Reflections For Busy People:

Reflections of Perceptions Angela L. Gibson, 2007-05-30 Reflections of Perceptions is a collection of selected poems in English and Spanish from 1983 to 2007. The poems serve as snapshots of life events and moments in time covering such areas as love, passion, loss, death, grief, aging, and the interconnections between them all. What critics have said: great feeling throughout, has a crisp taste so that you can smell and feel, fall, awesome use of word imagery, line breaks, and word play, fantastic way of describing natural beauty through unique words and thick emotion. Love it raw and real. I love the meter, the light heartedness, and the positive feeling associated with such a hard thing. I can picture it all, crystal clear, what a talent. The words come alive, very honest and very sexy. An astute and insightful collection of poems that reflect on the subtle twists and turns of life, death, and fate.

Thoughts For The Day Charles Handy, 2011-04-30 Charles Handy may well be Britain's only world class management guru. Director Magazine but his thoughts about organisations and the role of the individual involve thoughts beyond pay and display. For five years Handy delivered a series of Thoughts for the Radio 4 Today Programme which addressed spiritual issues. These were collected in a volume called Waiting for the Mountain to Move originally published in 1991. The distilled essence of Handy's meditations and advice are published now in a new small Little Book of Calm format in two colours and with b/w illustrations. My concern is only to point to what I see as the meaning in things and to the ultimate purpose in life in order to encourage other people to find their meaning and their purpose.

Reflections Marcia Willett, 2019-05-02 Riveting, moving, and utterly feel good. Daily Mail. Cara Cosmo and Sam learn that for everything lost there is something to be gained. After her husband dies, Cara no longer wishes to live in their London home. On impulse, she sells it and goes to stay with her brother in Salcombe, Devon, while she plans her next move. There she begins to look back at her life and reflect on the choices that have led her to this moment. Cosmo has also escaped temporarily from his life in the city, finding the south west a relaxing and appealing fit, especially when he meets local girl Amy. But is he being entirely truthful about what he's left behind? Just out of uni, Sam has passed the Admiralty Interview Board and is set to follow in his naval father's footsteps. His future is secure but he feels cast adrift. With doubts and loosening family connections, worrying him, an impartial new friend could be just the thing he needs. Forging a bond across the generations, can he and Cara help each other find the way to a new happy chapter?

Praise for Marcia Willett: A beautifully woven tale of families and their secrets. Liz Fenwick, bestselling author of The Cornish House. Sweeping powers of description transport her readers to another time and place.
