Marokkaanse Gezinnen In Nederland:

Islam in Dutch Society W. A. R. Shadid, P. Sj. van Koningsveld, 1992 This book generally discusses three main topics connected to the situation of Muslims in Dutch society First of all attention is given to the subject of faith and rituals such as the existing mystical orders mosque sermons and the institutionalization of ritual slaughter The second subject deals with Islam and the second generation Muslims in the Netherlands In this context the situation of the so called runaway girls and education in general are discussed Special attention is given to the development and functioning of Islamic schools and to the education in one's own language and culture The last topic deals with Muslim organizations their development and role in the emancipation of these religious groups in Dutch society Furthermore obstacles hindering the establishment of a Muslim council on a national level are thoroughly discussed This book can be of interest to various categories of people such as scholars theologians social scientists lawyers policy makers and those who through their profession are in regular contact with members of the Muslim community in the Netherlands

Making European Muslims Mark Sedgwick, 2014-09-19 Making European Muslims provides an in depth examination of what it means to be a young Muslim in Europe today where the assumptions values and behavior of the family and those of the majority society do not always coincide Focusing on the religious socialization of Muslim children at home in semi private Islamic spaces such as mosques and Quran schools and in public schools the original contributions to this volume focus largely on countries in northern Europe with a special emphasis on the Nordic region primarily Denmark Case studies demonstrate the ways that family life public education and government policy intersect in the lives of young Muslims and inform their developing religious beliefs and practices Mark Sedgwick's introduction provides a framework for theorizing Muslimness in the European context arguing that Muslim children must navigate different and sometimes contradictory expectations and demands on their way to negotiating a European Muslim identity
