Martin Bubers Formative Years From German Culture To Jewish Renewal 1897 1909 Judaic Studies Series:

Martin Buber's Formative Years Gilya Gerda Schmidt, 2017-12-12 An illuminating look at an understudied but critical period in Buber's early career Martin Buber 1878 1965 has had a tremendous impact on the development of Jewish thought as a highly influential figure in 20th century philosophy and theology However most of his key publications appeared during the last forty years of his life and little is known of the formative period in which he was searching for and finding the answers to crucial dilemmas affecting Jews and Germans alike Now available in paperback Martin Buber's Formative Years illuminates this critical period in which the seeds were planted for all of his subsequent work During the period from 1897 to 1909 Buber's keen sense of the crisis of humanity his intimate knowledge of German culture and Jewish sources and his fearlessness in the face of possible ridicule challenged him to behave in a manner so outrageous and so contrary to German Jewish tradition that he actually achieved a transformation of himself and those close to him Calling on spiritual giants of great historical periods in German Christian and Jewish history such as Nicolas of Cusa Jakob Boehme Israel Baal Shem Tov Rabbi Nachman of Breslov Johann Wolfgang von Goethe and Friedrich Nietzsche Buber proceeded to subvert the existing order by turning his upside down world of slave morality right side up once more By examining the multitude of disparate sources that Buber turned to for inspiration Gilya Gerda Schmidt elucidates Buber's creative genius and his contribution to turn of the century Jewish renewal This comprehensive study concludes that Buber was successful in creating the German Jewish symbiosis that emancipation was to have created for the two peoples but that this synthesis was tragic because it came too late for practical application by Jews in Germany

Coetsier,2014-01-09 In The Existential Philosophy of Etty Hillesum Meins G S Coetsier breaks new ground by demonstrating the Jewish existential nature of Etty Hillesum's spiritual and cultural life in light of the writings of Martin Buber Emmanuel Levinas and Dietrich Bonhoeffer Hillesum's diaries and letters written between 1941 and 1943 illustrate her struggle to come to terms with her personal life in the context of the Second World War and the Shoah By finding God under the rubble of the horrors she rediscovers the divine presence between humankind while taking up responsibility for the Other as a way to embrace justice and compassion In a fascinating accessible and thorough study Coetsier dispels much of the confusion that assails readers when they are exposed to the bewildering range of Christian and Jewish influences and other cultural interpretations of her writings The result is a convincing and profound picture of Etty Hillesum's path to spiritual freedom
