Lopz,R. N,2014-05-25 Briefly we can say that a myth gives a religious explanation for something how the world or a particular custom began There is usually no attempt to fix the myth into a coherent chronology related to the present day though myths or a cycle of myths may have their own internal chronology The story is timeless in that the events are symbolic rather than just the way it happened A legend on the other hand is a story which is told as if it were a historical event rather than as an explanation for something or a symbolic narrative The legend may or may not be an elaborated version of a historical event Thus examples of legends are the stories about Robin Hood which are set in a definite period the reign of Richard I of England 1189 99 or about King Arthur which were perhaps originally based on the exploits of a Romano Celtic prince who attempted to resist the expansion of the Anglo Saxons in what was to become England The stories about Robin Hood and King Arthur have been elaborated and expanded on down the years People the world over have stories to tell and this book is gathering some of them together Mythology Alice Mills,2003 Golden Tales ,2001 Twelve classic tales from Latin America before and after the days of Columbus
