Wife provides a comprehensive examination of the evolution of sex therapy through the prism of gender. The book makes the argument that in sex therapy like other domains of life in which men set the standard of normality women have been judged normal to the degree they match men's expectations. What is particularly striking about this bias is that it contradicts therapists' overt identification with feminism and the battle against women's inequality. To support these claims Leslie Margolin maps a series of case studies drawn from the discipline's own literature: the articles and books that have been and continue to be treated as exemplars of the discipline's collective consciousness. Through examination of case studies which focus on discrepancies in sexual desire where the man wants more sex and the woman less, the book shows how therapists have favoured the man's side. The Etherized Wife shows how the sex therapy discipline has unintentionally enshrined male sexuality as the model of normal, natural, healthy sexuality.

Masculinity and Sexuality Richard C. Friedman, Jennifer I. Downey, 1999. Masculinity and Sexuality: Selected Topics in the Psychology of Men sheds light on clinical issues important in the treatment of all male patients. Sexual experiences and related attitudes of patients and therapists influence symptoms, treatment and outcome across diverse diagnostic categories. Chapters cover clinical issues related to men's sexual thoughts, impulses and desires and the way they are organized into erotic fantasies, including the differences that exist in the way men and women experience sexual fantasy. Heterosexuality as part of a developmental phase that includes the capacity for intimacy and love. Erectile dysfunction including a paradigm for integrating the biological and psychological factors that together influence male sexual dysfunction. The role of fatherhood in psychological development during adulthood. The casualties of recovered memory therapy: the victimization of fathers by children who make false allegations of sexual abuse.
