many poor countries that have privatized their social security systems including Bolivia and El Salvador lack some of the preconditions necessary to do so successfully In a major step beyond conventional rational choice accounts of policy decision making this book demonstrates that bounded not full rationality drives the spread of innovations across countries When seeking solutions to domestic problems decision makers often consider foreign models sometimes promoted by development institutions like the

World Bank But as Kurt Weyland argues policymakers apply inferential shortcuts at the risk of distortions and biases Through an in depth analysis of pension and health reform in Bolivia Brazil Costa Rica El Salvador and Peru Weyland demonstrates that decision makers are captivated by neat bold cognitively available models And rather than thoroughly assessing the costs and benefits of external models they draw excessively firm conclusions from limited data and overextrapolate from spurts of success or failure Indications of initial success can thus trigger an upsurge of policy diffusion
