Marx And Feminism:

Marxism and Feminism Shahrzad Mojab, 2015-03-12 Global events from economic crisis to social unrest and militarization disproportionately affect women. Yet around the world it is also women who are leading the struggle against oppression and exploitation. In light of renewed interest in Marxist theory among many women activists and academics, Marxism and Feminism presents a contemporary and accessible Marxist feminist analysis on a host of issues. It reassesses previous debates and seeks to answer pressing questions of how we should understand the relationship between patriarchy and capitalism and how we can envision a feminist project which emancipates both women and society. With contributions from both renowned scholars and new voices, Marxism and Feminism is set to become the foundational text for modern Marxist feminist thought.

Marxism and the Oppression of Women Lise Vogel, 2013-06-03 Nearly thirty years after its initial publication, Marxism and the Oppression of Women remains an essential contribution to the development of an integrative theory of gender oppression under capitalism. Lise Vogel revisits classical Marxian texts, tracking analyses of the woman question in socialist theory and drawing on central theoretical categories of Marx's Capital to open up an original theorisation of gender and the social production and reproduction of material life. Included in this edition are Vogel's article Domestic Labor Revisited, originally published in Science Society in 2000, which extends and clarifies her main theoretical innovations, and a new Introduction by Susan Ferguson and David McNally situating Vogel's work in the trajectory of Marxist feminist thought over the past forty years.

Woman Questions Lise Vogel, 1995 Marx, Women, and Capitalist Social Reproduction Martha E. Giménez, 2018-10-08 In Marx Women and Capitalist Social Reproduction, Martha E. Gimenez offers a distinctive perspective on social reproduction which posits that the relations of production determine the relations of social reproduction and links the effects of class exploitation and location to forms of oppression predominantly theorised in terms of identity. Grounding her analysis on Marx's theory and methodology, Gimenez examines the relationship between class reproduction and the oppression of women in different contexts such as the reproduction of labour power, domestic labour, feminisation of poverty, and reproductive technologies. Because most women and men, whether members of dominant or oppressed groups, are working class, she argues that the future of feminist politics is inextricably tied to class politics and the fate of capitalism.

Women and Revolution Lydia Sargent, 1981 Women and Revolution, edited by Lydia Sargent, is the second volume in the South End Press Political Controversies Series on contemporary political theory and practice. The lead article, THE UNHAPPY MARRIAGE OF MARXISM AND FEMINISM by Heidi Hartmann, argues that the marriage of Marxism and feminism has been like that between husband and wife depicted in English common law: Marxism and feminism are one, and that one is Marxism. To continue the metaphor further, either we need a healthier marriage or we need a divorce. The twelve contributors to this discussion are Iris Young, Christine Riddiough, Gloria Joseph, Sandra Harding, Azizah al-Hibri, Carol Ehrlich, Lise Vogel, Emily Hicks, Carol Brown, Katie Stewart, Ann Ferguson, Nancy Folbre, Zillah Eisenstein.

Educating from

Marx S. Mojab, S. Carpenter, 2011-09-14 Educators have been working to develop an important body of literature on neo liberalism capitalism and imperialism This combines original empirical studies with literature review from critical adult education and feminist theory to examine the theories and practices of adult education from a Marxist Feminist perspective

Women's Oppression Today Michèle Barrett, 2014-08-12 Women's Oppression Today is a classic text in the debate about Marxism and feminism exploring how gender sexuality and the family household system operate in relation to contemporary capitalism In this updated edition Michèle Barrett surveys the social and intellectual changes that have taken place since the book's original publication and looks back at the political climate in which the book was written In a major new essay she defends the central arguments of the book at the same time addressing the way such an engagement would play out differently today over thirty years later A foreword by Kathi Weeks examines the importance of approaching all feminist theories as events whose repercussions stretch beyond the circumstances of their creation Revolutionary

Learning Sara Carpenter, Shahrzad Mojab, 2017-02-20 Revolutionary Learning explores the Marxist and feminist theorisation of dialectics praxis and consciousness in education and learning Moving beyond previous books on Marxism and education which tend to focus on the reproductive nature of educational institutions this groundbreaking text draws upon work by leading feminist anti racist and anti colonial scholars in its exploration of the key philosophical concepts that build the Marxist analysis of learning Alongside chapters dealing with adult education institutional ethnography and the promotion of civic engagement the authors also reassess the contributions of Marx Gramsci and Freire to educational theory Adopting an innovative and explicitly feminist perspective they relocate these theorists Marxist analyses of education into a more complex relation to patriarchal and imperialist capitalism With significant implications for critical education scholarship research and practice Revolutionary Learning's importance lies not only in its contribution to theory but its extension into pedagogical practice with special attention to how a revolutionary critique of ideology is taken up by educators in their daily work

Thinking Through Himani Bannerji, 1995-05-27 Thinking Through brings together new and recent writing by Himani Bannerji Through anti racist Marxist feminism Bannerji questions the notion of distinct separate oppressions which understands gender race and class as separate issues Incisive and important Thinking Through offers a new strategy to theorizing gender race class and socialist revolution Patriarchy of the Wage Silvia Federici, 2021-08-24 At a time when we are witnessing a worldwide expansion of capitalist relations a feminist rethinking of Marx's work is vitally important In Patriarchy of the Wage Silvia Federici bestselling author and the most important Marxist feminist of our era asks why Marx's crucial analysis of the exploitation of human labor was blind to women's work and struggle on the terrain of social reproduction Why was Marx unable to anticipate the profound transformations in the proletarian family that took place at the turn of the nineteenth century creating a new patriarchal regime Patriarchy of the Wage does more than just redefine classical Marxism It is an urgent call for a new kind of radical politics Feminism, Foucault, and Embodied

Subjectivity Margaret A. McLaren, 2012-02-01 Addressing central questions in the debate about Foucault's usefulness for politics including his rejection of universal norms his conception of power and power knowledge his seemingly contradictory position on subjectivity and his resistance to using identity as a political category McLaren argues that Foucault employs a conception of embodied subjectivity that is well suited for feminism She applies Foucault's notion of practices of the self to contemporary feminist practices such as consciousness raising and autobiography and concludes that the connection between self transformation and social transformation that Foucault theorizes as the connection between subjectivity and institutional and social norms is crucial for contemporary feminist theory and politics

Marxist-Feminist Theories and Struggles Today Khayaat Fakier, Diana Mulinari, Nora Räthzel, 2020-02-15 This vital new collection presents new Marxist Feminist analyses of Capitalism as a gendered racialized social formation that shapes and is shaped by specific nature labour relationships Leaving behind former overtly structuralist thinking Marxist Feminist Theories and Struggles Today interweaves strands of ecofeminism and intersectional analyses to develop an understanding of the relations of production and the production of nature through the interdependencies of gender class race and colonial relations With contributions and analyses from scholars and theorists in both the global North and South this volume offers a truly international lens that reveals the vitality of contemporary global Marxist Feminist thinking as well as its continued relevance to feminist struggles across the globe

The Black Marxist Feminism of bell hooks Hue Woodson, 2024-12-27 This book explores bell hooks trajectory of work and cohesiveness of thought about the meaning and meaningfulness of black womanhood in terms of a Black Marxist feminism which uniquely confronts the dimensions of feminism and womanism the relations between the secular and the religious the problems of gender and sexism and the structural and systemic issues of oppression domination white supremacy and capitalism In making sense of black womanhood in its philosophical social cultural institutional and historical complexities hooks Black Marxist feminism constructs an intersectional theory about what hooks describes as white supremacist capitalist patriarchy In this sense hooks Black Marxist feminism conceptualizes the ways and means by which white supremacist capitalist patriarchy imposes intersectional predicaments upon black womanhood drawing foundationally on Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels working within the purview of a host of Marxisms in Antonio Gramsci Louis Althusser Karl Kautsky Nikolai Bukharin and Georgi Plekhanov and speaking to the Marxist proclivities of Cedric Robinson Cornel West Charles W Mills James H Cone Stuart Hall and Angela Y Davis

The Politics of Diversity Roberta Hamilton, 1986 This collection of Canadian work addresses the question at the top of the feminist agenda can we properly apprehend the difference between women without losing a common political purpose In Britain and the United States new voices have exposed the illusory universality of feminist movements fragmented by recognition of difference Yet in Canada feminism was built from the outset of recognition of diversity resulting from class ethnicity and region from back cover

Feminism and the Marxist Movement Mary-Alice

Waters,1972 Since the founding of the modern workers movement 150 years ago Marxists have championed the struggle for women s rights and explained the economic roots in class society of women s oppression Photos Feminist Marxism Or Marxist Feminism Pat Armstrong,1985 Marxism and Feminism: A Critical Analysis of Power Structures and Intersectionality Pasquale De Marco,2025-07-26 Marxism and feminism are two powerful and influential ideologies that have shaped the course of history Both emerged in the 19th century as responses to the oppressive conditions faced by workers and women respectively While they share some common goals such as the pursuit of social justice and equality they have also been the subject of intense debate and criticism In this groundbreaking book we explore the complex relationship between Marxism and feminism examining their historical development theoretical foundations and practical applications We also critically evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of each ideology and consider how they can be combined to create a more comprehensive and effective approach to social change One of the key points of contention between Marxism and feminism is the relative importance of class and gender oppression Marxists argue that class is the primary source of oppression in society and that gender oppression is a secondary consequence of class exploitation Feminists on the other hand argue that gender oppression is a distinct and fundamental form of oppression that cannot be reduced to class struggle Another point of debate is the role of the state in achieving social change Marxists believe that the state is a tool of class oppression that must be overthrown in order to create a truly just and egalitarian society Feminists on the other hand are more divided on the role of the state Some feminists believe that the state can be reformed to promote gender equality while others argue that it is inherently patriarchal and must be abolished Despite their differences Marxism and feminism have also been influential allies in the fight for social justice Together they have helped to raise awareness of the oppression faced by workers and women and have played a key role in advancing progressive social change In this book we explore the complex and evolving relationship between Marxism and feminism and consider how these two ideologies can be combined to create a more comprehensive and effective approach to social change We also examine the challenges and opportunities facing the feminist movement in the 21st century and consider how Marxism can contribute to the struggle for gender equality This book is essential reading for anyone interested in the history of social thought the relationship between class and gender oppression and the future of social change If you like this book write a review Feminism and the Contradictions of Oppression Caroline Ramazanoglu,2012-10-12 Feminism and the Contradictions of Oppression is a penetrating and comprehensive study of the development of feminism over the last thirty years The first part of this major new textbook examines feminist theory and feminist political strategy The second section examines how contradictions of class race subculture and sexuality divide women The final part explores ways out of the impasse This level headed and challenging book is one of the most notable contributions to feminism in recent years Lyric Pedagogy and Marxist-Feminism Samuel Solomon,2019-02-07 What is the political potential of poetry in the contemporary era Exploring an often overlooked history of Marxist Feminist poetics in post war Britain including such poets as Denise Riley Veronica Forrest Thomson Wendy Mulford and Nat Raha this book confronts this central question to debates about the value of humanities education today Lyric Pedagogy and Marxist Feminism demonstrates how ideas of social reproduction have been central both to the forms of post 1945 British poetry and the educational institutions where poetry is overwhelmingly encountered and produced Combining new archival research with close readings of key poets of the period the book charts the interrelated crises both of poetry itself and literary education more widely Paradoxically the very marginalisation of poetry in contemporary culture serves to offer the form new opportunities as an agent of social transformation
