Marx And The Failure Of Liberation Theology:

Marx and the Failure of Liberation Theology Alistair Kee,1990 In this provocative book Alistair Kee argues that while liberation theology has been regarded as exotic innovative and dangerous because of its commitment to Marx the reverse is the truth Its failure stems from its lack of commitment to Marx and a reluctance to apply his philosophy to the contemporary situation Back cover Encounter Between Marxian Philosophy and Theology of Humanisation in India Mervin Shinoj Boas,2007 The Encyclodedia of Christianity, Vol. 5 Erwin Fahlbusch,Geoffrey William Bromiley,1999 Written by leading scholars from around the world the articles in this volume range from sin Sufism and terrorism to theology in the 19th and 20th centuries Vatican I and II and the virgin birth The Rise and Demise of Black Theology Alistair Kee,2017-11-28 Black Theology emerged in the 1960s as a response to black consciousness In South Africa it is a critique of power in the UK it is a political theology of black culture The dominant form of Black Theology has been in the USA originally influenced by Black Power and the critique of white racism Since then it claims to have broadened its perspective to include oppression on the grounds of race gender and class In this book the author contests this claim especially by Womanist black women Theology Black and Womanist Theologies present inadequate analyses of race and gender and no account at all of class economic oppression With a few notable exceptions Black Theology in the USA repeats the mantras of the 1970s the discourse of modernity Content with American capitalism it fails to address the source of the impoverishment of black Americans at home Content with a romantic imaginaire of Africa this African American movement fails to defend contemporary Africa against predatory American global ambitions Pastoral Care and Liberation Theology Stephen Pattison,1994-03-10 This is the first book to show how Latin American liberation theology can be applied to and can transform pastoral care in countries such as Britain and the USA Hitherto pastoral care has tended to concentrate on looking after individuals Stephen Pattison suggests that much of the suffering endured by individuals is actually socially and politically caused and so is avoidable if the appropriate action is taken The author argues that what we now require is a socio politically aware and committed pastoral care which makes an option for oppressed and poor people and engages in practical struggle against the forces of injustice and oppression Focussing as it does especially on mentally ill people and on women the book will be of interest to all those who want to broaden their vision and knowledge of liberation theology or pastoral care whether theologians pastors students for ministry members of caring professions or users of the services they provide Forrester on Christian Ethics and Practical Theology Duncan B. Forrester,2017-05-15 Bringing together articles and chapters from his considerable work in theological ethics India and the social order Duncan Forrester incorporates new writing and introductions to each thematic section to guide readers through this invaluable resource This book offers stimulating studies in three related areas Indian Christianity with particular attention to the caste system contemporary Christian theological ethics and the distinctive and challenging theological approach that Duncan Forrester has developed in relation to public issues such as prisons and punishment welfare provision social justice and poverty Liberation Theology and Its Critics Arthur F. McGovern, 2009-08-01 From its beginnings liberation theology has provoked a wide and diverse range of responses from a multitude of critics theological methodological political ecclesiastical Liberation Theology and Its Critics is a comprehensive and systematic explication of these diverse criticisms as well as a reasoned and rigorous defense of liberation theology McGovern states his aim thus to understand better the world of Latin America and the culture and conditions which prompt a liberation theology while at the same time giving expression to some of the misgivings that many US Americans experience when reading about liberation theology Liberation Theology and Its Critics begins by discussing the place of theology itself in liberation theology The book offers an historical overview shows us what liberation theologians see as most distinctive in their work addresses the biblical interpretations and major areas of theology stressed by liberation theologians and discusses other theologians critiques Next McGovern explicates the use of social and political analysis in liberation theology which has been one of the areas of particular controversy He focuses on such issues as dependency theory Marxism class struggle socialism and the Nicaraguan revolution addressing throughout the concerns raised by a range of critics from the Vatican to Michael Novak Finally McGovern explores the role of the church and how liberation theology is lived out in practice He examines base communities ecclesiology current political trends in Latin America the varying status of liberation theology as well as its most recent developments McGovern demonstrates that liberation theology encompasses a wide spectrum of theologians with different styles and emphases It requires careful study non polemical debate and an honest effort to present the views of both liberation theologians and their critics fairly McGovern's book will be the benchmark against which subsequent work is measured Marxism, Religion, and Emancipatory Politics Graeme Kirkpatrick, Peter McMyler, Simin Fadaee, 2022-08-24 This edited collection evaluates the relationship between Marxism and religion in two ways Marxism's treatment of religion and the religious aspects of Marxism Its aim is to complicate the superficial understanding of Marxism as a simple rejection of religion both in theory and practice Divided into two parts Theory and Praxis this book brings together the three different themes of Marxism religion and emancipation for the first time The first part explores the more theoretical discussions regarding the relationship between Marxism and various themes or currents within religious thought to highlight points of compatibility as well as incompatibilities conflicts The studies in the second part of the collection refer to how Marxist ideas are received in different parts of the world They show that as soon as Marxism arrives in a new place the theory interacts and bonds with a pre existing stock of ideas each changing the other reciprocally Feminist Ethics and Natural Law Cristina L. H. Traina, 1999-04-28 Heated debates over such issues as abortion contraception ordination and Church hierarchy suggest that feminist and natural law ethics are diametrically opposed Cristina L H Traina now reexamines both Roman Catholic natural law tradition and Anglo American feminist ethics and reconciles the two positions by showing how some of their aims and assumptions complement one another After carefully scrutinizing Aquinas's moral theology she analyzes trends in both contemporary feminist ethics theological as well as secular and twentieth century Roman Catholic moral theology Although feminist ethics reject many of the methods and conclusions of the scholastic and revisionist natural law schools Traina shows that a truly Thomistic natural law ethic nonetheless provides a much needed holistic foundation for contemporary feminist ethics On the other hand she offers new perspectives on the writings of Josef Fuchs Richard McCormick and Gustavo Gutierrez arguing that their failure to catch the full spirit of Thomas's moral vision is due to inadequate attention to feminist critical methods This highly original book proposes an innovative union of two supposedly antagonistic schools of thought a new feminist natural law that would yield more comprehensive moral analysis than either existing tradition alone This is a provocative book not only for students of moral theology but also for feminists who may object to the very notion of natural law ethics suggesting how each might find insight in an unlikely place

A Tale of Two Theologians Ambrose Mong, 2017-03-31 In A Tale of Two Theologians Ambrose Mong's observant new work he examines the writings of the Peruvian theologian Gustavo Gutierrez and the Indian theologian Michael Amaladoss and gives fresh attention to their main concerns regarding evangelisation and the poor Why he asks is Gutierrez's liberation theology now accepted and celebrated by the Roman Catholic Church while Amaladoss's Asian theology with a liberation thrust is threatened with censorship Mong argues that the dwindling threat of Communism has made the Marxist overtones of Latin American liberation theology more palatable to the Catholic hierarchy while the challenge of religious pluralism in Asia is as complex and emotive as ever How can the Church learn to balance the need for dialogue between religions with their duty to proclaim the Gospel How can the Church inculturate itself in Asia while maintaining its identity Ambrose Mong tackles these questions with the shrewd clear-eyed view of an active priest and scholar exploring the long troubled relationship the Church has with liberation theology and offering guidance for the future

Criticism of Theology Roland Boer, 2010-12-17 Through a lively and thorough critical commentary Criticism of Theology engages with some of the most significant Marxists who are fascinated by religion Max Horkheimer E P Thompson G E M de Ste Croix Michael Lwy Roland Barthes Gilles Deleuze Felix Guattari and Antonio Negri

What Price the Poor? Ann M. Woodall, 2017-05-15 In this fascinating book Ann Woodall investigates and compares the work and thought of William Booth and Karl Marx who both arrived in London in 1849 She draws comparisons between their responses to the intractability of the poverty of the submerged tenth of London's population and argues that Booth's pioneering work in establishing the Salvation Army and the development of Marx's economic theory began in their interactions with the London residuum Each recognised that much of the suffering was caused by the workings of laissez faire capitalism and that its total solution required a challenge to the existing economic system What Price the Poor raises important questions about the relationship between theological discourse and the sociological imagination and it firmly places the development of theoretical and practical social analysis and application within the context of social history It will appeal to all with interests in classical sociology and the history of social activism The Interfaith Imperative Ross Thompson, 2017-01-30 Globally we seem torn between local exclusive forms of religion which can cause immense spiritual and physical damage to people and a bland secularism that confines the religions to safe havens each offering its own private options for spirituality within a secularized global politic In this context the religions tolerate one another but cannot engage in mutually challenging and transforming dialogue Thompson argues that it is only through dialogue that the distinctive truths of the faiths emerge Moving beyond the threefold paradigm that has limited dialogue and challenging modern secularism and postmodern relativism alike he argues for a dialogue based realism that is rooted in the Christian doctrines of creation and Trinity Turning to recent theological approaches Thompson both affirms and criticizes narrative and postliberal theologies liberation theology and the revival of negative theology The transfiguration of Jesus provides a model for the way theology proceeds in dialogue from an initial naivety through metaphysical construction and deconstruction to a new metaphorical interillumination Thompson sets forth a utopian hope for the interreligious city of God shining with the divine interilluminative rainbow light reflected from the many faiths including the secular faith The Origins and Early Development of Liberation Theology in Latin America

Eddy José Muskus, 2002 In this volume Eddy Jose Muskus provides an academic analysis of the roots of liberation theology challenging the claim that it arose from the Latin American poor and maintaining instead that its fundamental tenets had their origin in Europe Muskus argues further that the writings of the 16th century Bartolome de Las Casas have been misinterpreted and misused by liberation theologians such as Gutierrez Liberation theology says the author has exposed the failure of Catholicism to provide a moral framework within the fabric of Latin American society Also contrary to the claims of liberation theology Muskus argues that there is no biblical foundation for a preferential option for the poor Marxism, Christianity, and Islam Julian Roche, 2024-02-20 Roger Garaudy was for many years at the centre of the French Communist Party but was eventually expelled for his liberal views In the Seventies he strove to bring Marxism and Christianity together to include all humanity in a project to set all people free What emerges from Garaudy s project is a very modern Marxism with its emphasis on the individual its ecological politics and in its insistence on religion as central to human emancipation Although Garaudy himself became frustrated by the failure of Marxism and converted to Islam eventually resulting in his work being discredited in the West it is certainly possible that Garaudy s project represents a good perhaps even the best starting point for Marxism in today s world OCR Religious Studies A Level Year 2 Michael Wilkinson, Michael

Studies, Ocr* Rhinegold Publishing Limited, John Macmurray's Religious Philosophy Esther McIntosh, 2016-05-06

Recent dissatisfaction with individualism and the problems of religious pluralism make this an opportune time to reassess the way in which we define ourselves and conduct our relationships with others The philosophical writings of John Macmurray are a useful resource for performing this examination and recent interest in Macmurray's work has been growing steadily A full scale critical examination of Macmurray's religious philosophy has not been published and this work fills this gap sharing his insistence that we define ourselves through action and through person to person relationships while critiquing his account of the ensuing political and religious issues The key themes in this work are the concept of the person and the ethics of personal relations Robinson Crusoe tries again Werner Ustorf, 2010-09-15 The Christian experience in modern Europe is fragmented It shows great diversity in various geographical contexts and historically a considerable alternation of extremes high or low tides of engagement One aspect of the Christianity in Europe's past is its mission history The spread of Christianity from the West as one of its most important results into the continents of the Global South has been deeply ambivalent in character On the one hand the mission from the West helped to build the historical foundations for Christian education adolescence and maturation to responsible adulthood in a global diverse segregated and pluralistic world As a mature global player Christianity was in a prime position to contribute to peaceful conflict resolution in the religious social and political fields On the other hand the darkness and utter insufficiency of the encounter between the European Christian self and the many others worldwide brought along problematic projections of different beliefs attacked in a hostile way as alien and inevitably as conquered The consequences particularly for the primal other the indigenous people were often disastrous Werner Ustorf has been a leading missiologist worldwide for thirty years This book not only analyses the interaction between mission and individual the construction of the self and the other in a mission context but also proves the analytical strength of theology in conceptualizing future Christian experiences in Europe Ustorf illustrates that apart from traditional dimension of faith a non religious interpretation and critical trust in transcendence is crucial for the formation of the new interculturalization of Christianity in Europe Thus this book demonstrates how mission history can be transformed to a research concept for a global and pluralistic Christianity
