Dawn,Eugene H. Peterson,1999-11-17 Best selling authors Marva Dawn and Eugene Peterson offer encouragement to pastors Pastors are strategically placed to counter the culture No other profession looks so inoffensive but is in fact so dangerous to the status quo Their weapon A gospel that is profoundly countercultural But standing firm in today s world isn t easy Powerful forces both subtle and obvious attempt to domesticate pastors to make them in a word unnecessary In this book two of today s most respected authors help pastors recover their gospel identity and maintain a pure vision of Christian leadership Marva Dawn and Eugene Peterson reconnect pastors with the biblical texts that will train them as countercultural servants of the gospel Marva Dawn looks to Paul s letter to the Ephesians for instruction for churches seeking to live faithfully in today s world In turn Eugene Peterson explores Romans 1 and 2 Timothy and Titus drawing from them the correct view of pastoral identity      Exiles Michael Frost,2006-08-01 Exiles Living Missionally in a Post Christian Culture presents a biblical Christian worldview for the emergent church people who are not at home in the traditional church or in the secular world As exiles of both they must create their own worldview that integrates their Christian beliefs with the contemporary world Exiles seeks to integrate all aspects of life and decision making and to develop the characteristics of a Christian life lived intentionally within emerging postmodern culture It presents a plea for a dynamic life affirming robust Christian faith that can be lived successfully in the post Christian world of twenty first century Western society This book will present a Christian lifestyle that can be lived in non religious categories and be attractive to not yet Christians Such a worldview takes ecology and politics seriously It offers a positive response to the workplace the arts feminism mystery and worship Exiles seeks to develop a framework that will allow Christians to live boldly and courageously in a world that no longer values the culture of the church but does greatly value many of the things the Bible speaks positively about This book suggests that there us more to being a Christian than meets the eye It explores the secret unseen nooks and crannies in the life of a Christian and suggests that faith is about more than church attendance and belief in God Written in a conversational easy to read style Exiles is aimed at church leaders pastors and laypersons and seeks to address complex issues in a simple manner It includes helpful photographs and diagrams

Redeeming the Text Charles Martindale,1993 This book applies some of the procedures of modern critical theory in particular reception theory deconstruction theories of dialogue and the hermeneutics associated with the German philosopher Gadamer to the interpretation of Latin poetry Charles Martindale argues that we neither can nor should attempt to return to an original meaning for ancient poems free from later accretions and the processes of appropriation more traditional approaches to literary enquiry conceal a metaphysics which has been put in question by various anti foundationalist accounts of the nature of meaning and the relationship between language and what it describes From this perspective the author examines different readings of the poetry of Virgil Ovid Horace and Lucan in order to suggest alternative ways in which those texts might more profitably be read Finally he focuses on a key term for such study translation and examines the epistemological questions it raises and seeks to circumvent
