Long Time Coming Ed Folino, 2005-09-19 PLEASE READ MY BOOK I sure would like you to read my book Don't put it down it's worth another look It's full of poems some funny some sad It has everything in it from a homely cowboy to a boy and his dad Most are fiction but some are true My main objective was to entertain you This little book took a lot of time I really racked my brain coming up with all the rhymes But it all paid off and I hope that you'll agree There are some great ones here just between you and me So tell your friends about me I'd like to be a star And if I sell enough of them I can buy a brand new car

Although Sheffield was not a national player in prize fighting s early days throughout the mid 1800s many parochial scores and wagers were settled by the use of fists By the end of the century boxing with gloves had become the norm and Sheffield had a valid claim to be the chief provincial focus of this new passion largely due to the exploits of George Corfield Sheffield s first boxer of national repute Corfield s deeds were later surpassed by three British champions Gus Platts Johnny Cuthbert and Henry Hall Concluding with the dual themes of the decline of boxing in Sheffield and the city s changing social profile from the 1950s onwards the volume ends with a meditation on the arrival of new migrants to the city and the processes that aided or frustrated their integration into UK life and sport
