The Writing Experience 2001 Hyacinthe K. Baron, 2001-05 This anthology is the result of the vision of The Palm Springs Writers Guild 2001 and President Hyacinthe Baron to publish members works in a collection based on a democratic non judgmental reflection of the diverse talents imagination and words of those writers as an important step in encouraging both beginning and professional published authors to see their works in print The written word is a powerful tool enabling writers to leave a message for the future Our ancestors made their mark on the walls of caves as a statement We were here we exist we think If they had the written word we would know just what they thought While the sounds of many voices echo through the granite escarpments of the Santa Rosa Mountains as Tahquitz Peak and San Jacinto look down benignly on the small figures below who draw inspiration peace and comfort from this beautiful valley long the playground of celebrities from Hollywood s halcyon days the Coachella Valley and its unique individuals continue to nurture all who come to bathe in the brilliant sun and magnificent visions This is inspiration The short stories novel excerpts essays and memoirs and poetry ring of THE WRITING EXPERIENCE 2001

Echo of a Scream Hyacinthe Baron, 2001-11-30 WHAT IS CASSANDRA S TEAR This is the epic story of an artist s dreams of preserving the beauty of the human spirit and to capture love and peace forever within Cassandra s Tear The CASSANDRA S TEAR Trilogy spills over with imagery and metaphor to create a rare portrait of who and what we humans really are In Book One ECHO OF A SCREAM the portrait of Cassandra sheds a tear for the victimization of women in a world of male terrorists The words paint a rare insight into a primitive terroristic world of fantasy made reality by current events Indians predict the end of this the fifth world because of mankind s inhumanity The beast is loose in the East and the dream may be ending but this can be the beginning of a golden age within Cassandra s Tear The

Traces of a Mobile Field James R Faulconbridge,Allison Hui,2017-10-02 This agenda setting collection critically reflects upon a decade of contributions to the social scientific mobilities turn in order to propose new trajectories for the future of this interdisciplinary research field The chapters are all exemplars of how the past decade of research has opened up new insights into the place of mobilities in societies They also highlight how attempts to look forward towards new conversations understandings and interventions in a mobile world will emerge from the transformations invoked by this field of research Authors foreground issues of power interdisciplinarity transformative technologies fragmented discourses and changing social processes whilst addressing automobility aeromobility tourism communications technologies urban infrastructures migration and emergencies As a whole the collection raises important questions about not only how understandings of mobilities are changing but also how the field of mobilities research is itself on the move The evocative empirical cases and provocative arguments in this book thus highlight the necessity of new concepts conversations methods empirical studies and interventions to address transformations in both the complex mobilities of social worlds and what is examined or taken for granted in mobilities research itself This book was originally published as a special issue of Mobilities Seek Dave
