The Virgin Encyclopedia of The Blues Colin Larkin, 2013-09-30 The Virgin Encyclopaedia of the Blues is a complete handbook of information and opinion about the history of the most classically simple, enduring and inspiring genre in the history of popular music. All entries have been created from the massive database of The Encyclopaedia of Popular Music, which has swiftly and firmly established itself as the undisputed champion of contemporary music reference books. Brand new research ensures that the 1000 entries are bang up to date and cover everyone: the musicians, bands, songwriters, producers and record labels who have made a significant impact on the development of the blues. It brings together pioneers like Robert Johnson and Blind Lemon Jefferson, the influence of Muddy Waters and Willie Dixon on the blues boom of the 1960s and the most recent blues resurgence featuring Keb Mo, Larry Garner and Jonny Lang. As well as the giants of the blues, this encyclopaedia has the range and depth to include performers who flew the blues flag during fallow periods: the 1980s band Roomful of Blues, for example, or acts like Paul Butterfield, Chicken Shack, Stevie Ray Vaughan, who took the music to a wider, whiter audience. Some blues musicians, including John Lee Hooker and Taj Mahal, seem to last forever. Others simply defined the genre like Lead Belly, Bessie Smith and Howlin' Wolf. Whomever you remember or want to know more about, each entry gives the essential elements: dates, career facts, discography and album ratings, as well as a sense of context, striking a balance between the extremes of the self-opinionated and the bland.

Red River Blues Bruce Bastin, 1995 A Classic of Blues Literature inductee into the Blues Foundation's Blues Hall of Fame. Drawing on archives and interviews with musicians, Red River Blues remains an acclaimed work of blues scholarship. Bruce Bastin traces the origins of the music to the turn of the twentieth century when African Americans rejected slave songs, work songs and minstrel music in favor of a potent new vehicle for secular musical expression. Bastin looks at the blues' early emerging popularity and its spread via the Great Migration, delves into a wealth of field recordings and looks at the careers of Brownie McGhee, Blind Boy Fuller, Curly Weaver, Sonny Terry and many other foundational artists.

Columbia Record Catalog, 1925 All Music Guide Vladimir Bogdanov, Chris Woodstra, Stephen Thomas Erlewine, 2001-11 Arranged in sixteen musical categories, provides entries for twenty thousand releases from four thousand artists and includes a history of each musical genre.

Doing Time in the Depression Ethan Blue, 2014-11-22 As banks crashed, belts tightened and cupboards emptied across the country, American prisons grew fat. Doing Time in the

Depression tells the story of the 1930s as seen from the cell blocks and cotton fields of Texas and California prisons state institutions that held growing numbers of working people from around the country and the world overwhelmingly poor disproportionately non white and displaced by economic crisis Ethan Blue paints a vivid portrait of everyday life inside Texas and California s penal systems Each element of prison life from numbing boredom to hard labor from meager pleasure in popular culture to crushing pain from illness or violence demonstrated a contest between keepers and the kept From the moment they arrived to the day they would leave inmates struggled over the meanings of race and manhood power and poverty and of the state itself In this richly layered account Blue compellingly argues that punishment in California and Texas played a critical role in producing a distinctive set of class race and gender identities in the 1930s some of which reinforced the social hierarchies and ideologies of New Deal America and others of which undercut and troubled the established social order He reveals the underside of the modern state in two very different prison systems and the making of grim institutions whose power would only grow across the century
