Reflections On Black Psychology:

Reflections on Black Psych CB William David Smith, 1979-03 Research Directions of Black Psychologists Wade Boykin, Anderson Franklin, Frank J. Yates, 1980-01-15 Focusing on issues of particular importance to black people and confronting the rich variety and the complexity of the black experience the many contributors demonstrate the broad diversity of research interests and strategies among black psychologists from the traditional to the innovative Topics covered include studies of motivation cognitive development life span development and cultural difference versus deficit theories Many of the studies directly refute previous conceptions of the psychological functioning of blacks and offer alternative models and formulations This book is the first to present soundly designed and executed research that is emphatically linked to the perspectives and the psychological concerns of black Americans In designing these studies the authors aimed to ameliorate the pressing educational and social problems of blacks through a better understanding of their life conditions

Afrocentric Visions Janice D. Hamlet, 1998-09-14 In this timely volume editor Janice D Hamlet has chosen essays which illuminate various aspects of African American culture refracted through the lens of Afrocentric thought The book examines Afrocentric ideology and methodology Afrocentric approaches to the dynamics of communication the Afrocentric influence on the black aesthetic with an examination of language literature oral tradition movies and television and the future of Afrocentric visions Philosophical Reflections on Black Mirror Dan Shaw, Kingsley Marshall, James Rocha, 2021-12-16

Black Mirror is a cultural phenomenon It is a creative and sometimes shocking examination of modern society and the improbable consequences of technological progress The episodes typically set in an alternative present or the near future usually have a dark and satirical twist that provokes intense question both of the self and society at large These kind of philosophical provocations are at the very heart of the show Philosophical reflections on Black Mirror draws upon thinkers such as Friedrich Nietzsche Pierre Hadot and Michel Foucault to uncover how Black Mirror acts as philosophical television questioning human morality and humanity's vulnerability when faced with the inexorable advance of technology Human Behavior in the Social Environment from an African American Perspective Letha A See, 2013-04-03 In Human Behavior in the Social Environment from an African American Perspective leading black scholars come together to discuss complex human behavior problems faced by African Americans and to force the abandonment of conceptualization theories made without consideration of the Black experience Challenging you to engage in different thinking and develop new theories for addressing the needs of African Americans this book highlights the assets of black individuals families and communities and guides you through program interventions and public policies that strengthen and empower African Americans You will learn to enhance your clients coping strategies and resilience by factoring in their strengths rather than focusing on their weaknesses Human Behavior in the Social Environment from an African American Perspective contextualizes community behavior patterns gender roles and changing contemporary identities to challenge your assumptions about African American culture and communities and convince you to rethink your intervention strategies and methods To further help you fine tune your service delivery this book leads you through discussions on help seeking behaviors of young street males the association of sociocultural risk factors with suicides the use of emotive behavior therapy to help African Americans cope with the prospect of imminent death advocating for changes in institutions and systems which negatively impact the lives of the poor and the oppressed how social work has ignored one segment of the African American community young girls in urban settings psychological consequences of coming of age in a hostile environment Social workers community based groups policymakers and other helping professionals owe it to their clients to shrug off culturally incompetent services and care Using Human Behavior in the Social Environment from an African American Perspective as a guide you will learn to redress your programs and policies with a sensitivity to the factors and mechanisms that maximize the buoyancy of disadvantaged groups over various stages of their life development
