Marlboro Township:

Marlboro Township Randall Gabrielan, 1999-12 The history of Marlboro Township is both fascinating and diverse including topics as varied as some of the first airplanes a landmark greenhouse and the once booming local potato industry This collection includes many scenes and reminders of Marlboro s textured past and a timely look into its bright future Marlboro Township presents a once rural Monmouth County town on its way to modern suburbia Among the many images collected for this volume are those that reveal Marlboro s successful agricultural past The region was once the nation s largest grower of potatoes while Marlboro had industrial beginnings with a large tomato factory The township also boasted the area s greatest greenhouse a structure so large that it became part of an aerial road map for World War II aviators Moreover dramatic aerial views capture Marlboro s aviation history from the first private owners of a Wright Brothers plane to a post World War II airport built solely through personal initiative This book presents the well known and the lesser known places people and events that make up the broad perspective of Marlboro s story Marlboro Township Background for Planning N.J. PLANNING BOARD. MARLBORO, Marlboro Township, 1964 Living Memorials Project Erika S. Svendsen, 2005 Reviews the public spaces that have been created used or enhanced in memory lives lost from terrorists attacks of September 11 2001 Reports the results of a national registry that serves as an online inventory of living memorial sites and social motivations Through the first year of research more than 200 living memorials were located in every state in the U S This publication includes findings associated with research conducted in the first year of the multi year study One of the findings was that after September 11 2001 communities needed space space to create space to teach space to restore space to create a locus of control These social motivations formed the basis of patterned human responses observed throughout the nation A site typology emerged adhering to specific forms and functions that often reflected a variance in attitudes beliefs and social networks Operating Banking Offices, 1975 Data Book, Operating Banks and Branches, 1991 Congressional District Atlas United States.
