Seeking Asylum Intrigue:

Seeking Asylum Mallory Kane, 2005 SAFE HAVEN As one of the Bureau's top criminal profilers it was Eric Baldwin's job to get inside killers' heads. Only this time the crazed shooter who'd taken a beautiful doctor hostage was Eric's brother, the identical twin he'd long thought dead. Being abducted by her own patient was terrifying enough. Now the man who'd just rescued her needed Dr Rachel Harper's help. Assuming his brother's identity to infiltrate a conspiracy inside a mental hospital, Eric Baldwin was about to embark on the most dangerous mission of his life. And as danger fanned the flames of irresistible desire much.

Homicide in the Biblical World Pamela Barmash, 2005 Homicide in the Biblical World analyses the treatment of homicide in the Hebrew Bible and demonstrates that it is directly linked to the unique social structure and religion of ancient Israel. Close parallels between biblical law and ancient Near Eastern law are evident in the laws of the ox that gored and the pregnant woman who is assaulted, but when the total picture of the process by which homicide was adjudicated comes into view, what is most noticeable is how little of it is similar to ancient Near Eastern law. This book reconstructs biblical law from both legal texts and narrative texts and analyses both the law collections and documents from actual legal cases from the ancient Near East.

Systemic and Narrative Work with Unaccompanied Asylum-Seeking Children Ana Draper, Elisa Marcellino, Samantha Thomson, 2024-06-28 Systemic and Narrative Work with Unaccompanied Asylum Seeking Children Stories of Relocation provides a contextualised research-based understanding of how to enhance and support the emotional health and well-being of unaccompanied asylum-seeking children. The framework presented in this book is an innovative intervention that enhances the well-being of children who have experienced trauma by improving the therapeutic abilities for all who support and care for them. This book presents the evidence base for this new systemic and narrative trauma-informed framework of care, creates a wider understanding of working with trauma responses in unaccompanied asylum-seeking children and offers coherence for practitioners wanting to use this approach. The authors provide a physiological view as well as identify embodied aspects of trauma experience and describe a narrative approach developed from a clinical understanding of trauma as well as presenting the words of children who took part in the project. Creating a common multi-disciplinary language, this approach can be used to improve coherence, coordination and excellence within the whole system. This book is essential reading for all practitioners working with unaccompanied asylum-seeking children. It will also be of interest to students and trainees of social work and other mental health disciplines as well as other professionals seeking to understand the needs of this group.

Regional Approaches to the Protection of Asylum Seekers Ademola Abass, 2016-04-08 This book presents a comprehensive assessment of regional responses to the crisis in the asylum/refugee system and critically examines how different regions tackle the problem. The chapters consider the fundamental challenges which undermine an effective asylum process as well as regional difficulties with the various circumstances surrounding asylum seekers. With contributions on Africa, Europe, Latin America, South Asia and the Middle East and the Pacific the collection strives to appreciate what informs each region's approach to the asylum process and asks if there are issues common to every region and if regions can learn from one another. The book seeks an understanding of the existing legal regime for the protection of asylum seekers and how regional institutions such as human rights commissions and regional courts enforce and adjudicate the law. The volume will be valuable to those interested in international law, migration and human rights.

Civil Rights in Wartime Dawinder S. Sidhu, Neha Singh Gohil, 2016-05-23

In the days, months and now years following the events of September 11th 2001, discrimination against the Sikh community in America has escalated sharply due in part to a populace that often confuses Sikhs, compelled by their faith to wear turbans, with the Muslim extremists responsible for the devastating terrorist attacks. Although Sikhs have since mobilized to spread awareness and condemn violence against themselves and Muslims, there has been a conspicuous absence of academic literature to aid scholars and commentators in understanding the effect of the backlash on the Sikh community. This volume provides a unique window onto this particular minority group's experience in an increasingly hostile climate and offers a sharp analysis of the legal battles fought by Sikhs in post 9/11 America. In doing so, it adds a new chapter to the ongoing national story of the difficulties minority groups have faced in protecting their civil liberties in times of war.

A History of the Japanese People Dairoku Kikuchi, F. Brinkley, 2019-11-26

A History of the Japanese People is an expansive compendium capturing the intricate tapestry of Japan's past. This anthology weaves together diverse narratives exploring themes of cultural evolution, social transformation and historical continuity. The collection is lauded for its breadth, featuring a range of literary styles from meticulous historical analyses to narratives that breathe life into Japan's storied past. Gender in Cross-Cultural Perspective Adrienne E.

Strong,Richard Powis,2024-08-19 This fully updated new edition of Gender in Cross Cultural Perspective carefully introduces and responds to changes in anthropological approaches to and perspectives on gender With two new editors and new authors from the Global South and underrepresented communities it combines theoretically and ethnographically based chapters to examine gender roles and ideology around the world The books is divided thematically into five parts with the editors opening each section with a succinct introduction to the principal issues The book retains some of the classic chapters while offering new contributions and extended discussions throughout on methodology It also has entirely new contributions that reflect more recent developments in the discipline including more emphasis on LGBTQ communities COVID and migration This new edition also features additional support for teaching and learning including a film list and discussion questions that are now offered as supplemental online materials The eighth edition of Gender in Cross Cultural Perspective continues to be an essential resource for undergraduate and graduate students encountering the anthropology of gender for the first time

Imperial China Michael Loewe,2021-12-30 First published in 1966 Imperial China sets out to explain China s past histories to non specialists Too often the West has misunderstood the East China is credited with an excessively long cultural history with a continuous line of dynastic succession with uniformly practised institutions or with intellectual stagnation Michael Loewe sets out here to dispel some of these misconceptions and to mark the stages in the evolution of China s political forms social organizations and economic progress that can be traced from the days of the first empire from 221 B C until the dynamic changes of the nineteenth century He believes that a full understanding of modern China depends on a more than perfunctory glance at her past and has tried to provide the general historical context The author is well aware that thanks to the research of the last fifty years it is now possible and indeed requisite to reach a deeper understanding of China s past This book will be an essential read for scholars and researchers of Chinese history Asian history history in general

Rewriting the Torah Jeffrey Stackert,2007 Jeffrey Stackert explores literary correspondences among the pentateuchal legal corpora and especially the relationships between similar laws in Deuteronomy and the Holiness Legislation Lev 17 26 the so called Holiness Code as well as significant parts of the Priestly source elsewhere in the Pentateuch Resemblances between these law collections range from broad structure to fine detail and include treatments of similar legal topics correlations with regard to sequence of laws and precise grammatical and lexical correspondences Yet the nature and basis of these resemblances persist as debated points among biblical scholars Through an analysis of the pentateuchal laws on asylum seventh year release manumission and tithes the author argues that the Holiness Legislation depends upon both the

Covenant Collection and Deuteronomy He also elucidates the compositional logic of the Holiness legislators showing that these authors do not simply replicate pre existing legal content Rather they employ a method of literary revision in which they reconceptualize source material according to their own ideological biases In the end the Holiness Legislation proves to be a super law that collects and distills the Priestly and non Priestly laws that precede it By accommodating reformulating and incorporating various viewpoints from these sources the Holiness authors create a work that is intended to supersede them all

A Skein of Thought Brendan H. Cahill, Johanna Lawton, 2020-11-03 This book is the result of a strong collaboration between the Permanent Mission of Ireland to the United Nations and Fordham University's Institute of International Humanitarian Affairs It is a record of a series of distinguished lectures that explored the current challenges to policymakers and humanitarian actors as they focus their efforts on larger and more complex emergencies The contributors to this book both identify innovative measures in addressing established problems and address hitherto under researched emerging issues A Skein of Thought is the product of this fruitful partnership Ireland has through its longstanding peacekeeping its embrace of multi lateralism and its investment in development and humanitarian solutions been a global leader in confronting and mitigating global disasters In a similar way the Institute of International Humanitarian Affairs has been a global leader in humanitarian training publications and research A Skein of Thought The Ireland at Fordham Humanitarian Lecture Series then represents this link between theory and practice The Refuge Press The Refuge Press is an independent humanitarian imprint that was founded in 2019 Following on from a successful International Humanitarian Affairs Series through Fordham University Press The Refuge Press with Brendan Cahill as its Publisher publishes four books per year The Refuge Press books challenge humanitarian thinking and offer personal and professional reflections on global crises
