A Silver Web Christopher Eden, 2008 Spain in America Richard L. Kagan, 2002 Setting aside the pastiche of bullfighters and flamenco dancers that has dominated the U.S. image of Spain for more than a century this innovative volume uncovers the roots of Spanish studies to explain why the diversity vitality and complexity of Spanish history and culture have been reduced in U.S. accounts to the equivalent of a tourist brochure Spurred by the complex colonial relations between the United States and Spain the new field of Spanish studies offered a way for the young country to reflect a positive image of itself as a democracy in contrast with perceived Spanish intolerance and closure Spain in America investigates the political and historical forces behind this duality surveying the work of the major nineteenth century U.S. Hispanists in the fields of history art history literature and music A distinguished panel of contributors offers fresh examinations of the role of U.S. writers especially Washington Irving and Henry Wadsworth Longfellow in crafting a wildly romantic vision of Spain They examine the views of such scholars as William H. Prescott and George Ticknor who contrasted the failure of Spanish history with U.S. exceptionalism Other essays explore how U.S. interests in Latin America consistently colored its vision of Spain and how musicology in the United States dominated by German migrants relegated Spanish music to little more than a footnote Also included are profiles of the philanthropist Archer Mitchell Huntington and the pioneering art historians Georgiana Goddard King and Arthur Kingsley Porter who spearheaded U S interest in the architecture and sculpture of medieval Spain Providing a much needed look at the development and history of Hispanism Spain in America opens the way toward confronting and modifying reductive views of Spain that are frozen in another time Emma Goldman Kathy E. Ferguson, 2011-04-16 Emma Goldman has often been read for her colorful life story her lively if troubled sex life and her wide ranging political activism Few have taken her seriously as a political thinker even though in her lifetime she was a vigorous public intellectual within a global network of progressive politics Engaging Goldman as a political thinker allows us to rethink the common dualism between theory and practice scrutinize stereotypes of anarchism by placing Goldman within a fuller historical context recognize the remarkable contributions of anarchism in creating public life and open up contemporary politics to the possibilities of transformative feminism Cruelty and Utopia Jean-François

Lejeune, Centre international pour la ville, l'architecture et le paysage, 2005-02-03 This landmark collection of illustrated essays explores the vastly underappreciated history of America's other cities the great metropolises found south of our borders in Central and South America Buenos Aires So Paulo Mexico City Caracas Havana Santiago Rio Tijuana and Quito are just some of the subjects of this diverse collection How have desires to create modern societies shaped these cities leading to both architectural masterworks by the likes of Luis Barragán Juan O'Gorman Licio Costa Roberto Burle Marx Carlos Ral Villanueva and Lina Bo Bardi and the most shocking favelas How have they grappled with concepts of national identity their colonial history and the continued demands of a globalized economy Lavishly illustrated Cruelty and Utopia features the work of such leading scholars as Carlos Fuentes Edward Burian Lauro Cavalcanti Fernando Oyarzún Roberto Segre and Eduardo Subirats along with artwork ranging from colonial paintings to stills from Chantal Akerman's film From the Other Side Also included is a revised translation of Spanish King Philip II's influential planning treatise of 1573 the Laws of the Indies which did so much to define the form of the Latin American city Reflections: 50 Years of Medieval

Archaeology, 1957-2007: No. 30 Roberta Gilchrist, Andrew Reynolds, 2018-12-13 This volume celebrates the 50th anniversary of the Society for Medieval Archaeology established in 1957 presenting reflections on the history development and future prospects of the discipline The papers are drawn from a series of conferences and workshops that took place in 2007-08 in addition to a number of contributions that were commissioned especially for the volume They range from personal commentaries on the history of the Society and the growth of the subject see papers by David Wilson and Rosemary Cramp to historiographical regional and thematic overviews of major trends in the evolution and current practice of medieval archaeology All the publications are fully refereed with the aim of publishing at the highest academic level reports on sites of national and international importance and of encouraging the widest debate The series objectives are to cover the broadest
