An Islamic Reformation? Michaelle Browers, Charles Kurzman, 2004-01-01 This book brings together scholars with expertise in modern Islamic thought and practice to evaluate the claim that we are witnessing something tantamount to an Islamic Reformation by assessing the character and impact of various reformist trends in the Middle East and North Africa Each chapter also addresses the question of the appropriateness and usefulness of comparisons between Christian and Islamic or Western and Eastern reformations

Toward an Islamic Reformation Abdullahi Ahmed An Na'im, 2019-01-31 Toward an Islamic Reformation is an ambitious attempt to modernize Islamic law calling for reform of the historical formulations of Islamic law commonly known as Shari'a that is perceived by many Muslims to be part of the Islamic faith As a Muslim Abdullahi Ahmed An Na'im is sensitive to and appreciative of the delicate relationship between Islam as a religion and Islamic law Nevertheless he considers that the questions raised here must be resolved if the public law of Islam is to be implemented today An Na'im draws upon the teachings and writings of Sudanese reformer Mahmoud Mohamed Taha to provide what some have called the intellectual foundations for a total reinterpretation of the nature and meaning of Islamic public law

American Foreign Policy and Islamic Renewal Abdeslam Maghraoui, 2006

Islamic Reform in South Asia Filippo Osella, Caroline Osella, 2013-05-16 The articles in this volume build up ethnographic analysis complementary to the historiography of South Asian Islam which has explored the emergence of reformism in the context of specific political and religious circumstances of nineteenth century British India Taking up diverse popular and scholarly debates as well as everyday religious practices this volume also breaks away from the dominant trend of mainstream ethnographic work which celebrates sufi inspired forms of Islam as tolerant plural authentic and so on pitted against a reformist Islam Urging a more nuanced examination of all forms of reformism and their reception in practice the contributions here powerfully demonstrate the historical and geographical specificities of reform projects In doing so they challenge prevailing perspectives in which substantially different traditions of reform are lumped together into one reified category often carelessly shorthanded as wah habism and branded as extremist if not altogether demonised as terrorist The Muslim World ,1920 Unveiling Modernity in Twentieth-Century West African Islamic Reforms

Ousman Kobo,2012-08-27 In this book Ousman Kobo analyzes the origins of Wahhabi inclined reform movements in two West African countries Commonly associated with recent Middle Eastern influences reform movements in Ghana and Burkina Faso actually began during the twilight of European colonial rule in the 1950s and developed from local doctrinal contests over Islamic orthodoxy These early movements in turn gradually evolved in ways sympathetic to Wahhabi ideas Kobo also illustrates the modernism of this style of Islamic reform The decisive factor for most of the movements was the alliance of secularly educated Muslim elites with Islamic scholars to promote a self consciously modern religiosity rooted in the Prophet Muhammad s traditions This book therefore provides a fresh understanding of the indigenous origins of Wahhabism

Reformation and Development in the Muslim World Hossein Askari,Hossein Mohammadkhan,Liza Mydin,2017-07-06 This book explores how the recent development of Muslim countries as a group has fallen far short of non Muslim countries which some have concluded may be a result of Islamic teachings The authors examine Muslim countries over time viewing their progression on the Islamicity scale They assess why some countries have done better than others and to derive useful policy recommendations to improve political social human governance and economic performance Reform and Its Perils in
