Regaining Compassion For Humanity And Nature:

Regaining Compassion for Humanity and Nature Charles Birch, 1993 Birch convincingly argues that science and religion must come together if we are to heal and renew our planet

Earth Revealing; Earth Healing Denis Edwards, 2015-05-15 The damage human beings are doing to the atmosphere the seas the rivers the land and the life forms of the planet is extreme and deadly It constitutes a crisis that demands all of humanity's wisdom ingenuity and commitment The whole human community needs to be involved in the response to this crisis young and old women and men farmers politicians gardeners teachers planners scientists engineers artists builders cooks and theologians In Earth Revealing Earth Healing the authors attempt to make clear the way in which Christian theology opens out into a theology of Earth revealing and challenges us towards a practice of Earth healing Earth Revealing Earth Healing offers a rethinking of theology as a significant part of the rethinking that the human community must do in its stance toward creation Aware that some theological attitudes have contributed to exploitative attitudes and to disregard for the good of the planet the contributors are also convinced that the biblical and theological tradition has resources that can be retrieved and developed as an ecological theology Such a theology can contribute to the healing of our planet The chapters of Earth Revealing Earth Healing stretch across a number of theological sub disciplines and related areas Among the perspectives from the Christian theological tradition there are reflections on the theology of the Trinity Christology Christian anthropology the theology of the Holy Spirit and contemporary feminist theology There are also more general philosophical and cultural perspectives including discussions of place and of landscape traditions Finally there are practical perspectives including discussions of globalization the challenge of suffering and bioethics Essays and contributors are The Landscape Tradition A Broader Vision for Ecotheology by Stephen Downs Globalization and Ecology by Christine Burke IBVM For Your Immortal Spirit Is in All Things The Holy Spirit in Creation by Denis Edwards Enfleshing the Human An Earth Revealing Earth Healing Christology by Duncan Reid God's Shattering Otherness The Trinity and Earth's Healing by Patricia Fox RSM Embracing Unloveliness Exploring Theology from the Dung heap by Lorna Hallahan Up Close and Personal In the End Matter Matters by Anthony Lowes The Relationship Quilt Feminism and the Healing of Nature by Lucy Larkin A Timely Reminder Humanity and Ecology in the Light of Christian Hope by Gregory Brett CM Ecotheology as a Plea for Place by Phillip Tolliday Situating Humanity Theological Anthropology in the Context of the Ecological Crisis by James McEvoy and Bioethics Ecology and Theology by Andrew Dutney Denis Edwards is a senior lecturer in systematic theology at Catholic Theological College and in the ecumenical consortium at the Adelaide College of Divinity Flinders University He has written other books on theology and is a priest of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Adelaide

Life and Work Charles Birch, 2003 To get higher profits we need to work harder and longer Right Wrong In this original book Charles Birch and David Paul look at the working lives of employees managers and executives and propose a new agenda for achieving a work life balance If companies get their relationships with employees and customers right profits will follow as a matter of course But too many organisations focus only on the short term bottom line and are insensitive to the emotional and spiritual needs and dignity of employees back cover

Making Things Greener Mardie Townsend, 2018-10-26 First published in 1998 this volume looks at the potential and motivation for companies and industries to go green Mardie Townsend examines issues including human behaviour towards the environment structuration theory why companies go green and factors helping and hindering the greening of industry It emerged as part of an international monograph publishing series covering new research into the green issues such as government corporate and public responses to environmental hazards the economics of green policies and the effectiveness of environmental protection programmes

Science and the Indian Tradition David L. Gosling, 2007-09-12 This new text is a detailed study of an important process in modern Indian history During the late nineteenth and early twentieth century India experienced an intellectual renaissance which owed as much to the influx of new ideas from the West as to traditional religious and cultural insights Gosling examines the effects of the introduction of Western science into India and the relationship between Indian traditions of thought and secular Western scientific doctrine He charts the early development of science in India its role in the secularization of Indian society and the subsequent reassertion adaptation and rejection of traditional modes of thought The beliefs of key Indian scientists including Jagadish Chandra Bose P C Roy and S N Bose are explored and the book goes on to reflect upon how individual scientists could still accept particular religious beliefs such as reincarnation cosmology miracles and prayer Science and the Indian Tradition gives an in depth assessment of results of the introduction of Western science into India and will be of interest to scholars of Indian history and those interested in the interaction between Western and Indian traditions of intellectual thought

The Unknown God Thomas G. Grenham, 2005 This book explores the idea of religious and theological interculturalism from a Christian perspective as an approach to evangelisation It explores aspects of culture and pluralism as these have been interpreted in post Vatican II approaches to mission and evaluates interculturalism from a number of perspectives including language symbol and metaphor It draws insight from two New Testament encounters of Jesus with women in Samaria John and in Tyre Matthew and Mark and goes on to explore some historical sources of interculturalism in the missionary endeavours of the Jesuit Matteo Ricci A particular case study is made of the contemporary experience of an African people the Turkana of Kenya

Rewriting God Elaine Lindsay, 2021-11-22 Women are rarely if ever mentioned in commentaries upon Australian Christianity and spirituality Only exceptional women are recognized as authorities on religious matters Why is this so Does it matter Don't people from the same religious tradition share similar experiences of the divine regardless of their gender Rewriting God asks whether women have been writing about the divine and whether their insights are different from those contained in mainstream accounts of Australian Christianity and spirituality An analysis of the writings of popular theologians and religious commentators over the last twenty years suggests that the most popular form of spirituality among Australian theologians is Desert Spirituality An analysis of women s autobiographical writings however suggests that the desert is irrelevant to many women s spiritual experiences This book through a close investigation of the fictions of Thea Astley Elizabeth Jolley and Barbara Hanrahan attempts to posit alternative forms of women s spirituality and to signal ways in which this spirituality is already being expressed From the evidence gathered here it becomes obvious that traditional expressions of Australian Christianity and spirituality are gender specific and that they have functioned to deny women s religious experiences and to silence their claims to equality in the sight and service of the divine It becomes obvious too that women have been developing their own forms of religious expression and that these may be expected to supplant gradually withering images of Desert Spirituality Whether this new imagery will strengthen Australian Christianity or whether it merely marks a decline in the authority of Christianity remains a moot point

Science and Soul Charles Birch, 2008 A memoir of the eminent evolutionary biologist including his reflections on twenty scientists who contributed to building his perceptions and philosophy of life Back cover Institutional Issues Mal Leicester, Sohan Modgil, 2005-08-02 Volume II considers values and culture at the institutional level What constitutes a good whole school approach in this arena The book discusses key issues and reports on whole school initiatives around the world Several contributions focus on the vital issue of teacher education

Ethical Competencies for Public Leadership David Bromell, 2019-10-31 This book identifies six ethical competencies for public leadership in contexts of pluralism While diversity in proximity generates conflict where people want and value different things the right kind of leadership and the right kind of politics can minimise domination humiliation cruelty and violence Written by a public policy advisor for fellow practitioners in politics and public life this book applies political theory and social ethics to identify a set of competencies being civil diplomatic respectful impartial fair and prudent to keep ethics at the centre of a pluralist democratic politics The six competencies are described in behavioural terms as personal resolutions They offer valuable tools for mentoring and professional development This book will appeal to politicians and those who advise them and anyone who engages in or aspires to public leadership whether in the public sector the private sector the community and voluntary sector or academia Reflection, Science and the Virtues Tony Gibbons, 2009-01-01 The word reflect appears in curriculum documents in texts in proposals and in plans No proposal appears complete without the word To reflect is evidently a good thing but what does it mean It is not just being reasonable Without a grasp of what it means to reflect how is it possible to implement the proposals and plans This book tackles the problem of what it is to reflect In doing so it examines the importance of reflection for a flourishing human being and its place in two major areas of human thought and education science and ethics Science is essentially a reflective activity and the teaching and development of science must acknowledge this The acquisition and practice of the virtues is also essentially a reflective activity as is evident in both the Aristotelian and the Confucian traditions To be prudent for instance is to be reflective The teaching of science and the learning of the virtues depend upon the development of the capacity to reflect Reflection appears to be an activity that is distinctive of human beings This book will be of interest to teachers and those responsible for the administration and development of education whether it be primary secondary or tertiary It also has something to say to anyone who is responsible for planning for the future And as we all do that it has something to say to all of us Tony Gibbons is an adjunct Senior Lecturer at the University of South Australia After teaching science and mathematics in UK secondary schools he trained teachers at Colleges in the UK before moving to South Australia where he taught Philosophy Having qualified in law he appeared as a barrister in refugee cases both in Australia and overseas during the 1990s before returning to Philosophy in particular virtue ethics

Action Research in Practice Bill Atweh, Stephen Kemmis, Patricia Weeks, 2002-09-11 This book presents a collection of stories from action research projects in schools and a university This collection is more than simply an illustration of the scope of action research in education it shows how projects that differ on a variety of dimensions can raise similar themes problems and issues The book begins with theme chapters discussing action research social justice and partnerships in research The case study chapters cover topics such as school environment how to make a school a healthier place to be parents how to involve them more in decision making students as action researchers a state system a collaborative effort between university staff and a state education department gender how to promote gender equity in schools improving assessment in the social sciences staff development planning doing a PhD through action research writing up action research projects

Judgment Day Paul Collins, 2014-07-30 Passion for Peace Stuart Rees, 2003 Passion for Peace considers the use of non violence and attaining human rights for all It also raises questions about current issues including peace in the Middle East US unilateralism the war on terrorism powerlessness associated with poverty racism and justice for asylum seekers

BOOK JACKET Faith and Freedom David Neville, Philip Matthews, 2003 Australian Christians like Christians in many societies live in a pluralistic culture This makes the issues of faith freedom and their interrelationship all the more critical In a pluralist context Christian faith and freedom must be expressed and embodied in a coherent rather than discordant way The authors of these reflections on key ethical concerns represent the Anabaptist Anglican Baptist Lutheran Methodist Presbyterian Roman Catholic and Uniting Church traditions yet there is a harmony within this plurality of theological and ecclesiological voices Contributors include John Howard Yoder Charles Birch Stanley Hauerwas and Thorwald Lorenzen

Earth Story in Genesis Norman C. Habel, Shirley Wurst, 2000-08-01 A series of articles by scholars from around the world reading the story of Earth in Genesis in the light of the ecojustice principles enunciated in Volume One Readings from the Perspective of Earth These readings uncover how Earth may be valued or de valued given a voice or denied a voice dominated or served depending on the orientation of the text In Genesis 1 for example the intrinsic worth of Earth is highlighted in the revealing of Earth's presence but negated when humans are given the right to subdue it In Genesis 9 the text begins with the Earth community terrified by and alienated from humans but ends with all the Earth Community and Earth itself bound together equally in a covenant

Chance and Commitment Basil S. Hetzel, 2005 The work of Dr Basil Hetzel and his team of researchers has prevented and will continue to prevent millions of people worldwide from being born intellectually disabled In this memoir Hetzel recalls his discovery that a single dose of iodized oil added to the diet of pregnant women could eradicate the serious birth defects that had plagued many developing countries

Christian Ethics of Creation Michael Rosenberger, 2022-11-04 Wenn die gewaltigen kologischen Herausforderungen der Gegenwart bew ltigt werden sollen braucht es klare ethische Orientierungen und tiefe Quellen innerer Kraft Der Autor reflektiert die Potenziale der christlichen Tradition f r eine Ethik und Spiritualit t der Sch pfung Daf r greift er auf biblische und liturgische Impulse ebenso zur ck wie auf die Enzyklika Laudato si von Papst Franziskus und setzt sie mit naturwissenschaftlichen soziologischen und konomischen berlegungen in Beziehung Auf dieser Grundlage entwickelt es eine Handlungs und Hoffnungsperspektive die durch Schwierigkeiten und Entt uschungen hindurch tragf hig ist Tourism

Ethics David A. Fennell, 2006 Arguing for a closer relationship between history and tourism studies this book explores the relationships between tourism representations environments and identities in settings ranging from the Roman Empire to the twentieth century and from Frinton to the Far East Science Communication in Theory and Practice S.M.

Stocklmayer, M.M. Gore, C.R. Bryant, 2012-12-06 Hereafter you will find a first a comprehensive textbook on the communication of science in theory and practice Is there a need for such a textbook Obviously yes Whether you are a scientist a science journalist a science teacher a science museum specialist a scientific website designer a science historian a science entertainer a member of a scientific society or club a science tinkerer there is always a chance that you will be enthusiastic about the job of communicating science but uncertain about whether you do it well This book exposes you to the practices of others by reviewing science communication case studies or by inviting you to plunge into the underlying rationale of theoretical approaches to science communication These are different opportunities for comparing your experience with the practices or reflections of others The conversation can even be established and furthered with the authors of some of these case studies or of the theories presented in this book by using their website and possibly their email addresses This book like a composite gathers contributions from experts from most of the above mentioned fields A lot of practices are discussed and they are among the very best practices according to common professional wisdom in the field Those practices are also reflected upon in an attempt to be somewhat theoretical
