Reencounters In China:

Re-encounters in China Harold R. Isaacs, 2016-07-01 First Published in 1985 This book provides an observation of the Chinese Revolution by a journalist who returned to China in 1980 and can give a unique perspective and insight into that traumatic experience Harold Isaacs who in the 1930s knew Soong Ching ling Mme Sun Tay sen one of the great women of modern history sensitivity brings to the reader the revolutionary ideals and dreams of the people of Shanghai The Lives of Agnes Smedley Ruth Price, 2005-01-07 Drawing on 15 years of intensive research and unprecedented access to previously unpublished documents this vibrant book brings to life one of the 20th century s most fascinating women White World Order, Black Power Politics Robert Vitalis, 2015-12-09 Racism and imperialism are the twin forces that propelled the course of the United States in the world in the early twentieth century and in turn affected the way that diplomatic history and international relations were taught and understood in the American academy Evolutionary theory social Darwinism and racial anthropology had been dominant doctrines in international relations from its beginnings racist attitudes informed research priorities and were embedded in newly formed professional organizations In White World Order Black Power Politics Robert Vitalis recovers the arguments texts and institution building of an extraordinary group of professors at Howard University including Alain Locke Ralph Bunche Rayford Logan Eric Williams and Merze Tate who was the first black female professor of political science in the country Within the rigidly segregated profession the Howard School of International Relations represented the most important center of opposition to racism and the focal point for theorizing feasible alternatives to dependency and domination for Africans and African Americans through the early 1960s Vitalis pairs the contributions of white and black scholars to reconstitute forgotten historical dialogues and show the critical role played by race in the formation of international relations Red Friends John Sexton, 2023-02-21 The story of the friends and allies of the Chinese Revolution China s resistance to Imperial Japan was the other great internationalist cause of the red 1930s along with the Spanish Civil War These desperate and bloody struggles were personified in the lives of Norman Bethune and others who volunteered in both conflicts The story of Red Friends starts in the 1920s when encouraged by the newly formed Communist International Chinese nationalists and leftists united to fight warlords and foreign domination John Sexton has unearthed the histories of foreigners who joined the Chinese revolution He follows Comintern militants journalists spies adventurers Trotskyists and mission kids whose involvement helped and sometimes hindered China s revolutionaries Most were internationalists who while strongly identifying with China s struggle saw it as just one theatre in a world revolution The present rulers in Beijing however buoyed by China s powerhouse economy commemorate them as foreign friends who aided China s peaceful rise to great power status Founded on original research it is a stirring story of idealists struggling against the odds to found a better future The author s interviews with survivors and descendants add colour and humanity to lives both heroic and tragic The Chinese Communist Party During the Cultural Revolution P. Lubell, 2001-12-17 In 1936 a group of Chinese communists were released from jail after a humiliating renunciation of communism The Chinese Communist Party then secretly employed them to galvanise support in nationalist areas of the country It later condemned the members of this group as renegades before finally rehabilitating them in 1978 Pamela Lubell uncovers the fascinating history of these communists known as the Sixty one and in doing so produces a revealing account of the tensions within the Chinese Communist Party

Wuhan, 1938 Stephen R. MacKinnon,2008-05-21 During the spring of 1938 a flood of Chinese refugees displaced by the Anti Japanese War 1937 1945 converged on the central Yangzi valley tricity complex of Wuhan For ten remarkable months in a highly charged atmosphere of carnage heroism and desperation Wuhan held out against the Japanese in what would become a turning point in the war and one that attracted international attention Stephen MacKinnon for the first time tells the full story of Wuhan s defense and fall and how the siege s aftermath led to new directions in the history of modern Chinese culture society and politics

Facing Japan Parks M. Coble,2020-03-17 In Facing Japan Parks M Coble focuses on how events that took place during the Japanese occupation of Manchuria from 1931 until war erupted in 1937 affected the Chinese goverment and public opinion Both in the places where incidents occurred and in other centres of power Japanese threats attacks and economic demands pressed Nationalist China relentlessly and aroused popular indignation Throughout most of the period Chiang kai Shek was trying to wrest control of China from all domestic rivals Aware that his army was inferior to Japan s his Nationalist government repeatedly made concessions in response to Japanese provocations Chiang busied himself with anti Communist campaigns leaving others to take public responsibility for his unpopular appeasement policies For such crises as the Mukden Incident and the Japanese attack on Shanghai Coble examines the tension that Chiang s policy caused within the Kuomintang and the alternatives put forward by other major leaders both inside and outside the government To further explore the political complexities of the day Coble traces the actions of regional leaders and their constantly changing relations to the central government in Nanking reviews editorials of various newspapers and chronicles the actions of student organizations and patriotic associations

The Black Pacific Narrative Etsuko Taketani,2014-11-04 The Black Pacific Narrative Geographic Imaginings of Race and Empire between the World Wars chronicles the profound shift in geographic imaginings that occurred in African American culture as the United States evolved into a bioceanic global power The author examines the narrative of the black Pacific _ the literary and cultural production of African American narratives in the face of America s efforts to internationalize the Pacific and to institute a Pacific Community reflecting a vision of a hemispheric regional order initiated and led by the United States The black Pacific was imagined in counterpoint to this regional order in the making which would ultimately be challenged by the Pacific War The principal subjects of study include such literary and cultural figures as James Weldon Johnson George S Schuyler artists of the black Federal Theatre Project Langston Hughes W E B Du Bois and Walter White all of whom afford significant points of entry to a critical understanding of the stakes of the black Pacific narrative Adopting an approach that mixes the archival and the interpretive the author seeks to recover the black Pacific produced by African American narratives narratives that were significant enough in their time to warrant surveillance and suspicion and hence are significant enough in our time to warrant scholarly attention and reappraisal A compelling study that will appeal to a broad international audience of students and scholars of American studies African American studies American literature and imperialism and colonialism

Embracing the Lie Charles J. Alber,2004-10-30 This volume is the first serious attempt to reconstruct Ding Ling s biography during the last few decades of her life Most Westerners know her as a progressive woman writer who became famous during the May 4 Movement championed its values in Yan an and was criticized in the rectification campaigns that followed Few know about her life afterward and the arduous process of rehabilitation Here for the first time readers will learn about her life in the Great Northern Wasteland solitary confinement in Qincheng prison her visit to the United States participation in the spiritual pollution campaign and finally the attempt to launch the journal China All of this puts a new perspective on the life of one of China s most preeminent woman writers Alber includes considerable new information about the rectification campaigns of the late fifties supplemented by a series of interviews with the author and her contemporaries in the years 1980 and 1981 the very point when she began to turn left and to compromise her progressive beliefs Ding Ling is generally acknowledged as a major figure of the May 4 Movement and an ardent admirer of Lu Xun As such the study sheds light on the legacy of China s greatest writer and the influence of Western ideals on contemporary Chinese literature The primary audience is the educated reader who has an interest in contemporary Chinese literature and politics It should be especially interesting to women but the coverage is broad enough to include anyone interested in the intellectual history of China Jews in China Irene Eber, 2019-10-21 Irene Eber was one of the foremost authorities on Jews in China during the twentieth and twenty first centuries a field that in contrast to the study of the Jewish diaspora in Europe and the Americas has been critically neglected This volume gathers fourteen of Eber's most salient articles and essays on the exchanges between Jewish and Chinese cultures making available to students scholars and general readers a representative sample of the range and depth of her important work in the field of Jews in China Jews in China delineates the centuries long reciprocal dialogue between Jews Jewish culture and China all under the overarching theme of cultural translation The first section of the book sets forth a sweeping overview of the history of Jews in China beginning in the twelfth century and concluding with a detailed assessment of the two crucial years leading up to the Second World War The second section examines the translation of Chinese classics into Hebrew and the translation of the Hebrew Bible into Chinese The third and final section turns to modern literature bringing together eight essays that underscore the cultural reciprocity that takes place through acts of translation The centuries long relationship between Judaism and China is often overlooked in the light of the extensive discourse surrounding European and American Judaism With this volume Eber reminds us that we have much to learn from the intersections between Jewish identity and Chinese culture Wartime Shanghai and the Jewish Refugees from Central Europe Irene Eber, 2012-04-02 The study discusses the history of the Jewish refugees within the Shanghai setting and its relationship to the two established Jewish communities the Sephardi and Russian Jews Attention is also focused on the cultural life of the refugees who used both German and Yiddish and on their attempts to cope under Japanese occupation after the outbreak of the Pacific War Differences of identity existed between Sephardi and Ashkenazi Jews religious and secular aside from linguistic and cultural differences The study aims to understand the exile condition of the refugees and their amazing efforts to create a semblance of cultural life in a strange new world Big Sister, Little Sister, Red Sister Jung Chang, 2019 The most famous sisters in China the three Soong sisters from Shanghai were at the center of power during a time of wars revolutions and seismic transformations Red Sister Ching ling married Sun Yat sen Little Sister May ling became Madame Chiang Kai shek Big Sister Ei Ling became Chiang's unofficial main adviser and made herself one of China's richest women Alternative Modernities Dilip Parameshwar Gaonkar, 2001 A special issue of PUBLIC CULTURE this volume of essays examines modernity from transnational and transcultural perspectives holding that within different cultures there are different starting points of the transition to modernity that lead to different Hiroshima in History and Memory Michael J. Hogan, 1996-03-29 This collection of essays surveys the Hiroshima story Prophets Unarmed Gregor Benton, 2015-09-01 Prophets Unarmed is an authoritative sourcebook on the Chinese Communist Party's main early opposition the Chinese Trotskyists who emerged from the Chinese Communist Party in China and Moscow in reaction to its 1927 defeat In spite of being Trotskyism's main section outside Russia they were crushed by Stalin in Moscow and by Chiang Kai shek and Mao Zedong in China thus becoming China's most persecuted party. Their strategy in the Japan war when they failed to take up arms was short sighted and doctrinaire and they had scant impact on the revolution. Even so their association with Chen Duxiu and Wang Shiwei, their attachment to democracy and their critique of Mao's bureaucratic socialism brought them a scintilla of recognition after Mao's death. Their standpoints and proposals and their association with the democratic movement are not without relevance to China's present crisis of morals and authority.
