Practical Theology and Pierre-André Liégé Nicholas Bradbury, 2016-03-03

Pierre Andr Li g one of the foremost French theologians of the 20th century influenced John XXIII and Paul VI and sat on Vatican II committees with both the future John Paul II and Benedict VI Fifty years on from Vatican II is a good time to remember the decade of dramatic struggle and pioneering work that preceded it and review what it accomplished This book explores the life and work of Pierre Andr Li g presenting it to an English speaking readership for the first time Discussing the impact and profound challenges Liege s work raises for spirituality and church life today Bradbury tackles issues including the organisation of parish life rooted in theological criteria cradle to grave corporate Christian formation a compelling vision of what the church is for and why and how should this be expressed in practice Bradbury argues that for faith to match real life the church today needs to let go of much baggage align its talk to its action and radically re examine the question of what the church needs to do to conform to the Gospel This book takes critical issues confronting practical theology and the church breaking them open in a lively and accessible style

Personhood and Presence Ewan Kelly, 2012-03-08

The greatest asset which people in pastoral care offer in a caring relationship is themselves or to be more precise the aspects of self which they have reflected upon Offering oneself to other people in order to provide companionship along the road of life especially when the particular stage on the journey is one of anticipated or actual loss is an act which is both challenging and yet potentially life enhancing for a carer The purpose of this book is to offer an aid to those who seek to understand themselves better with a view to enhancing the quality of spiritual and pastoral care they offer Here the reference point for reflexivity is the caring relationship Yet as we are fundamentally the same beings in personal and professional relationships readers may also find stimulus to reflect on what they bring to a variety of relationships including that with the Sacred and indeed themselves Resilient Pastors Justine Allain-Chapman,2013-01-23 How can I help others to be strengthened during difficulties in life How can I cope when I m overwhelmed with the demands of helping others Pastors including clergy need to be able to provide the right kind of circumstances teaching and care to enable people to face crisis and come through difficulties stronger as human beings and as Christians They also need the quality of resilience to be involved in Christian ministry Justine Allain Chapman s thoughtful book draws on the stories and themes of Christian theology and tradition on contemporary research into resilience and the insights of psychology to help people make sense of the personal costs of pastoral care This book is an important resource for pastors written to help them recognize the dynamics of developing their own resilience as well as enabling them to strengthen others It is an essential guide to understanding how what is preached and taught in churches prepares people for life s difficulties Making God Possible Alan Billings,2011-09-22 What are clergy for In this lively and provocative volume Alan Billings argues that they serve the mission and ministry of the Church which is to make God possible In each new era how to carry out this mission effectively will vary as the Church seeks to respond to changes in society and culture but it is likely to involve clergy in a refocusing of their ministry Part 1 of Making God Possible looks at recent cultural shifts and the challenges they present to Christianity in the twenty first century Part 2 explores some of the models of ministry which have been found in the Church in the past and which continue to exercise an influence classical the parson evangelical the minister catholic the priest and utility the social activist and personal therapist The author skilfully draws out those things of lasting importance and value in each model that might contribute towards the renewal of the ordained ministry today Changing Worlds Robin Gill,2002-09-15 Churches everywhere are experiencing change In his thought provoking book Professor Robin Gill identifies the main challenges facing the church and reflects on how Christians should respond He first studies the immense moral challenges of our rapidly changing world religion and the environment the arms trade including reflection on the global situation since the attack on New York on 11 September 2001 media ethics and the Lambeth Conference and sexual ethics The second part focuses on the changing patterns of churchgoing and addresses anxieties about churchgoing decline in the West which run parallel with claims about rapid church growth elsewhere The third part looks at changes in theological education The author argues for greater honesty in the church and for a judicious use of both theology and sociology which would equip Christians to face the enormous challenges of our world today The New Guidebook for Pastors James W. Marking Short Lives Ewan R. Kelly,Ewan Kelly,2007 This book explores theologically the practice of hospital chaplains seeking to meet the spiritual needs of parents bereaved by baby death in utero The lived experience of bereaved parents gathered through a series of in depth interviews informs such an exploration Parents describe the trauma of late miscarriage and stillbirth as still being shrouded by silence myth and misunderstanding in contemporary society Up to date theoretical understandings of grief are also re examined in light of parents stories of living with baby death This book offers suggestions as to how the actual spiritual needs of parents may be met and their grief sensitively facilitated through the sharing of rituals co constructed by parents and chaplain which seek to have theological integrity yet be relevant in our postmodern age In our prevalent culture of caring where increasingly ongoing professional and personal development are regarded as normative recommendations are made which may aid reflection on current or shape future practice for chaplains pastors students and various healthcare professionals Illusion Michael Jacobs, 2011-01-18 The ways we know think and believe about a whole variety of key areas different forms of discourse psychotherapy as well as religion have much more in common than is usually perceived Through a series of fascinating parallels running across different disciplines Jacobs demonstrates the possible analysis of modes of thinking and belief from intuitive pre thinking through authoritative driven thinking and belief and personal and polymathic knowledge to unknowing the last concept being one that is shared by Bion Winnicott and major mystical tradition Using this theoretical model the book provides a map to how clients and indeed therapists might think and believe suggesting ways in which they may be supported as they shift through different modes with all the anxiety that disillusionment brings
