Diversification of Agriculture in Eastern India Madhusudan Ghosh, Debasish Sarkar, Bidhan Chandra Roy, 2014-09-04 Divided into three parts Rationale and Extent of Agricultural Diversification Nature and Problems of Agricultural Diversification and Food and Livelihood Security through Agricultural Diversification this edited book examines various aspects of agricultural diversification in Eastern India. In recent years Indian agriculture has been diversifying from cereals to high value crops and livestock products in accordance with the changing consumption patterns. As such it faces the challenges of a new economic regime besides the usual problems of rising population, unemployment and poverty, declining investments in the agriculture sector and degradation of natural resources. These issues are discussed in the book in light of the significant transformation in the economic structure of the Indian economy from agriculture to non agriculture industry and services and changing cropping pattern from cereals to non cereals in accordance with the changing consumption pattern. The book would be of interest to teachers researchers policymakers students and general readers having an interest in agricultural development in India.

The ^AMaking of Miracles in Indian States M. Govinda Rao, 2015-04-01 The Making of Miracles in Indian States studies three Indian states at very different levels of development all of which grew in excess of 8% per year for a decade in the 21st century Andhra Pradesh Bihar and Gujarat Some key common threads tie their experiences visionary leadership improved governance accelerated development expenditures and reforms toward development of markets Indian Books in Print ,2003 Enhancing Agricultural Productivity and Farmer Incomes in Bihar

Bhaumik, Sankar Kumar,2022-11-28 Enhancing Agricultural Productivity and Farmer Incomes in Bihar discusses the performance of Bihar s agriculture sector in recent times and the multifarious challenges it is facing The book explores future possibilities from the perspectives of raising agricultural productivity and farmer incomes and attaining inclusive growth Given that doubling farmers incomes in India is the declared agenda of the central and state governments the insights to be gained from this book would be invaluable for researchers and policymakers With more than 90 per cent of the operational holdings in Bihar falling under the marginal category and the average size of a holding being a meagre 0.39 hectares the viability of the small farming regime in the state is a serious issue This book will help readers to understand the developmental challenges not only in Bihar but also in other agriculturally backward regions that are largely dominated by small farmers It will also help researchers to locate areas in which more research needs to be undertaken if accelerated growth of the agriculture sector and sustainable improvement of farmers incomes are to be ensured
