No Fixed Address Leslea Ingram, 2024-03-29 Embark on a Journey Beyond the Shadows Imagine a world where the place you call home is a fleeting concept where the streets become your living room and the uncertainty of tomorrow looms larger than life No Fixed Address Life On the Streets invites you on a poignant exploration of what it means to live without the security of a home This deeply moving book peels back the layers of homelessness presenting a mosaic of lives touched by this stark reality From the war torn veteran to the invisible youth and the families caught in cycles of poverty each narrative is a thread in the fabric of a larger often misunderstood community Embark on a deeply human journey through the eyes of those who walk the streets by day and seek refuge by night Chapter 1 The Faces of Homelessness lays bare the definitions and dimensions of homelessness setting the stage for a compelling discourse Venture further and you ll uncover the myriad pathways to the streets from the grip of economic hardships and abusive environments to the unseen battles with mental health and substance abuse But what does a day in the life of a homeless individual truly entail No Fixed Address doesn t shy away from the raw realities of finding shelter seeking food and the quest for basic hygiene chapters that challenge the reader to see beyond societal prejudice Through personal narratives and an exploration of the systemic gaps this book not only sheds light on the health implications and stigma associated with homelessness but also elevates the conversation to innovative solutions and success stories As you delve into the systemic health and societal dimensions of homelessness you ll be invited to reconsider your perceptions and contribute to a more compassionate world With a blend of personal triumphs and calls to action No Fixed Address Life On the Streets is more than a book it s a catalyst for change offering a beacon of hope for a future where homelessness is not an end but a challenge to overcome Join us on this transformative journey and discover the resilience courage and undying hope that define life on the streets God of No Fixed Address Jean-Claude Verrecchia, 2015-01-12 Where does God live This is not an idle question Does God dwell there near us or away from us Does he live in one place or is he willing to relocate Is it possible to visit his house and in this case what are the entrance requirements Does he live in a closed place totally forbidden for any human visit Answering these questions is the subject of God of No Fixed Address The tone used is very accessible and sometimes even disturbing Misconceptions about the Jewish sanctuary the Jerusalem temple and the sacrificial system of the Old Testament will be flattened down and swept when necessary They will triumph the amazing divine will which takes man off balance which refuses any confinement which tears the sails and demolishes the stones to pitch his tent in every heart and in every community of faith God of No Fixed Address is a journey for those who love discovering new territories Still No Fixed Address (Talking Book) Jackie Hartnell, 2012 No Fixed Address Maureen Bayless, 1997 Thirteen year old Sabie has taken care of herself since her mother died Now her estranged father wants her to live with him and his new family Can Sabie trust him and start a new life Cf Our choice 1998 1999 No Fixed Address Susin Nielsen, 2018-09-11 From beloved

Governor General Literary Award winning author Susin Nielsen comes a touching and funny middle grade story about family friendship and growing up when you're one step away from homelessness Felix Knuttson twelve is an endearing kid with an incredible brain for trivia His mom Astrid is loving but unreliable she can't hold onto a job or a home When they lose their apartment in Vancouver they move into a camper van just for August till Astrid finds a job September comes they're still in the van Felix must keep home a secret and give a fake address in order to enroll in school Luckily he finds true friends As the weeks pass and life becomes grim he struggles not to let anyone know how precarious his situation is When he gets to compete on a national quiz show Felix is determined to win the cash prize will bring them a home Their luck is about to change But what happens is not at all what Felix expected

A Companion to Australian Aboriginal Literature Belinda Wheeler, 2013 This international collection of eleven original essays on Australian Aboriginal literature provides a comprehensive critical companion that contextualizes the Aboriginal canon for scholars researchers students and general readers Australian Aboriginal literature once relegated to the margins of Australian literary studies now receives both national and international attention Not only has the number of published texts by contemporary Australian Aboriginals risen sharply but scholars and publishers have also recently begun recovering earlier published and unpublished Indigenous works Writing by Australian Aboriginals is making a decisive impression in fiction autobiography biography poetry film drama and music and has recently been anthologized in Oceania and North America Until now however there has been no comprehensive critical companion that contextualizes the Aboriginal canon for scholars researchers students and general readers This international collection of eleven original essays fills this gap by discussing crucial aspects of Australian Aboriginal literature and tracing the development of Aboriginal literacy from the oral tradition up until today contextualizing the work of Aboriginal artists and writers and exploring aspects of Aboriginal life writing such as obstacles toward publishing questions of editorial control or the lack thereof intergenerational and interracial collaborations combining oral history and life writing and the pros and cons of translation into European languages Contributors Katrin Althans Maryrose Casey Danica Cerce Stuart Cooke Paula Anca Farca Michael R Griffiths Oliver Haag Martina Horakova Jennifer Jones Nicholas Jose Andrew King Jeanine Leane Theodore F Sheckels Belinda Wheeler Belinda Wheeler is Associate Professor of English at Claflin University Orangeburg SC

Homelessness, Housing, and Mental Health Cheryl Forchuk, 2011 Some say mental illness is the last great stigma remaining in our communities This book is a collection of twenty articles written by researchers scholars practitioners of nursing social work and community health and survivors of mental illness and homelessness Each piece speaks to a specific aspect of the linkages among housing homelessness poverty and mental illness

The Art of Free Travel Patrick Jones, Meg Ulman, 2015-10-01 Patrick Meg and their family had built a happy sustainable life in regional Victoria But in late 2013 they found themselves craving an adventure a road trip But theirs was a road trip with a difference With Zephyr 10 Woody 1 and Zero their Jack Russell they set off on an epic 6 000km year long cycling journey along

Australia's east coast from Daylesford to Cape York and back Their aim was to live as cheaply as possible guerrilla camping hunting foraging and bartering their permaculture skills and living on a diet of free food bush tucker and the occasional fresh road kill They spent time in Aboriginal communities joined an anti fracking blockade documented edible plants and dodged speeding cars and trucks on the country's most dangerous highways The Art of Free Travel is the remarkable story of a rule breaking year of ethical living Statutory Instruments Great Britain,1965 Rethinking Reference for Academic Libraries Carrie Forbes,Jennifer Bowers,2014-12-05 The rapid development of the Web and Web based technologies has led to an ongoing redefinition of reference services in academic libraries A growing diversity of users and the need and possibility for collaboration in delivering reference services bring additional pressures for change At the same time there are growing demands for libraries to show accountability and service value All of these trends have impacted the field and will continue to shape reference and research services And they have led to a need for increasingly specialized professional competencies and a literature to support them In order to reimagine reference service for twenty first century learning environments practitioners will need to understand several focal areas of emerging reference In particular collaboration with campus partners diverse student populations technological innovations the need for assessment and new professional competencies present new challenges and opportunities for creating a twenty first century learning environment Librarians must not only understand but also embrace these emerging reference practices This edited volume containing five sections and fourteen chapters reviews the current state of reference services in academic libraries with an emphasis on innovative developments and future trends The main theme that runs through the book is the urgent need for inventive imaginative and responsive reference and research services Through literature reviews and case studies this book provides professionals with a convenient compilation of timely issues and models at comparable institutions As academic libraries shift from functioning primarily as collections repositories to serving as key players in discovery and knowledge creation value added services such as reference are even more central to libraries and universities changing missions Bob Marley Jason

Toynbee,2013-05-08 Is Bob Marley the only third world superstar How did he achieve this unique status In this captivating new study of one of the most influential musicians of the twentieth century Jason Toynbee sheds new light on issues such as Marley's contribution as a musician and public intellectual how he was granted access to the global media system and what his music means in cultural and political terms Tracing Marley's life and work from Jamaica to the world stage Toynbee suggests that we need to understand Marley first and foremost as a social author Trained in the co operative yet also highly competitive musical laboratory of downtown Kingston Marley went on to translate reggae into a successful international style His crowning achievement was to mix postcolonial anger and hope with Jamaican textures and beats to produce the first world music However the period since his death has been marked by brutal and intensifying inequality in the capitalist world system There is an urgent need then to reconsider the nature of his legacy Toynbee does this in the concluding chapters weighing Marley's impact as advocate of human emancipation against his marginalisation as a Natural Mystic and pretext for disengagement from radical politics

Roads of Her Own Alexandra Ganser, 2009-01-01 Reading Jack Kerouac's classic On the Road through Virginia Woolf's canonical A Room of One's Own the author of this book examines a genre in North American literature which despite its popularity has received little attention in literary and cultural criticism women's road narratives The study shows how women's literature has inscribed itself into the American discourse of the Whitmanesque open road or more generally the freedom of the road Women writers have participated in this powerful American myth yet at the same time also have rejected that myth as fundamentally based on gendered and racial ethnic hierarchies and power structures and modified it in the process of writing back to it The book analyzes stories about female runaways outlaws questers adventurers kidnappees biker chicks travelling saleswomen and picanas and makes theoretical observations on the debates regarding discourses of spatiality and mobility debates which have defined the so called spatial turn in the humanities The analytical concept of transdifference is introduced to theorize the dissonant plurality of social and cultural affiliations as well as the narrative tensions produced by such pluralities in order to better understand the textual worlds of women's multiple belongings as they are present in these writings Roads of Her Own is thus not only situated in the broader context of a constructivist cultural studies but also by discussing narrative mobility under the sign of gender combines insights from social theory and philosophy feminist cultural geography and literary studies Key names and concepts Doreen Massey Rosi Braidotti Literary Studies Spatial Turn Gendered Space and Mobility Nomadism Road writing Transdifference American Culture Popular Culture Women's Literature after the Second Wave Quest Picara

Gothic forms of feminine fictions Susanne Becker, 2017-06-01 Gothic forms of feminine fictions is a study of the powers of the Gothic in late twentieth century fiction and film Susanne Becker argues that the Gothic two hundred years after it emerged exhibits renewed vitality in our media age with its obsession for stimulation and excitement Today's globalised entertainment culture relying on soaps reality TV shows celebrity and excess is reflected in the emotional trajectory of the Gothic's violence eroticism and sentimental excess Gothic forms of feminine fictions discusses a wide range of anglophone Gothic romances from the classics through pulp fictions to a postmodern Gothica This timely and original study is a major contribution to gender and genre theory as well as cultural criticism of the contemporary It will appeal to scholars in a wide range of fields and become essential for students of the Gothic contemporary fiction particularly Alice Munro and Margaret Atwood and popular culture
