Work-Lifestyle Choices in the 21st Century Catherine Hakim,2000-11-02 In this book Hakim presents a new multi disciplinary theory for explaining and predicting current and future patterns of women s choice between employment and family work Preference theory is the first theory developed specifically to explain women s behaviour and choices As such it constitutes a major break from male centred theorizing to date in sociology and economics Preference theory is grounded on the substantial body of new research on women s work and fertility that has flourished within feminist scholarship It identifies five major historical changes that collectively are producing a qualitatively new scenario for women in prosperous societies in the 21st century Throughout the analysis the USA and Britain illustrate what the new scenario means for women how it alters their preferences and work lifestyles choices Hakim also reviews research evidence on contemporary developments across Europe Canada Australia Japan and the far East to develop a new theory that is genuine international in perspective Sexual Identity and Lesbian Family Life Iris Erh-Ya Pai,2017-07-11 This new book illustrates how Taiwanese lesbians negotiate their lives outside patriarchal families while seeking varying ways to maintain working relationships with their families of origin as their notion of family distinguishes them from same sex couples in other countries This ambivalence has a strong influence on their relational decisions as they deal with contradictions between family ties filial piety and lesbianism Based on individual and couple interviews with self identified lesbian couples in stable relationships the book offers vivid narratives of different ways in which Taiwanese lesbians have been able to make sense of their families without recognition by legislation or their families of origin Specific issues in Taiwan raised in the book challenge the taken for granted understandings of same sex relationships and review the dramatic transformations that have profoundly changed womens position It also offers a sensitive analysis of GLBT issues and heteronormativity arguing that Chinese familialism can cohabite with lesbianism in the context of contemporary Taiwan Catholic Reflections for August 2025 Yohanes Rifai Alwan,2025-03-10 Catholic Reflections for August 2025 Understanding Marital Violence Kausiki Sarma,2024-07-29 This book examines the roles and interconnections between structural factors and individual agency in marital violence focusing on women in heterosexual marital relationships With the overall aim of improving recognition and strengthening responses to marital violence it underlines what occurs as marital violence and why it is possibly occurring in the manner it does while simultaneously demonstrating how it is dealt with and resisted Based upon in depth qualitative data focussing upon the experiences of women facing marital violence and key informants from Assam in Northeast India this book sheds light upon four key areas To begin with what is named or recognised and not recognised as marital violence is assessed and a typology and associated denials informed by the capabilities approach is developed Further the re victimisation that happens through and within both civil and criminal justice is explored In addition to this the existing structural context highlighting changes that occur at a broader economic political and social level contextualising a society that is in transition has been emphasised To conclude conditioned by distinct material cultural constraints enablers and acknowledging the role played by emotions a temporal agential trajectory in response to marital violence is mapped specifically through the concepts of Habitus and Reflexivity In short this book attempts to decolonise certain aspects of academic knowledge around marital violence by asserting the need to consider distinct natures and forms of violence and violations that occur within marriages and the acknowledgement of a spectrum of actions in the agential trajectory so that victims survivors are not solely assessed by their decisions to stay or to leave an abusive marriage It will be of interest to scholars students professionals and policymakers working within social work social policy gender studies and violence prevention Women in Muslim Societies Herbert L. International Handbook on Gender and Demographic Processes Nancy E. Riley, Jan Brunson, 2018-05-02 This handbook presents a comprehensive and up to date overview of gender in demography addressing the many different influences of gender that arise from or influence demographic processes It collects in one volume the key issues and perspectives in this area whereby demography is broadly defined The purpose in casting a wide net is to cover the range of work being done within demography but at the same time to open up our perspectives to neighboring fields to encourage better conversations around these issues The chapters in this handbook carefully document definition and measurement issues and take up parts of the demographic picture and focus on how gender plays a role in outcomes In other cases gender often plays a cross cutting role in social processes rather than having a single or easily distinguishable role it often combines with other social institutions and even other statuses and inequalities to affect outcomes Thus a key factor in this volume is how gender interacts with race ethnicity class nationality and sexuality in any demographic setting While each section contains chapters that are broad overviews of the current state of knowledge and behavior the handbook also includes chapters that focus on specific cultures or events in order to examine how gender operates in a particular circumstance      Choices William R.
