Dr. Rachana Yadav, 2018-12-15 Since ancient times Patriarchal hegemony on socio cultural institutions has established the general notion about woman as a shadow figure to a male concierge be he a father a husband or a son It was also a granted notion that reader writer and even critic of all literature can only be male because this notion assumes the exclusion of female voice from the institution of literary expression shunning her as an inferior sex The purpose of all Patriarchal conspiracy is to retain power and possessive right over womenfolk To make women believe that there is such a thing as essence of femaleness called femininity serves the purpose of Patriarchy This speaks of the Male chauvinistic conspiracy and prudish notion of the male dominance in the world for exploitation of womenfolk Why Would I Be Married Here? Reena Kukreja, 2022-04-15 Why Would I Be Married Here examines marriage migration undertaken by rural bachelors in North India unable to marry locally who travel across the breadth of India seeking brides who do not share the same caste ethnicity language or customs as themselves Combining rich ethnographic evidence with Dalit feminist and political economy frameworks Reena Kukreja connects the macro political violent process of neoliberalism to the micro personal level of marriage and intimate gender relations to analyze the lived reality of this set of migrant brides in cross region marriages among dominant peasant caste Hindus and Meo Muslims in rural North India Why Would I Be Married Here reveals how predatory capitalism links with patriarchy to dispossess many poor women from India's marginalized Dalit and Muslim communities of marriage choices in their local communities It reveals how within the context of the increasing spread of capitalist relations these women's pragmatic cross region migration for marriage needs to be reframed as an exercise of their agency that simultaneously exposes them to new forms of gender subordination and internal othering of caste discrimination and ethnocentrism in conjugal communities Why Would I Be Married Here offers powerful examples of how contemporary forces of neoliberalism reshape the structural oppressions compelling poor women from marginalized communities

Youngstedt,2013 Surviving with Dignity explores three key interconnected themes structural violence suffering and surviving with dignity through examining the lived experiences of first and second generation migrant Hausa men in Niamey over the past two decadesin the current neoliberal moment Colonialism state mismanagement structural adjustment and global neoliberalism have inflicted structural violence on Nigeriens by denying them human and particularly socioeconomic rights and relegating them to a status at or very near the bottom of UN Human Development Index in each year of the past decade. As a result of structural violence, most Hausa of Niamey suffer grinding and intractable poverty that has intensified over the past two decades. Suffering is a recurrent and expected condition; it is the normal condition. The central goal of the book is to explain the material migration and informal economy work and symbolic meaning-making strategies that Hausa individuals and communities have deployed in their struggles not only to literally survive in the face of economic austerity on the outer periphery of the global economy but also to survive with dignity. Despite daunting challenges, many Hausa men find strength and patience in their humble devotion to Islam, cherish their vibrant sociability and gracious hospitality, deeply value extraordinary conversational virtuosity and knowledge, deploy humor in complex transcendent defensive and self-critical ways, perpetuate a sense of hope and optimism for the future, articulate their own modernities and strive relentlessly to feel connected to the modern world at large. Extreme poverty created by socioeconomic injustice constitutes an unacceptable assault on human dignity. Hausa men's remarkable strength does not negate the reality of the socioeconomic injustices they face. Their dire poverty in a world of plenty is unacceptable even when they handle it gracefully.
