Reflection An Experiment In Experimental Poetry And Prose:

Reflection Milt Lemke Jr., 2005-05-27 Through the years I've learned much from my Poetry Mentors who are many and a few I've mentioned in this book. They taught me by example that yes I too can be a Poet I too can be a member of this extraordinary extended family. A good dose of courage and risk taking is what's needed to achieve some sort of compromising end. Frankly I've learned little of this art from text books and class rooms. It's The Masters the elder Poets who are my text book and class room teaching me the refinement process of honing and polishing. Whatever course my poetry and prose might take My Tutors assure me it's a well worth the journey down every path and side path. Visiting every side show I visit and eventually discovering my style I consider my poems and prose as my children. Like their parent I want them to do their best. I've nurtured them loved them and cared for them. I've held on to them long enough. It's time they go out on their own. You may be disappointed if you fail but you are doomed if you don't try. Experiments in a Jazz Aesthetic Omi Osun Joni L. Jones, Lisa L. Moore, Sharon Bridgforth, 2010-06-23 In Austin, Texas, in 2002, a group of artists, activists, and academics led by performance studies scholar Omi Osun Joni L. Jones formed the Austin Project tAP, which meets annually in order to provide a space for women of color and their allies to build relationships based on trust, creativity, and commitment to social justice by working together to write and perform work in the jazz aesthetic. Inspired by this experience, this book is both an anthology of new writing and a sourcebook for those who would like to use creative writing and performance to energize their artistic, scholarly, and activist practices. Theoretical and historical essays by Omi Osun Joni L. Jones describe and define the African American tradition of art making known as the jazz aesthetic and explain how her own work in this tradition inspired her to start tAP. Key artists in the tradition from Bessie Award-winning choreographer Laurie Carlos and writer-performer Robbie McCauley to playwrights Daniel Alexander Jones and Carl Hancock Rux worked with the women of tAP as mentors and teachers. This book brings together never before published must-read materials by these nationally known artists and the transformative writing of tAP participants. A handbook for workshop leaders by Lambda Literary Award-winning writer Sharon Bridgforth, tAP's inaugural anchor artist, offers readers the tools for starting similar projects in their own communities. A full-length script of the 2005 tAP performance is an original documentation of the collaborative, breath-based body work of the jazz aesthetic in theatre and provides both a script for use by theatre artists and an invaluable documentation of a major transformative movement in contemporary performance.
