Marxism And Totality The Adventures Of A Concept From Lukacs To Habermas:

Marxism and Totality Martin Jay, 1984 Totality has been an abiding concern from the first generation of Western Marxists most notably Lukacs, Korsch, Gramsci and Bloch through the second exemplified by the Frankfurt School, Lefebvre, Goldmann, Sartre, Merleau-Ponty and Della Volpe up to the most recent typified by Althusser, Colletti and Habermas. Yet no consensus has been reached concerning the term's multiple meanings: expressive, decentered, longitudinal, latitudinal, normative or its implications for other theoretical and practical matters. By closely following the adventures of this troublesome but central concept, Marxism and Totality offers an unconventional account of the history of Western Marxism.

Marxism and Totality Martin Jay, 1984-01-01 Marxism and Totality Martin Jay, 1984-01-01 The Routledge Companion to Marxisms in Art History Tijen Tunalı, Brian Winkenweder, 2025-03-31 This companion is an essential contribution to the study of historical materialism in general and the social history of art in particular. Each chapter in the collection focuses on a key figure, concept or historical epoch. Increasingly, scholars adopt an array of Marxist methods intertwined with a host of other theoretical practices, particularly the historiography of key issues regarding hegemony, ideology and identity. Ideological issues of connoisseurship, patronage and analyses of the artwork as a form of labor and leisure are essential to the practice of Marxisms in art history. This collection spotlights a plurality of Marxian theories in which the ideas of such figures as Walter Benjamin, Guy Debord and T. J. Clark are debated and developed through analyses of the socio-historical conditions that impact how art is produced, circulated and received. This ultimately underscores that the historical contextualization of artworks and their markets within a class-based society is crucial for writing socially engaged art history. This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history, visual studies, visual sociology, communication studies and the sociology of art.

Toward a Concrete Philosophy Mikko Immanen, 2020-11-15 Toward a Concrete Philosophy explores the reactions of Theodor Adorno, Max Horkheimer and Herbert Marcuse to Martin Heidegger prior to their dismissal of him once he turned to the Nazi party in 1933. Mikko Immanen provides a fascinating glimpse of the three future giants of twentieth-century social criticism when they were still looking for their philosophical voices. By reconstructing their overlooked debates with Heidegger and Heideggerians, Immanen argues that Adorno, Horkheimer and Marcuse saw Heidegger's 1927 magnum opus Being and Time as a serious effort to make philosophy relevant for life again and as the most provocative challenge to their nascent materialist diagnoses of the discontents of European modernity. Our knowledge of Adorno's Frankfurt discussion with Frankfurt Heideggerians remains anecdotal even though it led to a proto-version of Dialectic of Enlightenment's idea of the entwinement of myth and reason. Similarly, Horkheimer's enthusiasm over Heidegger's legendary post-World War I lectures and criticism of Being and Time have escaped attention almost entirely. And Marcuse's intriguing debate with Heidegger over Hegel and the origin of the problematic of being and time has remained uncharted until now. Reading these debates as fruitful intellectual encounters rather than hostile confrontations, Toward a

Concrete Philosophy offers scholars of critical theory a new thought provoking perspective on the emergence of the Frankfurt School as a rejoinder to Heidegger's philosophical revolution

The Palgrave Handbook of Critical Theory Michael J. Thompson, 2017-01-20 This handbook is the only major survey of critical theory from philosophical political sociological psychological and historical vantage points It emphasizes not only on the historical and philosophical roots of critical theory but also its current themes and trends as well as future applications and directions It addresses specific areas of interest that have forged the critical theory tradition such as critical social psychology aesthetics and the critique of culture communicative action and the critique of instrumental reason It is intended for those interested in exploring the influential paradigm of critical theory from multiple interdisciplinary perspectives and understanding its contribution to the humanities and the social sciences

Shakespeare's Universal Wolf Hugh Grady, 1996 Shakespeare was neither a Royalist defender of order and hierarchy nor a consistently radical champion of social equality but rather simultaneously radical and conservative as a critic of emerging forms of modernity Hugh Grady argues that Shakespeare's social criticism in fact often parallels that of critics of modernity from our own Postmodernist era that the broad analysis of modernity produced by Marx Horkheimer and Adorno Foucault and others can serve as a productive enabling representation and critique of the emerging modernity represented by the image in Troilus and Cressida of an universal wolf of appetite power and will The readings of Troilus and Cressida Othello King Lear and As You Like It in Shakespeare's Universal Wolf demonstrate Shakespeare's keen interest in what twentieth century theory has called reification a term which designates social systems created by human societies but which confronts those societies as operating beyond human control according to an autonomous systems logic in nascent mercantile capitalism in power oriented Machiavellian politics and in the scientific value free rationality which Horkheimer and Adorno call instrumental reason

Gordon and Warren Breckman establish a formidable new multi faceted vision of European intellectual history for the global modern age

The Cambridge History of Modern European Thought: Volume 2, The Twentieth Century Warren Breckman, Peter E. Gordon, 2019-08-29 An authoritative

and comprehensive survey of the major themes thinkers and movements in modern European intellectual history The Constitution of Society Anthony Giddens, 1984 Anthony Giddens has been in the forefront of developments in social theory for the past decade In The Constitution of Society he outlines the distinctive position he has evolved during that period and offers a full statement of a major new perspective in social thought a synthesis and elaboration of ideas touched on in previous works but described here for the first time in an integrated and comprehensive form A particular feature is Giddens's concern to connect abstract problems of theory to an interpretation of the nature of empirical method in the social sciences In presenting his own ideas Giddens mounts a critical attack on some of the more orthodox sociological views The Constitution of Society is an invaluable reference book for all those concerned with the basic issues in contemporary social theory Concepts of Cabralism Reiland Rabaka, 2014-07-16 By examining Amílcar Cabral's theories and praxes as well as several of the antecedents and major influences on the evolution of his radical politics and critical social theory Concepts of Cabralism Amílcar Cabral and Africana Critical Theory simultaneously reintroduces chronicles and analyzes several of the core characteristics of the Africana tradition of critical theory Reiland Rabaka's primary preoccupation is with Cabral's theoretical and political legacies that is to say with the ways in which he constructed deconstructed and reconstructed theory and the aims objectives and concrete outcomes of his theoretical applications and discursive practices The book begins with the Negritude Movement and specifically the work of Léopold Senghor Aimé Césaire and Jean Paul Sartre Next it shifts the focus to Frantz Fanon's discourse on radical disalienation and revolutionary decolonization Finally it offers an extended engagement of Cabral's critical theory and contributions to the Africana tradition of critical theory Ultimately Concepts of Cabralism chronicles and critiques revisits and revises the black radical tradition with an eye toward the ways in which classical black radicalism informs or should inform not only contemporary black radicalism African nationalism and Pan Africanism but also contemporary efforts to create a new anti racist anti sexist anti capitalist anti colonialist and anti imperialist critical theory of contemporary society what has come to be called Africana critical theory Happiness or Its Absence in Art William Barcham, Ronit Milano, 2014-10-02 The concept of happiness is central to most civilized cultures This volume investigates the many ways in which Western art has visualized the concept from the early Middle Ages to the present Employing different methodological approaches the essays gathered here situate the concept of human happiness within discourses on gender religion intellectual life politics and New Age culture Operating as a cultural agent art communicates the idea of happiness as both a physical and spiritual condition by exploiting specific formulae of representation This volume combines art history cultural analyses and intellectual studies in order to explore the complexities of iconographic programs that represent various forms of happiness or its explicit absence and to expose the implications embedded in the artistic works in question Through innovative readings the ten authors presented in this book survey different artistic and or cultural paradigms and offer new interpretations of happiness or of its absence Social Democracy in the Making Gary Dorrien, 2019-04-23 An expansive and ambitious intellectual history of democratic socialism from one of the world's leading intellectual historians and social ethicists The fallout from twenty years of neoliberal economic globalism has sparked a surge of interest in the old idea of democratic socialism a democracy in which the people control the economy and government no group dominates any other and every citizen is free equal and included With a focus on the intertwined legacies of Christian socialism and Social Democratic politics in Britain and Germany this book traces the story of democratic socialism from its birth in the nineteenth century through the mid 1960s Examining the tenets on which the movement was founded and how it adapted to different cultural religious and economic contexts from its beginnings through the social and political traumas of the twentieth century Gary Dorrien reminds us that Christian socialism paved the way for all liberation theologies that make the struggles of oppressed peoples the subject of redemption He argues for a decentralized economic democracy and anti imperial internationalism

Marxism and the City Ira Katznelson, 1992 In this work Katznelson critically analyzes the development of Marxist scholarship on cities in the last quarter century He demonstrates how some of the most important weaknesses in Marxism as a social theory can be remedied by forcing it to seriously engage with cities and spatial concerns and explains the significant shortcomings even of this improved Marxism Katznelson explores how a Marxism that is open to engagement with other social theoretical traditions can help illuminate our understanding of cities and the patterns of class and group formation that have characterized urban life in the West

Walter Benjamin and the Critique of Political Economy Duy Lap Nguyen, 2022-07-14 Exploring the connections between Walter Benjamin's philosophy of history and a Marxian Critique of Political Economy Duy Lap Nguyen analyses Benjamin's early writings and their development into a distinct understanding of historical materialism Benjamin's historically materialist conception of history is shown to be characterised by a focus on the religion of capitalism the mythology of the state and messianic time Revealing these factors Nguyen joins up Benjamin's philosophical critique of the Kantian conception of history alongside the historical trajectory of capitalism he subscribed to Influenced by the theory of fascism outlined by German Marxist theorist Karl Korsch we see how Benjamin's own theory of revolution and redemption in capitalist society developed into a sophisticated critique Essential to Benjamin's materialist critique was a recognition of the fallibility of the Enlightenment notion of progress as well as the need to overturn the political and economic catastrophes which enable capitalism and fascism to thrive In mapping the exact course of Benjamin's critical historical materialism Nguyen fully explicates the unique contribution he made to western Marxism

Georg Lukacs Reconsidered Michael J. Thompson, 2011-02-03 Georg Lukacs stands as a towering figure in the areas of critical theory literary criticism aesthetics ethical theory and the philosophy of Marxism and German Idealism Yet despite his influence throughout the twentieth century his contributions to the humanities and theoretical social sciences are marked by neglect What has been lost is a crucial thinker in the tradition of critical theory but also by extension a crucial set of ideas that can be used to shed new light on the major problems of contemporary society This book reconsiders Lukács' intellectual contributions in the light of recent intellectual developments in political theory aesthetics ethical theory and social and cultural theory An international team of contributors contend that Lukács' ideas and theoretical contributions have much to offer the theoretical paucity of the present Ultimately the book reintegrates Lukács as a central thinker not only in the tradition of critical theory but also as a major theorist and critic of modernity of capitalism and of new trends in political theory cultural criticism and legal theory A

Divided Republic Emile Chabal, 2015-04-02 This book is an original and sophisticated historical interpretation of contemporary French political culture Until now there have been few attempts to understand the political consequences of the profound geopolitical intellectual and economic changes that France has undergone since the 1970s However Emile Chabal's detailed study shows how passionate debates over citizenship immigration colonial memory the reform of the state and the historiography of modern France have galvanised the French elite and created new spaces for discussion and disagreement Many of these debates have coalesced around two political languages republicanism and liberalism both of which structure the historical imagination and the symbolic vocabulary of French political actors The tension between these two political languages has become the central battleground of contemporary French politics It is around these two poles that politicians intellectuals and members of France's vast civil society have tried to negotiate the formidable challenges of ideological uncertainty and a renewed sense of global insecurity The Neo-primitivist Turn Victor Li, 2006-01-01 In recent years the concept of the primitive has been the subject of strong criticism it has been examined unpacked and shown to signify little more than a construction or projection necessary for establishing the modernity of the West The term primitive continues however to appear in contemporary critical and cultural discourse begging the question Why does primitivism keep reappearing even after it has been uncovered as a modern myth In The Neo-primitivist Turn Victor Li argues that this contentious term was never completely banished and that it has in fact reappeared under new theoretical guises An idealized conception of the primitive he contends has come to function as the ultimate sign of alterity Li focuses on the works of theorists like Jean Baudrillard Jean-François Lyotard Marianna Torgovnick Marshall Sahlins and Jürgen Habermas in order to demonstrate that primitivism continues to be a powerful presence even in those works normally regarded as critical of the concept Providing close readings of the ways in which the premodern or primitive is strategically deployed in contemporary critical writings Li's interdisciplinary study is a timely and forceful intervention into current debates on the politics and ethics of otherness the problems of cultural relativism and the vicissitudes of modernity Marxist Humanism and Communication Theory Christian Fuchs, 2021-03-16 This book outlines and contributes to the foundations of Marxist humanist communication theory It analyses the role of communication in capitalist society Engaging with the works of critical thinkers such as Erich Fromm E. P. Thompson Raymond Williams Henri Lefebvre Georg Lukács Lucien Goldmann Günther Anders M. N. Roy Angela Davis C. L. R. James Rosa Luxemburg Eve Mitchell and Cedric J. Robinson the book provides readings of works that inform our understanding of how to critically theorise communication in society The topics covered include the relationship of capitalism racism and patriarchy communication and alienation the base superstructure problem the question of how one should best define communication the political economy of communication ideology critique the connection of communication and struggles for alternatives Written for a broad audience of students and scholars interested in contemporary critical theory this book will be useful for courses in media and communication studies cultural studies Internet research sociology philosophy political science and economics This is the first of five Communication and Society volumes each one outlining a particular aspect of the foundations of a critical theory of communication in society

Islamism and Post-Islamism in Iran Yadullah Shahibzadeh, 2016-06-01 This book is a study of overlooked themes in Iran's contemporary political and intellectual history It investigates the way Iranian Muslim intellectuals have discussed politics and democracy As a history of Iranian Islamism and its transformation to post Islamism this work demonstrates that Muslim intellectuals have enriched the Iranian society epistemologically aesthetically ethically and politically This book examines the internal conflicts of the Islamist ideology as the intellectual underpinnings of the 1979 Revolution its contribution to the formation of the post revolutionary state and the post Islamist response to the democratic deficits of the post revolutionary state Seeking to overcome the shortcomings of historiographical approaches this book demonstrates the intellectual and political agency of Muslim intellectuals from the 1960s to the present
