Is There Life after Divorce in the Church? Richard L. Morgan, 2006-04-01 Richard L. Morgan has produced a welcome resource for those of us who have been divorced and felt we were beyond the pale of the Christian community It is true that Jesus speaks against divorce but it is also true that some New Testament scholars believe he was speaking to protect the rights of the oppressed under ancient law the oppressed being women On the other hand divorce is a painful experience that impacts over half of those who married It cannot be ignored by religious leaders some of whom themselves may be divorced If we believe in acknowledging sin without casting the sinner out we need to find ways of healing in churches I always reminded myself in giving sermons that if national statistics were right half of my listeners had been impacted by divorce Rev Dr John C Morgan minister teacher and author of Awakening the Soul Richard Lyon Morgan is a retired Presbyterian minister and pastoral counselor now living at Redstone Highlands North Huntingdon Pennsylvania In addition to his doctorate in church history he has a master s degree in counseling from Wake Forest University A former pastoral counselor with School of Pastoral Care he has led divorce support groups and counseled many persons young and old going through the process of divorce Dr Morgan is divorced and married again with ten grandchildren
