Marshas Unbearable Day:

Marsha's Unbearable Day Marcia Leonard, 1995 When Marsha misplaces the toy koala that has been sent to her Brownie troop by a troop in Australia she frantically retraces her steps trying to find it

Girl Scout Collectors' Guide Mary Degenhardt, Judith Kirsch, 2005 In more than nine decades of Girl Scouting a vast popular and material culture has given rise to a wealth of Girl Scout history collections More than an identification guide to uniforms insignia and other Girl Scout objects this work also documents when changes occurred and why new items were introduced Placing these objects in context this essential guide provides a discerning look at the history and development of the Girl Scout Movement in the United States Scholars and aficionados of Girl Scout history costume history women's studies popular culture and dress will welcome this indispensable and definitive resource This new expanded edition with hundreds of illustrations photographs and tables is indisputably the go to source for information on all Girl Scout uniforms insignia awards and handbooks as well as dolls postcards posters calendars and more from the founding of the Girl Scouts in 1912 through the present day An invaluable resource to Girl Scout councils managing a history collection And beyond that an informative and intriguing glimpse into the evolution of a Movement that today is the world's preeminent organization dedicated solely to girls Cynthia B Thompson chair National Board of Directors and Kathy Cloninger national chief executive officer GSUSA An indispensable reference for collectors a fascinating resource for anyone interested in Girl Scouting this comprehensive guide to Girl Scout memorabilia is firmly grounded in the history of the Girl Scouts of the United States Mary Degenhardt and Judith Kirsch show us what Girl Scouts wore and read and explain how changes in uniforms insignia and publications reflect the evolution of Girl Scout programs and the expansion of opportunities for American girls Reading this book is like walking through a fine museum where material culture brings the past to life Anastasia Sims author of Negotiating Boundaries of Southern Womanhood

When Angels Cry Eleanor Stevens, 2007-10 I wanted to comfort Alan and Marsha to say something anything that would take away the hurt I wanted to help the family but there were no words that I could possibly say and I myself was hanging on by a thread but I knew I must be strong for the others I felt as if I were coming unraveled I kept telling myself I had to hang on Marsha certainly wasn't it was too much for her to bear Suddenly Marsha crawled back to her cot as if she were getting on her knees to pray but instead she cursed God Every foul word she could think of came from her mouth but how could she blame God it wasn't God's fault God gave those children to her it was left up to her to take care of those babies instead she stayed in a drunken stupor thinking only of her own selfish wants she abused and misused her own children How could she possibly blame God
