Security in the information age United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee,2002 Security in the Information Age Robert F. Bennett,2001-01-01 Over the years the Joint Economic Committee of the U S Congress has investigated a wide range of threats to the U S and its economy Following its June 2001 hearing entitled Wired World Cyber Security and the U S Economy it became clear that we needed to better understand an increasingly complicated set of diffuse security threats Senator Robert F Bennett volunteered to identify individuals whose perspectives about critical infrastructure protection would be of value to the Congress and compile a study This compendium represents a range of perspectives on infrastructure protection from definitions and strategies to business challenges and policy actions Security in the Information Age United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee,2002 107-2 Hearing: Cyberterrorism: Is The Nation's Critical Infrastructure Adequately Protected?, July 24, 2002, *,2003 National Security in the Information Age Emily O. Goldman,Silvio Pons,Federico Romero,2004 This book examines how technology has affected national security focusing on issues such as definitions of peace and war the conduct of and military organization for war and the growing role of the private sector in providing security This is a Critical infrastructure protection significant challenges need to be addressed , The United States General Accounting Office GAO presents a report entitled Critical Infrastructure Protection Significant Challenges in Developing National Capabilities published in April 2001 The report is for the Subcommittee on Technology Terrorism and Government Information of the Committee on the Judiciary for the U S Senate The report discusses the progress of the National Infrastructure Protection Center NIPC in developing national capabilities for analyzing cyber threat and vulnerability data and enhancing capabilities for responding to cyber attacks

Cyberterrorism United States. Congress. House. Committee on Government Reform. Subcommittee on Government Efficiency, Financial Management, and Intergovernmental Relations,2003 Rethinking Leadership and "whole of Government" National Security Reform Joseph R. Cerami,Jeffrey A. Engel,Army War College (U.S.). Strategic Studies Institute,2010 On June 24 2009 The Bush School of Government and Public Service and The Scowcroft Institute of International Affairs at Texas A M University and the U S Army War College Strategic Studies Institute SSI conducted a conference on Leadership and Government Reform in Washington DC Two panels discussed Leader Development in Schools of Public Affairs and Leadership National Security and Whole of Government Reforms The panelists and authors reflected on the nature of external internal and transnational threats to U S security and the need for changes in developing people organizations and institutions to more effectively efficiently and ethically improve the U S Government s capacity to address the need for change The authors in this book share the belief of many in the international and public affairs community that the world is changing in fundamental ways and our traditional models for understanding America s role do not appear to be working very well A new era of reform is needed for this new age In response panelists in their detailed remarks and subsequent papers offer suggestions to reform the United States national security system to meet 21st century threats while simultaneously developing the leaders who can implement a serious and broad scale reform agenda Security In The Information Age New Challenges, New Strategies, Etc., May 2002 ,2002 Handbook of Defence Politics Isaiah "Ike" Wilson III,James J.F. Forrest,2011-03-28 Issues of defence politics and policy have long been at the forefront of political agendas and defining of international affairs However the dramatic changes to the global system that have taken place since the end of the Cold War and particularly since the terror attacks on the USA on 11 September 2001 have amplified the world s attention toward political and policy issues of national regional and global security The focus of this volume is on examining the fundamental causes of and defence policy responses to this new post 9 11 security environment Edited by Isaiah Ike Wilson III and James J F Forest of the US Military Academy West Point USA this volume is international in scope with pieces written by experts in the field offering a collection of up to date and balanced insights on key contemporary issues of concern to defence policymakers The book will be an invaluable reference tool for academics and students researchers in international relations policymakers media professionals and government officials Communications Satellites Joseph N.
