Selected Essays and Dialogues by Gianni Celati Patrick Barron, 2024-03-21 Selected Essays and Dialogues is a collection of translations of Italian writer and filmmaker Gianni Celati's theoretical and musing work from the late 1960s to the present. Topics range from environmental perception and archaeological conceptions of historical knowledge to street theatre writing, photography, cinema, and translation. The book provides a framework of key literary, theoretical, and artistic movements of the last 50 years, as well as a guide for English language readers to place Celati's work in historical, cultural, and biographical context, serving to illuminate his books available in English: namely Towards the River's Mouth, Adventures in Africa, Voices from the Plains, and Appearances. There are various paths to take, tempting readers to wander and become lost in webs of daring thought drawn ever on by Celati's fondness for the unexpected, the ordinary, and his bonhomie with others. Indeed, a genial adventurousness can be found within all of Celati's writings collected here, driven by an affectionate and light-hearted engagement with the surrounding world. Herein is a taste of a seemingly endless series of adventures of the mind and body, always tapped into a lithe sensitivity for an encompassing collective imagination, not restricted to the so-called high arts or letters, but very much also engaged with the everyday lives, places, and tales we all constantly share. Praise for Selected Essays and Dialogues by Gianni Celati: Barron's volume is a very welcome addition to the field. As the first collection of Gianni Celati's essays in English translation, the book makes accessible a wide selection of his critical work to an Anglophone audience. Marina Spunta, University of Leicester.

Selected Essays Virginia Woolf, 2009-10-15 A good essay must draw its curtain round us, but it must be a curtain that shuts us in, not out. According to Virginia Woolf, the goal of the essay is simply that it should give pleasure. It should lay us under a spell with its first word, and we should only wake refreshed with its last. One of the best practitioners of the art, she analysed so rewardingly, Woolf displayed her essay writing skills across a wide range of subjects, with all the craftsmanship, substance, and rich allure of her novels. This selection brings together thirty of her best essays, including the famous Mr Bennett and Mrs Brown, a clarion call for modern fiction. She discusses the arts of writing and of reading, and the particular role and reputation of women writers. She writes movingly about her father and the art of biography, and of the London scene in the early decades of the twentieth century. Overall, these pieces are as indispensable to an understanding of this great writer as they are enchanting in their own right.

ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years, Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe. Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship, providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features, including expert introductions by leading authorities, helpful notes to clarify the text, up-to-date bibliographies for further study, and much more.

Selected Essays, Poems and Other Writings A. S. Byatt, George Eliot, 2005-04-07 The works collected in this volume provide an illuminating introduction to George Eliot's incisive views on religion, art, and science, and the nature and purpose of fiction. Essays such as Evangelical Teaching show her rejecting her earlier religious beliefs while Woman in France questions conventional ideas about female virtues and marriage and Notes on Form in Art sets out theories of idealism and realism that she developed further in Middlemarch and Daniel Deronda. It also includes selections from Eliot's translations of works by Strauss and Feuerbach that challenged many ideas about Christianity, excerpts from her poems and reviews of writers such as Wollstonecraft, Goethe, and Browning. Wonderfully rich in imagery and observations, these pieces reveal the intellectual development of this most challenging and rewarding of writers.

Selected Essays, 1934-1943 Simone Weil, 2015-12-22 Introducing the Selected Works of Simone Weil, Weil's many essays written over her short life cover a very wide range of topics. This important collection contains several that have been long unavailable. There is deep integrity in this diverse collection. Many are directed to social and political topics written in Weil's distinctive way of commenting on contemporary issues through historical writing. Weil wrote in her great work The Need for Roots that humans beings need roots in the universe; this rootedness comes through their lived history. Often Weil is treated as if she were constantly trying to posit timeless truths, but as these essays make evident, Weil offers to her readers a sense of truth as we discover it and live with it in our concrete historical circumstances. This analogical and historical thinking is particularly clear in the several essays that come from her last days while working for the Free French in London during which she meditated on the philosophical renewal of France after the war. SELECTED WORKS First and Last Notebooks Supernatural Knowledge ISBN 978 1 4982 3919 6 Seventy Letters Personal and Intellectual Windows on a Thinker ISBN 978 1 4982 3920 2 Selected Essays 1934-1943 Historical, Political, and Moral Writings ISBN 978 1 4982 3921 9

Selected Essays Clark Blaise, 2008-12-15 Clark Blaise's Selected Essays brings together another aspect of his tremendous and courageous oeuvre: belle lettres essays and occasional pieces which range over autobiography, his French-Canadian heritage, the craft of fiction, American fiction, Australian fiction, and the work of such individual writers as Jack Kerouac, V.S. Naipaul, Salman Rushdie, Alice Munro, Leon Rooke, and Bernard Malamud, his friend and mentor. Rewriting Partnerships Rachael W. Shah, 2020-05-15 Winner of the IARSLCE 2021 Publication of the Year Award and the Coalition for Community Writing Outstanding Book Award. Community members are rarely tapped for their insights on engaged teaching and research, but without these perspectives it is difficult to create ethical and effective practices. Rewriting Partnerships calls for a radical reorientation to the knowledges of community partners. Emphasizing the voices of community members themselves—the adult literacy learners, secondary students, and youth activists who work with college students—the book introduces Critical Community Based Epistemologies, a deeply practical approach to knowledge construction that centers the perspectives of marginalized participants. Drawing on interviews with over eighty community members, Rewriting Partnerships features community knowledges in three common types of community-engaged learning: youth working with college students in a writing exchange program, nonprofit staff who serve as clients for student projects, and community members who work with graduate students. Interviewees from each type of partnership offer practical strategies for creating more ethical collaborations including how programs are built how projects are introduced to partners and how graduate students are educated The book also explores three approaches to partnership design that create space for community voices at the structural level advisory boards participatory evaluation and community grading Immediately applicable to teachers researchers community partners and administrators involved in community engagement Rewriting Partnerships offers concrete strategies for creating more community responsive partnerships at the classroom level as well as at the level of program and research design But most provocatively the book challenges common assumptions about who can create knowledge about community based learning demonstrating that community partners have the potential to contribute significantly to community engagement scholarship and program decision making Selected Essays David
