Shadows Illuminated Women In A Rural Culture:

Shadows Illuminated Terry Jaakkola, Teresa A. Jaakkola, Julia Lambert Frericks, 1996-12-01 Germans in Minnesota Kathleen Neils Conzen, 2009-08 Minnesota is often associated with its Scandinavian heritage but in fact Germans are the largest single immigrant group in Minnesota history and were the largest ancestry group in the 2000 census Author Kathleen Neils Conzen tells the story of German Americans and their profound influence on Minnesota history and culture Conzen recounts their triumphs and struggles over the last 150 years in a clear and concise narrative Landing in poverty Germans transformed acres of wilderness into productive farms and brought to America their love of art music and sociability Immigrants came to America intent on creating in the words of one agent an earthly paradise of this Minnesota and a new Germany soon rose in Stearns County Conzen explores not only the well known enclaves in Brown and Stearns Counties but also looks at the smaller communities of Winona on the Iron Range and along the North Shore as well as in the Twin Cities In recent times a renewed interest in German heritage can be seen in towns like New Ulm home to the thirty two foot statue of Hermann the German hero of the wars against the ancient Roman legions and Heritagefest the ethnic heritage festival that occurs every summer Feminist Collections University of Wisconsin System. Women's Studies Librarian, University of Wisconsin System. Women's Studies Librarian-at-Large, 1996 In the Shadow of the Great War Jochen Böhrer, Ota Konrád, Rudolf Kučera, 2021-01-10 Whether victorious or not Central European states faced fundamental challenges after the First World War as they struggled to contain ongoing violence and forge peaceful societies This collection explores the various forms of violence these nations confronted during this period which effectively transformed the region into a laboratory for state building Employing a bottom up approach to understanding everyday life these studies trace the contours of individual and mass violence in the interwar era while illuminating their effects upon politics intellectual developments and the arts The Politics of Culture in the Shadow of Capital Lisa Lowe, David Lloyd, 1997-11-17 Coming from a broad cross section of academic disciplines and theoretical positions this collection of essays questions and reworks Marxist critiques of capitalism that center on the West and which posit a uniform model of development More specifically

Laboring in the Shadow of Empire Celeste Vaughan Curington, 2024-09-13 Laboring in the Shadow of Empire Race Gender and Care Work in Portugal examines the everyday lives of an African descendant care service workforce that labors in an ostensibly anti racial Europe and against the backdrop of the Portuguese colonial empire While much of the literature on global care work has focused on Asian and Latine migrant care workers there is comparatively less research that explicitly examines African care workers and their migration histories to Europe Sociologist Celeste Vaughan Curington focuses on Portugal a European setting with comparatively liberal policies around family settlement and naturalization for migrants In this setting rapid urbanization in the late twentieth century along with a national push to reconcile work and family has shaped the growth of paid home care and cleaning service industries Many researchers focus on informal work settings where immigrant rights are restricted and many workers are undocumented or without permanent residence status Curington instead examines workers who have accessed citizenship or permanent residence status and also explores African women s experiences laboring in care and service industries in the formal market revealing how deeply colonial and intersectional logics of a racialized and international division of reproductive labor in Portugal render these women hyper invisible and hyper visible as appropriate workers in Lisbon

The Long Shadow of the Border Ida Marie Savio Vammen, Signe Cold-Ravnkilde, Hans Lucht, 2023-06-19 This book delves beyond the spectacular images of African migrants struggling to scale border fences or cross the Mediterranean in unseaworthy rubber dinghies by unpacking the policies and emerging practices that shape contemporary border governance in the expanding EU African borderlands For decades Africa has been the scene of a wide range of European interventions aimed at restraining irregularised migration to Europe creating an accelerated moment of control and confinement Today the externalisation of Europe s borders into Africa encompasses agreements on the return of migrants securitised border operations and projects under the EU s Emergency Trust Fund for Africa At a time when safe and legal mobility is limited and the human social and political conditions of African migrants are severely challenged this book emphasises how European efforts are both assisted but also resisted by local actors with agendas of their own Based on ethnographic fieldwork the different contributions vividly portray how African lives continue to be shaped by Europe s desire to contain and govern human mobility and how dominant spatial geopolitics are contested on various levels This book will be of particular value to students and researchers interested in African studies International Politics Border Governance Anthropology Human Geography and Global Studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Geopolitics
