Bernardo, Jan van der Ploeg, 2003 All Elevations Unknown Sam Lightner, 2001 In 1999 when mankind had successfully mapped the surface of the Moon Venus and Mars there were still sections of Borneo that man had nothing to say about other than all elevations unknown In the spring of 1999 armed with little more than a description from a book and a map labeled all elevations unknown Sam Lightner and his German rock climbing buddy Volker found themselves deep in the jungles of Borneo on a mission to climb a mountain that was only rumored to exist They had only their climbing expertise to rely on and a copy of a little known book titled World Within written by Major Tom Harrison a British World War II soldier who had been one of the first white men ever to explore the interior jungles of the island and interact with its native peoples He had also conducted one of the most daring and unusual campaigns in military history In 1945 he had been assigned the near impossible mission of parachuting blindly into the thick Borneo rain forests to unite the feuding native tribes who then had a grisly habit of cutting off heads against the Japanese in order to reclaim the island for the Allies A captivating utterly original combination of travel adventure memoir and historical re creation All Elevations Unknown charts Lightner s exhilarating often harrowing quest to ascend the mountain Batu Lawi in the face of leeches vipers and sweat bees and to keep his team together in one of the earth s most treacherous uncharted pockets Along the way Lightner reconstructs a fascinating historical narrative that chronicles Tom Harrison s adventures on Borneo during the war and illuminates an astonishing piece of forgotten World War II history Rife with suspense and vivid detail the two intertwining tales open up the island of Borneo its people and its history in a powerful unforgettable way and take adventure writing to new heights A daring twist on the travel adventure genre that places the talented Lightner in the ranks of authors such as Jon Krakauer Sebastian Junger and Redmond O Hanlon All Elevations Unknown is ultimately the remarkable story of two adventurers separated by fifty years and united by one mountain Navigating a New Course Tory Read, 2002 Tropical Rainforests and Agroforests Under Global Change Melanie Grosse, 2008 Human induced land use intensification and climate change are major global change drivers likely to continue for a long time This international symposium provides an open platform for all scientists from socio economic and natural sciences interested in the effects of global change on rainforests and agroforests Balancing the ecological and socio economic benefits of different agroforestry systems comparing patterns and processes in managed agroforest and natural forest and modeling the dynamics of land use change and related resource degradation under various policy scenarios are major topics of this symposium The Regional Travel Guide for Peninsular Malaysia (Malaysia) , Habitats of the World DK, 2023-03-14 An illustrated journey through Earth's most amazing habitats from forests and ocean to deserts and the frozen poles Take a tour through Earth's most amazing habitats and discover the astonishing variety of life on our planet Illustrated in incredible detail Habitats of the World explores Earth's major ecosystems and the different communities of animals and plants that live in each one From a teeming tropical rainforest to the hostile conditions of a high mountain peak or the icy poles find out how animals and plants are adapted to their environment and how they interact with their surroundings and each other Dip beneath the sunlit surface of the Coral Sea to discover a reef bursting with life Voyage to the frozen north to find out which animals survive on the icy Arctic tundra See the sun rise over the Sonoran Desert in spring as this arid landscape bursts into bloom Packed full of natural wonders and iconic animal species this book shows how life on Earth is interconnected and knitted together in a delicate balance Perfect for children and parents to read together and discover the incredible diversity of life on planet Earth Wetland Science B. Anjan Kumar Prusty, Rachna Chandra, P. A. Azeez, 2017-04-21 This book is an attempt to acknowledge the discipline wetland science and to consolidate research findings reviews and synthesis articles on different aspects of the wetlands in South Asia The book presents 30 chapters by an international mix of experts in the field who highlight and discuss diverse issues concerning wetlands in South Asia as case studies The chapters are divided into different themes that represent broad issues of concern in a systematic manner keeping in mind students researchers and general readers at large The book introduces readers to the basics and theory of wetland science supplemented by case studies and examples from the region It also offers a valuable resource for graduate students and researchers in allied fields such as environmental studies limnology wildlife biology aquatic biology marine biology and landscape ecology To date the interdisciplinary field wetland science is still rarely treated as a distinct discipline in its own right Further courses on wetland science aren't taught at any of the world's most prestigious universities instead the topics falling under this discipline are generally handled under the disciplines ecology or under the extremely broad heading of environmental studies It is high time that Wetland Science be acknowledged as an interdisciplinary sub discipline which calls for an attempt to consolidate its various subtopics and present them comprehensively Thus this book also serves as a reference base on wetlands and facilitates further discussions on specific issues involved in safeguarding a sustainable future for the wetland habitats of this region Environmental Sciences K J Gregory, Ian Simmons, Anthony Brazel, John W Day, Edward A Keller, Alejandro Yanez-Arancibia, Arthur G Sylvester, 2008-11-18 Unique in the reference literature this Companion provides students with an introduction to all the major concepts and contemporary issues in the environmental sciences The text is divided into six sections Environmental Sciences Environments Paradigms and Concepts Processes and Dynamic Scales and Techniques Environmental Issues with over 200 entries alphabetically organized and authored by key names in the environmental science disciplines Entries are concise informative richly visual and fully referenced and cross referenced They introduce key concepts and processes that are included in the index cite relevant websites and reflect the latest thinking The Geography of Contemporary China Jing'ai Wang, Shunlin Liang, Peijun Shi, 2022-06-28 This textbook provides a comprehensive and very detailed insight into Chinese Contemporary Geography in English It documents the geographical issues associated with China's rapid growth Since initiating the reforms and open policy China has achieved tremendous success China's rapid growth is now a driving force in the global economy and is achieving unprecedented rates of poverty reduction However China also faces a number of sustainability and emerging challenges associated with rapid growth such as growing regional disparities in terms of per capita income and social economic development sustainable resource development and issues related to regional and global economic integration In addition rapid economic growth has also brought about major challenges such as resource shortages ecological and environmental destruction land degradation and frequent disasters This book presents the authors reflections This lavishly illustrated book covers physical geography history and economic and political systems of the world's most populous country The major focus is on geographical issues in China's contemporary development agriculture population urbanization resource and energy and environment The lead author of the book has taught relevant courses in China for three decades and authored and edited multiple textbooks for Chinese students This book will appeal to undergraduate students of geography and related disciplines with a regional focus on China and to the general reader who wants to learn different geographical aspects of modern China with little academic background in geography Tanzania Jens Finke, 2003 The Rough Guides series contain full color photos three maps in one and are waterproof and tearproof They contain thousands of keyed listings and bright new graphics The Political Economy of Contemporary Human Civilisation, Volume I Sangaralingam Ramesh, 2025-03-21 This book the first of two volumes examines the evolution of humanity and development global economic systems to provide insight into the advances and challenges they have created By placing modern technology and global crises within the context of long term human development it evaluates the threat of climate change on future generations by showing how past civilizations have survived and succumbed to climate events A similar approach is taken with migration where the current migration crisis is contrasted against historic migration patterns The potential for artificial intelligence quantum computing nuclear fusion and biotechnology to combat these challenges as well as tackle poverty and inequality are also discussed This book highlights the consequences of human cognition and the constant desire for economic growth and evaluates whether they have been a net positive for human society It will be of interest to students and researchers working on political economy and global challenges Islands of Rainforest Edvard Hviding,Tim Bayliss-Smith,2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2000 An original and thought provoking analysis of modern initiatives in the tropical rain forest While issues such as logging eco timber eco tourism have been widely analyzed from an outsider s perspective this book considers them from the local people s viewpoint in terms of a long history of the rainforest uses The authors demonstrate that the relationship of indigenous people to the tropical forest is not essentially timeless nor is it primarily spiritual or mystical It is in fact firmly connected to modern realities while still being rooted in historical beliefs and practices Standing at the intersection of anthropology historical geography and rainforest ecology and also at the interface of the local and the global this ethnographically grounded study dispels a number of commonly held assumptions It reveals how processes of impact are actually two way interactions as local communities in Melanesia incorporate industries like logging into rapidly evolving post colonial society and economy FAQ Volume-1 (History, Geography, Indian polity and Indian Economy) Prashant Sharma,Rajesh joshu,2023-06-15 This book contains 8100 questions with their answers It is a collection of various exams This book covers History Geography Indian Polity and Indian Economy This is a chapter wise collection Questions are given in one liner format
