Marrying Well Stages On The Journey Of Christian Marriage:

Marrying well : stages on the journey of Christian marriage Evelyn Eaton Whitehead,1983      Marrying well James D. Whitehead,1983      Marriage After Modernity Adrian Thatcher,1999-09 For most Christians marriage is considered a sacrament created and uniquely blessed by God Yet the theology of marriage rarely matches the actual experience Marriage is too often a violent loveless institution and it is increasingly delayed avoided or terminated Marriage After Modernity offers new hope for Christian marriage at a time of unprecedented social and theological change It provides an unreserved commendation of Christian marriage reaffirming its status as a sacrament and institution of mutual self giving At the same time it breaks new ground It draws on earlier traditions of betrothal and informal marriage to accept some forms of pre marital cohabitation and provides a new defense of the link between marriage and procreation by sketching a theology of liberation for children Chapters shed new light on divorce and legitimate theological grounds for the parting of the ways contraception and the question of whether marriage is a heterosexual institution Particular attention is paid throughout the book to overcoming the androcentric bias of much Christian thought and the distorting effect it has had on marriage Marriage After Modernity argues for a vision of marriage which does not abandon its history and which draws upon its premodern roots to grapple with our current social cultural and intellectual upheavals      Christian Marriage and Family Michael G. Lawler,William P. Roberts,1996 A definite shift in the Catholic Church's understanding of marriage took place at Vatican Council II Rather than perceiving marriage as a contract whose primary purpose was the procreation of children the council spoke of marriage as an intimate partnership of life and love Then recapturing an earlier tradition it went on to describe the family as a domestic church In this book seven theologians who have lectured and written extensively on marriage probe the rich theology of marriage and family that emerged from Vatican II and explore some of the implications that flow from this theology Part One reflects on the sacramentality of marriage and on the family as a church of the home Part Two examines the pastoral implications this has for marital and family ministry and spirituality BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved      The Christian Path in a Pluralistic World and the Study of Spirituality Diana Villegas,2012-01-01 Based on exploration of boundaries between spirituality and religion this book argues that theological study of spirituality is important for interpretation of the Christian path in a pluralistic world As a text for graduate study in spirituality and ministry it explores relevant sociological studies post modern culture contemporary study of Christian spirituality and a brief history of the relationship between theology and spirituality The book argues that the revelation and tradition of Christianity understood and interpreted in the light of contemporary culture make a difference to postmodern persons' quests for spirituality What one believes and how one understands that belief influences the manner in which the Christian path is lived in a pluralistic global world The book discusses the role of religion in culture and the relevance of this for the identity of religious spirituality and the study of Christian spirituality

Marriage and Sacrament Michael G. Lawler, 2017-06-15 At a time in human history when women and men are more concerned about interpersonal relationships and when there is an extensive questioning of the specific relationship between a woman and a man in marriage Marriage and Sacrament offers an understanding of how to live out the Christ meaning and Church meaning of that relationship so that by living martially and sacramentally couples can reveal to the world and to the Church the deeper meaning of all human love The book examines the relationship among love marriage and sacrament it examines the meanings of the sacrament of marriage its biblical basis its history and what happens when it comes to an end it examines sexual love indissoluble love fruitful love and ecumenical love in relationship to both marriage and sacrament Marriage and Sacrament is an indispensable resource for pastoral ministers and ministry students as well as all who contemplate or are now partners in marriage

Healing Violent Men David J. Livingston, Violence forgiveness and healing Domestic violence is a widespread though largely invisible problem often exacerbated by the pastoral urge to keep the family together at all costs Yet if that is not a solution how should the church relate to batterers I believe that the Christian community if it is to be genuinely a community of healing and hope must attend to both the victims and the perpetrators of domestic violence says David Livingston Addressing the complex phenomenon of intimate violence against wives lovers and children Livingston profiles batterers and battering and traces it to larger cultural pathologies He explores the ambiguous role of religion and then offers practical advice of pastoral and programmatic efforts to embrace simultaneously the twin Christian imperatives of forgiveness and responsibility
