

God made Everything

Before the world came into being, God was, for He has no beginning or end. His Spirit hovered over a dark, formless, and empty place.

God said, "Let there be light!" Light sprang into being at the sound of His voice. God divided the light from the darkness. He named the light "day," and He called the darkness "night."

Evening and morning, day one ended.

God said, "Let a dome appear in the middle of the waters." A vast blue vault appeared in the midst of the waters. God called it "sky."

Evening and morning, day two ended.

God said, "Let the waters gather together and dry land appear." The land and the seas obeyed God's voice, but the land was empty and brown. "Let there be grass, flowers, and trees to cover the land." Green grass unfurled. Colorful flowers bloomed. Trees stood tall and straight.

God saw what He had done, and it was good.

Evening and morning, day three ended.

God said, "Let there be two lights to mark time and days, seasons and years. A greater one shall rule day and the lesser shall reign over the night." Sun and moon appeared in the sky, and God sprinkled the universe with twinkling stars.

God saw it was good. Evening and morning, day four ended.

Formational Children's Ministry (ēmerſion: Emergent Village resources for communities of faith) Ivy Beckwith,2010-01-01 Much ministry to children looks more like mere entertainment than authentic spiritual formation But what if children s ministries were rooted in a mind set whereby we taught children with our words and actions how the story of God the story of church history the story of the local community and the story of the child intersect and speak to one another What if children s ministry was less about downloading information into kids heads and more about leading them into these powerful compelling stories Beckwith aims to help ministers and parents create a ministry that captures children s imaginations not just to keep them occupied but to live as citizens of the kingdom of God In addition to providing theological reasons for formational children s ministry the book offers examples of how Ivy and other practitioners are implementing a formational model

Relational Children's Ministry

Dan Lovaglia, 2016-04-05 Children's ministry has the power to change the lives of kids and families Unfortunately it's not always clear that the work a person does with kids is really making a lasting difference Ask children's ministry leaders and kid influencers if they are making the impact on children's lives as they had hoped and most likely the responses will be mixed And for good reason Research over the past decade has revealed an alarming lack of long term growth in the faith community as children progress through student ministries into adulthood Clearly something needs to change Relational Children's Ministry seeks to reverse this trend by equipping children's ministry leaders with practical tools to disrupt the status quo approach to discipleship with children and realign their ministries for greater long term impact Ministry leaders will learn how to relate intentionally to kids and families by putting five discipleship invitations modeled by Jesus into practice Explore practical approaches to realign their children's ministry for a new trajectory by hitting three reset buttons to ensure long term discipleship is embedded Encounter examples of disruptive disciple makers in action and learn key principles that can be translated into their own ministry context Children's ministry leaders will receive practical training to refocus their children's ministry along with time tested tools to personally recommit to lifelong discipleship Kid influencers can become a disciple making community that redirects the current trajectory for this and future generations
