Seven Radical Elders David Janzen,2020-10-19 Many young idealists after a few failures burn out and return to status quo lives Not so with the seven radicals in this book who met in an interracial house church and intentional community on Chicago s West Side during the civil rights era Here you will make the acquaintance of a Church of the Brethren pastoral couple who tried to bring communal life to the black ghetto a fashionable socialite who trashed her curlers and joined the simple life an elite Stanford graduate who cast his lot with a bus full of black teens on an epic ride to Washington DC to hear MLK s I Have a Dream speech two ethnic Mennonite women who became community leaders and elders during a male socialism in fin de siecle France political symbolism in the paintings of the German war of liberation generational discourse in pre World War I France and cultural implications of national socialist religion Radical Writing Center Praxis Laura Greenfield,2019-04-15 In Radical Writing Center Praxis Laura Greenfield calls for a paradigm change in writing centers imagining a field whose very reason for being is to facilitate justice and peace The book calls on readers to more critically examine power and agency in writing centers and to imagine new possibilities for the field s theories and practices Large intersecting systems of oppression manifest in the everyday practices of institutions classrooms and writing centers Local practices in turn influence the surrounding world Radical Writing Center Praxis therefore challenges the writing center field to resist assumptions of political neutrality and instead to redefine itself in terms of more explicit ethical commitments In this paradigm it is clear that to engage in anti oppression work is not merely a special interest but rather a vital interest to all Introducing the concepts and vocabulary of radical politics Radical Writing Center Praxis examines the tensions between the field s professed beliefs and everyday practices and offers a process by which the writing center discipline as a whole might rebuild itself anew It will be invaluable to writing center directors tutors scholars and students as well as to administrators and compositionists Including a Symposium on 50 Years of the Union for Radical Political Economics Luca Fiorito,Scott Scheall,Carlos Eduardo Suprinyak,2019-05-07 Volume 37A of Research in the History of Economic Thought and Methodology features a symposium celebrating 50 years of the Union of Radical Political Economics and includes an archival contribution from the papers of Alvin Hansen reflecting on the influence and contributions of John R Commons Spatial Histories of Radical Geography Trevor J. Barnes,Eric Sheppard,2019-04-17 A wide ranging and knowledgeable guide to the history of radical geography in North America and beyond Includes contributions from an international group of scholars Focuses on the centrality of place spatial circulation and geographical scale in understanding the rise of radical geography and its spread A celebration of radical geography from its early beginnings in the 1950s through to the 1980s and after Draws on oral histories by leaders in the field and private and public archives Contains a wealth of never before published historical material Serves as both authoritative introduction and indispensable professional reference Radical Theology and Emerging Christianity Katharine Sarah Moody,2016-03-03 The theological turn in continental philosophy and the turn to Paul in political philosophy have occasioned a return to radical theology a tradition whose philosophical heritage can be traced to the death of God announced in the work of Nietzsche and Hegel John D Caputo s deconstructive theology and Slavoj Zizek s materialist theology are two radical theologies that explore what it might mean to pass through the death of God and to abandon this experience as specifically Christian Radical Theology and Emerging Christianity demonstrates how these theologies are transforming everyday religious practices through an examination of the work of Peter Rollins and Kester Brewin two figures at the radical margins of a contemporary expression of Western religiosity called emerging Christianity The author uses her analysis of all four figures to argue that deconstructive practices can enable religious communities to become part of a wider materialist collective in which the death of God continues to resonate Pushing the methodological boundaries of philosophy of religion by examining religious practices as the site of philosophical signification the book challenges scholars and practitioners alike to a new and more demanding dialogue between theory and practice
