The Manuscript Inventories and the Catalogs of Manuscripts, Books, and Periodicals: Book catalog, Mae-Pin Arthur and Elizabeth Schlesinger Library on the History of Women in America, 1984 Fictions of the Female Self R. Parkin-Gounelas, 1991-10-23 Women's novels have traditionally been read as subjective Through an examination of three generations of women's fiction in the post Romantic period this book challenges traditional readings of women's novels and argues that fiction writing for women has often been a matter of self erasure rather than self inscription In particular it examines the changing strategies sometimes collusive and sometimes rebellious which Charlotte Bronte Olive Schreiner and Katherine Mansfield employed in their tentative project of inscribing female subjectivity into the novel and story form

A world list of books in the English language Ontario Library Review, 1964 Postcolonial Nostalgias Dennis Walder, 2010-11-17 This book offers an original and informed critique of a widespread yet often misunderstood condition nostalgia a pervasive human emotion connecting people across national and historical as well as personal boundaries Often seen as merely escapist nostalgia also offers solace and self understanding for those displaced by the larger movements of our time Walder analyses the writings of some of those entangled in the aftermath of empire tracing the hidden connections underlying their yearnings for a common identity and a homeland and their struggles to recover their histories Through a series of comparative reflections upon the representation in literary and related cultural forms of memory he shows how admitting the past into the present through nostalgia enables former colonial or diasporic subjects to gain a deeper understanding of the networks of power within which they are caught in the modern world and beyond which it may yet be possible to move Considering authors as varied as V S Naipaul J G Ballard Doris Lessing W G Sebald and Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie as well as versions of Bushman song Walder pursues the often wayward ambiguous paths of nostalgia as it has been represented beyond but also within Europe so as to identify some of those processes of communal and individual experience that constitute the present and by implication the future
