The cinema of Álex de la Iglesia Andy Willis, Nuria Triana-Toribio, Peter Buse, 2013-07-19 Álex de la Iglesia initially championed by Pedro Almodóvar and at one time the enfant terrible of Spanish film still makes film critics nervous The director of some of the most important films of the Post Franco era Acción mutante El día de la bestia Muertos de risa receives here the first full length study of his work Breaking away from the pious tradition of acclaiming art house auteurs The cinema of Álex de la Iglesia tackles a new sort of beast the popular auteur who brings the provocation of the avant garde to popular genres such as horror and comedy This book brings together Anglo American film theory an exploration of the legal and economic history of Spanish audio visual culture a comprehensive knowledge of Spanish cultural forms and traditions esperpento sainete costumbrista with a detailed textual analysis of all of Álex de la Iglesia's seven feature films

The Cinema of Spain and Portugal Alberto Mira, Alberto Mira Nouselles, 2005 Providing an overview of Spanish and Portuguese cinema this title contains 24 essays each on a separate seminal film from the region profiling work from the likes of Pedro Almodóvar and João César Monteiro

Literary Adaptations in Spanish Cinema Sally Faulkner, 2004 In this survey of the history of Spanish cinema in the Spanish dictatorship and democratic periods the author argues that studies of adaptations must simultaneously address questions of text formal issues central to the study of film and literature and context crucial ideological concerns

A Companion to Spanish Cinema Bernard P. E. Bentley, 2008 This volume offers a detailed chronological account of the history of Spanish cinema

Dictatorships in the Hispanic World Patricia Swier, Julia Riordan-Goncalves, 2013-07-18 This book broaches a comparative and interdisciplinary approach in its exploration of the phenomenon of the dictatorship in the Hispanic World in the twentieth century Some of the themes explored through a transatlantic perspective include testimonial accounts of violence and resistance in prisons hunger and repression exile silence and intertextuality bildungsroman and the modification of gender roles and the role of trauma and memory within the genres of the novel autobiography testimonial literature the essay documentaries puppet theater poetry and visual art By looking at the similarities and differences of dictatorships represented in the diverse landscapes of Latin America and Spain the authors hope to provide a more panoramic view of the dictatorship that moves beyond historiographical accounts of oppression and engages actively in a more broad dialectics of resistance and a politics of memory

A Companion to Eastern European Cinemas Anikó Imre, 2012-08-07 A Companion to Eastern European Cinemas showcases twenty five essays written by established and emerging film scholars that trace the history of Eastern European cinemas and offer an up to date assessment of post socialist film cultures Showcases critical historical work and up to date assessments of post socialist film cultures Features consideration of lesser known areas of study such as Albanian and Baltic cinemas popular genre films cross national distribution and aesthetics animation and documentary Places the cinemas of the region in a European and global context Resists the Cold War classification of Eastern

European cinemas as other art cinemas by reconnecting them with the main circulation of film studies Includes discussion of such films as Taxidermia El Perro Negro 12 08 East of Bucharest Big T II and Breakfast on the Grass and explores the work of directors including Tamás Almásy Walerian Borowczyk Roman Polanski Jerzy Skolimowski Andrzej u3awski and Karel Vachek amongst many others

Cinema of Contradiction Sally Faulkner, 2006-02-22 A key decade in world cinema the 1960s was also a crucial era of change in Spain A Cinema of Contradiction the first book to focus in depth on this period in Spain analyses six films that reflect and interpret these transformations The coexistence of traditional and modern values and the timid acceptance of limited change by Franco's authoritarian regime are symptoms of the uneven modernity that characterises the period Contradiction the unavoidable effect of that unevenness is the conceptual terrain explored by these six filmmakers One of the most significant movements of Spanish film history the New Spanish Cinema art films explore contradictions in their subject matter yet are themselves the contradictory products of the state's protection and promotion of films that were ideologically opposed to it A Cinema of Contradiction argues for a new reading of the movement as a compromised yet nonetheless effective cinema of critique It also demonstrates the possible contestatory value of popular films of the era suggesting that they may similarly explore contradictions This book therefore reveals the overlaps between art and popular film in the period and argues that we should see these as complementary rather than opposing areas of cinematic activity in Spain

Contemporary Spanish cinema and genre Jay Beck, Vicente Rodríguez Ortega, 2021-06-15 This volume is the first English language collection exclusively dedicated to the study of genre in relation to Spanish cinema Providing a variety of critical perspectives the collection gives the reader a thorough account of the relationship between Spanish cinema and genre drawing on case studies of several of the most remarkable Spanish films in recent years The book analyses the significant changes in the aesthetics production and reception of Spanish film from 1990 onwards It brings together European and North American scholars to establish a critical dialogue on the topics under discussion while providing multiple perspectives on the concepts of national cinemas and genre theory In recent years film scholarship has attempted to negotiate the tension between the nationally specific and the internationally ubiquitous discussing how globalisation has influenced film making and surrounding cultural practice These broader social concerns have prompted scholars to emphasise a redefinition of national cinemas beyond strict national boundaries and to pay attention to the transnational character of any national site of film production and reception This collection provides a thorough investigation of contemporary Spanish cinema within a transnational framework by positing cinematic genres as the meeting spaces between a variety of diverse forces that necessarily operate within but also across territorial spaces Paying close attention to the specifics of the Spanish cinematic and social panorama the essays investigate the transnational economic cultural and aesthetic forces at play in shaping Spanish film genres today

The Americanization of Europe Alexander Stephan, 2006 Using Germany as a case study of the impact of American culture throughout a period characterized by a totalitarian system

two destructive wars ethnic cleansing and economic disaster this book explores the political and cultural parameters of Americanization and anti Americanism Youth Culture in Global Cinema Timothy Shary,Alexandra Seibel,2009-01-27 Coming of age is a pivotal experience for everyone So it is no surprise that filmmakers around the globe explore the experiences of growing up in their work From blockbuster U S movies such as the Harry Potter series to thought provoking foreign films such as Bend It Like Beckham and Whale Rider films about youth delve into young people s attitudes styles sexuality race families cultures class psychology and ideas These cinematic representations of youth also reflect perceptions about youth in their respective cultures as well as young people s worth to the larger society Indeed as the contributors to this volume make plain films about young people open a very revealing window on the attitudes and values of cultures across the globe Youth Culture in Global Cinema offers the first comprehensive investigation of how young people are portrayed in film around the world Eighteen established film scholars from eleven different national backgrounds discuss a wide range of films that illuminate the varied conditions in which youth live The essays are grouped thematically around the issues of youthful resistance and rebellion cultural and national identity including religion and politics and sexual maturation including gender distinctions and coming of age queer Some essays engage in close readings of films while others examine the advertising and reception of films or investigate psychological issues The volume concludes with filmographies of over 700 youth related titles arranged by nation and theme Spanish Cinema in the Global Context Samuel Amago,2013-09-11 Across a broad spectrum of media markets and national contexts self reflexivity continues to be a favored narrative mode with wide ranging functions In this book Amago argues that in addition to making visible industry and production concerns within the film text reflexive aesthetics have a cartographic function that serves to map the place of a film geographic and cultural within the global cinemascape and thus to bring into sharper relief images of the national Focusing on films in the contemporary Spanish context that in some way reflect back on themselves and the processes of their own production that purposefully blur the distinction between reality and fiction or that draw attention to the various modes of cinematic exhibition and reception Amago proposes ways in which these movies can be employed to understand Spanish national cinemas today as imbedded within a dynamic global system Postmodern Paletos Nathan E. Richardson,2002 When Spanish dictator Francisco Franco legalized internal immigration in 1947 he unwittingly inaugurated the greatest period of urban expansion and rural de population that Spain had known During the next two decades nearly four million citizens would move from Spain s traditional pueblos perdidos to overburdened urban metropolises Along with wooden trunks and baskets of chickens the immigrants or paletos as they were often called bore on their journey the weight of centuries of ideological meaning tied to the geographic regions they were traversing To abandon rural Spain had come to signify a rejection of manhood wealth Christian values and even Spanishness itself Paletos however innocent they may have appeared were not ideologically neutral In the coming decades the weight and complexity of the meanings behind immigration the country and the city would only grow as Spain advanced from economic under development social ignorance and political reaction to full fledged participation in global economics and politics activities that would reshape what it meant to be an immigrant and paeto both within and across the geographic border that had traditionally defined the Spanish nation
