Narratives And The Making Of History

Tilo Schabert, John von Heyking

Narratives And The Making Of History:

Narratives and the Making of History Romila Thapar, 2000 These two essays explore some facets of the interface between narrative and history The first explores the versions of the story of Sakuntala The second juxtaposes the data on the raid of Mahmud of Ghazni on the temple of Somanatha

Narrative and History Alun Munslow, 2018-09-19 Based on the assumption that reality reference and representation work together this introductory textbook explains and illustrates the various ways in which historians write the past as history For the first time the full range of leading narrative theorists such as Paul Ricoeur Hayden White Frank Ankersmit Seymour Chatman and Gérard Genette have been brought together to explain the narrative making choices all author historians make when creating historical explanations Combining theory with practice Alun Munslow expands the boundaries of the discipline and charts a new role for unconventional historical forms and modes of expression Clear but comprehensive this is an ideal resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students taking courses on history and theory history and method and historiography

Creating Histories Wendy Singer, 1997 This book discusses stories and storytelling listening and retelling and the complex ways in which this results in the creation of historical narratives The author listened to a wide variety of stories about the Indian Freedom Movement told by people who were involved in it and set them against written historical accounts to arrive at interesting conclusions about the changes and differences between oral and recorded histories

The Postmodern History Reader Keith Jenkins, 1997 The Postmodern History Reader introduces students to the new points of controversy in the study of history and provides a framework by which to understand postmodernism and a guide to explore it further

Reform, Identity and Narratives of Belonging Arkotong Longkumer, 2011-11-03 Reform Identity and Narratives of Belonging focuses on the Heraka a religious reform movement and its impact on the Zeme a Naga tribe in the North Cachar Hills of Assam India Drawing upon critical studies of religion cultural ethnic identity and nationalism archival research in both India and Britain and fieldwork in Assam the book initiates new grounds for understanding the evolving notions of reform and identity in the emergence of a Heraka religion Arkotong Longkumer argues that reform and identity are dynamically inter related and linked to the revitalisation and negotiation of both tradition legitimising indigeneity and change legitimising reform The results have deepened yet challenged not only prevailing views of the Western construction of the category religion but also understandings of how marginalised communities use collective historical imagination to inspire self identification through the discourse of religion In conclusion this book argues for a re evaluation of the way in which multi religious traditions interact to reshape identities and belongings

Exploring Learning, Identity and Power Through Life History and Narrative Research Ann-Marie Bathmaker, Penelope Harnett, 2010-02-25 The book brings together a collection of writing by different authors who use a narrative life history approach to explore the experiences of a wide range of people reflecting on learning and education at significant moments in their lives

Making History Jonathon S. Cullick, 2000-04-01 From his first published book to his last works Robert Penn Warren wrote novels poetry biographies and essays based on the lives of American historical figures Even some of his critical texts take a biographical approach to their subjects In Making History the first comprehensive survey of Warren s biographical narratives Jonathan S Cullick tracks a clear development toward autobiography in Warren s career By applying narrative theory to that provocative trend he then makes an intriguing discovery Warren s discourse techniques dramatize his philosophy of history and ethics Cullick unearths what might be called the narrative syntax of Warren s historical vision in which genre becomes vital in the attempt to reconcile American past and present Making History considers all of Warren s major biographical narratives and their evolution from detached reporting to doubtful self examination It offers a new reading of Warren s famed novel All the King s Men and close examination of several neglected texts including Warren s first book John Brown The Making of a Martyr his essay The World of Daniel Boone and two of his final works Jefferson Davis Gets His Citizenship Back and Portrait of a Father

Making History Tim Betz, 2023-04-15 While first person interpretation and historic crafts have long been part of the museum world current movements in the maker movement in libraries and schools have occurred mostly outside of the museum world Instead Makerspace in Museums Hands On History in Museums and Historic Sites shows the importance of the Maker Movement for museums and historic sites and presents a roadmap to building planning researching and using a makerspace alongside more traditional museum programming It calls for a revitalization of living history which can be done through makerspaces and the maker movement Highlights include Why museums and makerspaces are a natural fit together Ways to organize and create a makerspace in a museum of any budget Creating a makerspace and culture of making that is inclusive and for the entirety of the community Strategies for researching historic making techniques and adapting them to the modern world Creating meaningful makerspace centered programming The processes and methods explored in this book will help produce a sustainable makerspace that will help the museum or historic site that adopts it reach new audiences creating growth and new museums stakeholders Likewise through calling for a recalibration of living history through the language of the makerspace this project calls for new approaches to living history Thus it is a call for a disruption to the status quo and a push towards sustainable and meaningful living history

Bringing History to Life through Film Kathryn Anne Morey, 2013-12-12 Whether re creating an actual event or simply being set in a bygone era films have long taken liberties with the truth While some members of the audience can appreciate a movie without being distracted by historical inaccuracies other viewers are more discerning From revered classics like Gone with the Wind to recent award winners like Argo Hollywood films often are taken to task for their loose adherence to the facts But what obligation do filmmakers have to the truth when trying to create a two hour piece of entertainment In Bringing History to Life through Film The Art of Cinematic Storytelling Kathryn Anne Morey brings together essays that explore the controversial issue of film as a purveyor of history Examining a range of films including highly regarded features like The Last of the Mohicans and Pan s Labyrinth as well as blockbuster franchises like Pirates of the Caribbean chapters demonstrate that the debate surrounding the role of history on film is still as raw as ever Organized in five sections these essays discuss the myths and realities of history as they are portrayed on film from Nostalgic Utopias to Myths and Fairy Tales The fourteen chapters shed light on how films both convey and distort historical realities to capture the essence of the past rather than the past itself Ultimately they consider what role cinema plays as the quintessential historical storyteller In addition to cinema and media studies this book will appeal to scholars of history and fans of a wide range of cinematic genres Making History New Seamus O'Malley,2015 Making History New explores how several British modernists Joseph Conrad Ford Madox Ford and Rebecca West applied the experimental methods of literary modernism to the writing of narrative history and historical novels The Student's Old Testament: Narratives of the beginnings of Hebrew history Charles Foster Kent,1904 The Routledge Companion to Management and Organizational History Patricia Genoe McLaren,Albert J. Mills,Terrance G. Weatherbee,2015-05-15 The field of management and organizational history has reached a level of maturity that means an overview is long overdue Written by a team of globally renowned scholars this comprehensive companion analyses management and organizational history reflecting on the most influential periods and highlighting gaps for future research From the impact of the Cold War to Global Warming it examines the field from a wide array of perspectives from humanities to the social sciences Covering the entire spectrum of the field this volume provides an essential resource for researchers of business and management

Does History Emerge? Tilo Schabert, John von Heyking, 2020-10-26 Powers of chaos accompany any order of the human world being the force against which this order is set Human experience of history is two fold There is history ruled by chaos and history ruled by order History occurs in a continuous flow of both histories The dialectics of life unto nothingness creation struggles for order order achieved is unceasingly actual In exploring it within a wide interdisciplinary and transcultural range this book reaches beyond a conventional philosophy of history It deals with the chaotic as well as the cosmic part of the human historical experience It stages this drama through the tales that religious mythical literary philosophical folkloristic and historiographical sources tell and which are retold and interpreted here From early on humans wished to know where why and wherefore all started and took place Couldn t the dialectics between chaos and order be meaningful Couldn t they assume a productive role as to the world s precarious event Power strife guilt divine grace and revelation literary symbolization as well as storytelling are discussed in this book Philosophy political theory theology religious studies and literary studies will greatly benefit from its width and density

Digital Games as History Adam Chapman, 2016-05-05 This book provides the first in depth exploration of video games as history Chapman puts forth five basic categories of analysis for understanding historical video games simulation and epistemology time space narrative and affordance Through these methods of analysis he explores what these games uniquely offer as a new form of history and how they produce representations of the past By taking an inter disciplinary and accessible approach the book provides a specific and firm first foundation upon which to build further examination of the potential of video games as a historical form

Historiography and the Craft of History Dr. Ishfaq Ahmad Mir, Mr. Aadil Nazir Bhat, Dr. Rashid Manzoor Bhat, Dr. Shumpenthung Ezung, Historiography and the Craft of History explores how history is written interpreted and reshaped across time Covering traditions from antiquity to postmodernism it examines methodological debates interdisciplinary links and the political uses of history The book encourages critical engagement with historical narratives challenging biases and ideological distortions

Narrative and Critical History of America Justin Winsor, 1886 Making History with Manuscripts in Medieval and Early Modern Europe Johannes Junge Ruhland, 2025-06-02 This volume interrogates the role of the manuscript medium in conveying history to medieval and early modern readers The contributors adopt a capacious understanding of history to explore history writing in its materiality from a variety of methodological and disciplinary perspectives The core contentions of this book are that the material features of manuscripts helped shaping historical narratives and defining history conceptually and that therefore the makers of these manuscripts played an instrumental role in history writing alongside authors Ranging from the ninth to the sixteenth centuries and comprising materials from across Western Europe in Latin and the vernaculars the ten chapters of this volume uncover stakes and strategies tied to highly specific contexts such as late thirteenth century Corbie or fifteenth century Zurich yet partaking in a shared practice of history writing with manuscripts Manuscript makers made history through layout rewriting illumination compilation choice of script and annotation and conferred history writing its material dimension This volume therefore situates the writing of history in its material dimension and invites us to consider medieval and early modern historiography in its medium

A History of History Alun Munslow, 2012 In a provocative analysis of European and American historical thinking and practice since the early 18th century A History of History confronts several basic assumptions about the nature of history Among these are the concept of historical realism the belief in representationalism and the idea that the past possesses its own narrative What is offered in this book is a far reaching and fundamental rethinking of realist and representationalist history of a particular kind by addressing and explaining the ideas of major philosophers of history over the past three hundred years and those of the key theorists of today In pursuing this radical analysis the understanding of history as a narrative is evaluated along with contemporary notions such as the continuing presence of the past and the idea of its lessons Written by one of the leading thinkers on the subject A History of History provides an accessible and radical history of history while offering new insights into the pressing questions of the nature purpose and function of history This book is an essential text for all students teachers and consumers of history
