Reflective Professional In Education

Donald A. Schon

Reflective Professional In Education:

Reflective Teaching Andrew Pollard, Janet Collins, 2005-03-04 Reflective Teaching is the definitive textbook for reflective classroom professionalism. It offers support for trainee teachers, mentors, newly qualified teachers, and for continuous professional development. This second edition has been revised and updated to enhance classroom use. The Reflective Professional in Education Carmel Jennings, 1996 The Reflective Professional in Education provides insights and understandings into the building of more effective relationships with clients. It is based on experience derived from specialist work with children and families in a variety of settings within the broad contexts of education and related fields. The Reflective Practitioner in Professional Education L. Lawrence-Wilkes, L. Ashmore, 2014-04-01 How important is it to be a reflective practitioner in education today? This book examines the reflective practitioner role and the scope of reflective activities in professional practice, revealing that critical thinking is rooted in a philosophical debate about notions of truth linked to differing learning approaches. Educating the Reflective Practitioner Donald A. Schon, 1987-02-10 Building on the concepts of professional competence that he introduced in his classic The Reflective Practitioner, Schon offers an approach for educating professionals in all areas that will prepare them to handle the complex and unpredictable problems of actual practice with confidence, skill, and care. Reflective Practice for Educators Karen F. Osterman, Robert B. Kottkamp, 2004-04-08 In this age of mandated reforms, reflective practice is a truly effective, empowering way to make meaningful, positive changes. Learning and Teaching in Higher Education Greg Light, Susanna Calkins, Roy Cox, 2009-06-04 Around the world, higher education services are challenged by increased numbers and diversity of students, tougher demands for professional accountability, increasing calls for educational relevance, and thinning resources. Learning and Teaching in Higher Education The Reflective Professional addresses key issues in the practice and theory of teaching and learning in the sector. The authors draw upon theory, practice, and current research to provide a new way of thinking about the many aspects of learning and teaching in higher education, enabling the reader to critically reflect upon their teaching. Beyond Reflective Practice Helen Bradbury, 2010 With contributions from some of the leading experts in the field of reflective practice, including David Boud, this book provides a thought-provoking look at the way forward in professional development and lifelong learning. Reflective professional development for teachers Anthony Khaemba, 2015-11-04 Research Paper, postgraduate, from the year 2015 in the subject Pedagogy. The Teacher Educational Leadership language: English. Abstract: Education is changing worldwide. The literature suggests that teachers need reflective professional development (PD) to effectively teach to the new standards and to demonstrate change to their current instructional practices. This mixed-method, multiple case study investigated the impact of a reflective professional development PD in early schoolteachers' instructional practices. Teachers were asked to maintain Reflective Portfolios for a period of one month in which they were supposed to discuss one incident daily under the light of Gibbs' reflective cycle.

REPORT rubric based on Danielson's framework of teaching was used to assess the portfolios. The teachers were also analyzed via semi structured interviews using qualitative coding scheme. Case descriptions were written and all the collected data was used to explain the levels of reflection in teachers' instructional practices.

Reflective Teaching in Early Education Jennifer Colwell, Helen Beaumont, Helen Bradford, Julie Canavan, Emma Cook, Denise Kingston, Holly Linklater, Sue Lynch, Catriona McDonald, Sheila Nutkins, Sarah Ottewell, Chris Randall, Tim Waller, 2015-02-26

Reflective Teaching in Early Education is the definitive textbook for reflective professionals in early education drawing on the experience of the author team and the latest research including the Teaching and Learning Research Programme (TLRP) findings. It offers extensive support for both undergraduate and postgraduate students and career long professionalism for early years practitioners working in pre schools, child care settings and the first years of primary schools. Written by a collaborative author team of leading early years educationalists and practitioners led by Jennifer Colwell, Reflective Teaching in Early Education offers two levels of support: comprehensive practical guidance for practitioner success with a focus on key issues such as building relationships, communication, behaviour, inclusion, curriculum planning and learning and teaching strategies; and evidence informed principles and concepts to aid understanding of the theories informing practice, offering ways to develop deeper understanding of early years practice in early childhood education and care. Reflective activities, case studies, diagrams and figures, end of chapter summaries and research briefings are provided throughout. This book, along with the companion reader and associated website, draw upon the work of Andrew Pollard, former Director of the TLRP, and the work of many years of accumulated understanding of generations of early years practitioners, primary school teachers and educationalists. The team includes Early Years Educationalists Jennifer Colwell (University of Brighton, UK), Helen Beaumont (Early Years Advisor, Brighton, UK), Helen Bradford and Holly Linklater (University of Cambridge, UK), Julie Canavan, Denise Kingston and Sue Lynch (University of Brighton, UK), Catriona McDonald and Sheila Nutkins (University of Aberdeen, UK), Tim Waller (Anglia Ruskin University, UK), Early Years Practitioners Emma Cook, Sarah Ottewell and Chris Randall (Oneworld Nursery, Brighton, UK), with staff from One World Nursery and Phoenix Nursery (Brighton, UK). Readings for Reflective Teaching in Early Education directly compliment and extend the chapters of this book. It has been designed to provide convenient access to key texts, working as a compact and portable library. The associated website www.reflectiveteaching.co.uk offers supplementary resources including reflective activities, research briefings and advice on further readings. It also features a glossary of educational terms, links to useful websites and showcases examples of excellent research and practice. This book forms part of the Reflective Teaching series, edited by Andrew Pollard and Amy Pollard, offering support for reflective practice in early primary, secondary, further vocational, university and adult sectors of education.

Osterman,Robert Kottkamp,1993-01-17 This book provides specific strategies for facilitating reflective practice and is the first to provide a practical guide to professional development and school reform from this standpoint The authors show how reflective practice provides powerful strategies to help professionals learn from their experiences improve themselves and thus improve schools and education Applications in every area of professional development and school reform are presented Reflective Teaching Andrew Pollard,Julie Anderson,2008-07-08 Reflective Teaching is the definitive textbook for reflective classroom professionalism It offers exceptional support for trainee teachers mentors newly qualified teachers and for those engaged in continuing professional development and performance review Andrew Pollard s Reflective Teaching has been established for over twenty years Each edition builds on that foundation and offers something new This edition is enhanced by A new look a larger format fresh text design children s photographs and additional illustrations making the book more attractive and user friendly than ever before New content to reflect contemporary innovations such as Personalized Learning Assessment for Learning Pupil Consultation and Every Child Matters Updates throughout in line with new teaching Standards and Competences in each part of the UK Advanced material to respond to the introduction of Master s Level study within many PGCE courses the growth in evidence informed professional practice and more coherent continuing professional development Research Briefings from the Teaching and Learning Research Programme TLRP the UK s largest ever coordinated initiative on educational research Reflective Teaching is the most comprehensive evidence informed handbook on teaching and remains as ever both practical and accessible This book and its associated resources have extremely serious intentions and contemporary relevance We wish to support the continuing development of high quality professionals who can enhance pupil attainment and we also want to support new teachers in understanding the contexts in which they work and the significance of what they do Andrew Pollard Reflective Teaching is part of a set of integrated and complementary resources Reflective Teaching the core handbook for school based professional development Conceptualising Reflection In Teacher Development James Calderhead,Peter Gates,2003-09-02 Reflection has become widely recognised as a crucial element in the professional growth of teachers Terms such as reflective teaching enquiry orientated teacher education teachers as researchers and reflective practitioner have become quite prolific in discussions of classroom practice and professional development It is frequently presumed that reflection is an intrinsically good and desirable aspect of teaching and teacher education and that teachers in becoming more reflective will in some sense be better teachers though such claims have been rarely subject to detailed scrutiny Each of the chapters in this book is concerned with exploring the concept of reflection and considering its contributions to teacher education The papers range across different stages of professional development some focusing in particular on pre service education others on in service or professional development generally Some of the papers are concerned with particular strategies for promoting reflection and how they might operate in a teacher education context others dwell more upon a theoretical appreciation of how reflection facilitates in the processes of professional development and how it relates to issues of quality in teacher education

Learning & Teaching in Higher Education Dr Greg Light, Dr Roy Cox, 2001-04-10 This book addresses the practice of learning and teaching within higher education Higher education is currently a sector challenged worldwide by increased numbers and diversity of students tougher demands for professional accountability increasing calls for educational relevance thinning resources and the exacting demands of a global education market This book brings together key issues of theory and practice to develop an overall professional language of teaching situated within communities of academic practice This language provides teachers with a conceptual vocabulary and grammar for understanding and improving practice enables them to critically reflect upon their teaching in a range of key genres

Reflective Teacher Education Linda Valli, 1992-09-01 An increasing number of educators are arguing for conceptually sound reflective or inquiry oriented teacher education programs The argument is based on the fact that reflective teaching is possible and the belief that teachers should develop habits of consciously informed action Those who promote reflective teaching argue for teacher empowerment within a self renewing profession Reflective Teacher Education offers case studies from seven universities that have organized teacher education programs around the concept of reflection The cases represent public and private institutions and alternative and traditional models of teacher preparation The studies represent efforts to transform the entire professional education component rather than individual courses or isolated strategies The volume also considers reflection as a conceptual orientation commenting on its power to inform and improve teacher education and assessing the implementation of reflection in these specific programs The six critiques raise intriguing questions about the possibility and desirability of reflective reform efforts by viewing the cases from varying perspectives development cognitive feminist social reconstructionist and post modern
