Liu Zaifu: Selected Critical Essays Zaifu Liu, 2021-06-17 Liu Zaifu is a name that has already been ingrained within contemporary Chinese literary history. This landmark volume presents Anglophone readers with Liu's profound reflections on Chinese literature and culture at different times. The essays collected here demonstrate Liu's historical experience and trajectory as an exiled Chinese intellectual who persistently safeguards the individuality and the autonomy of literature, refusing to succumb to political manipulation. Liu's theory of literary subjectivity has opened ways for Chinese writers to thrive and innovate. His panoramic view not only unravels the intricate interplay between literature and politics but also firmly regards the transcendental value of literature as a significant ground to subvert revolutionary dogmatism and criticize Chinese modernity. Rather than drawing upon the existing paradigm, he reinvents his own unique theoretical conceptions in order to exile the borrowed gods.

Selected Critical Writings David Herbert Lawrence, 1998 A critic must be able to feel the impact of a work of art in all its complexity and force. To do so, he must be a man of force and complexity himself. A critic must be emotionally alive in every fibre, intellectually capable and skilful in essential logic, and then morally very honest. These comments by D. H. Lawrence are as close a description as any of himself as a critic. They come from his essay on fellow novelist John Galsworthy, and there are many other pieces on novels and novelists in this selection. But Lawrence's range of genres extends to poetry and plays, and paintings, and his critical writing encompasses an enormous variety of subjects, from Aeschylus and the Apocalypse to symbolism and syphilis. For his interests are philosophical, psychological, religious, moral, sociological, historical, and cultural, as well as literary and artistic. This selection is a treasure trove of thought adventures by one of literature's liveliest critical spirits.
