Louis Jobin Mastersculptor:

Louis Jobin, Master-Sculptor Mario Beland, 1986 In Good Hands Ellen Easton McLeod, 1999-12-20 The Canadian Handicrafts Guild broadened the definition of art and the artist in Canada Linking decorative arts with home arts and handicrafts the Guild consistently showed them together at annual exhibitions at the art gallery in Montreal and formed a permanent collection documenting old and contemporary crafts The Guild women combined creativity and philanthropy voluntarism and an entrepreneurial spirit education and concern with quality in a movement that provided income and recognition to craftspeople and a craft legacy to Canada In Good Hands is alive with the interplay between art and social history and the issues this dialogue raised at the time and those we bring to it now constantly overlap It deals with noblesse oblige and the era's patronizing attitude to cultural difference but shows how the Guild consciously fostered an inclusive national feeling by exhibiting and selling crafts of all Canadians on an equal footing It also draws a much broader perspective of women's roles in shaping our culture than has been the norm in Canadian art history Joe Fafard Terrence Heath, National Gallery of Canada, 2007 Few contemporary artists have worked in the sheer variety of styles that Joe Fafard has perfected and won such acclaim for their efforts Born in 1942 in a remote farming hamlet in Saskatchewan the idiosyncratic artist early on chose a radically different direction from the prevailing modernistic aesthetic of the early 1960s boldly exploring new media and new imagery Gaining fame initially as a ceramic sculptor of oversize animals and people in the early 1980s he turned to laser steel and bronze work along the way adding painting to his repertoire This dual biography and critical study features a wealth of illustrations from Fafard's long career generously sampling both the monumental sculptures done as public and private commissions and the more intimate studies of people and prairie that reside in museums worldwide and in the private collections of Oprah Winfrey Bill Cosby and others Marius Barbeau's Vitalist Ethnology Frances M. Slaney, 2023-03-28 This book examines Marius Barbeau's career at Canada's National Museum now the Canadian Museum of History in light of his education at Oxford and in Paris 1907-1911 Based on archival research in England France and Canada Marius Barbeau's Vitalist Ethnology presents Barbeau's anthropological training at Oxford through his meticulous course notes as well as archival photographs at the Pitt Rivers Museum and the Bibliothèque et Archives nationales du Québec It also draws upon Barbeau's professional correspondence at Library and Archives Canada the BC Archives and above all the National Museum where he worked for over four decades The author Frances M Slaney sheds light on the professional life of this founder of Canadian anthropology exploring his difficult working relationships with Edward Sapir his collaborations with Franz Boas and his outstanding fieldwork in rural Quebec and with Indigenous communities on British Columbia's Northwest Coast Barbeau penned over 1 000 books and articles in addition to curating innovative museum exhibitions and art shows He invited Group of Seven artists into his field sites convinced that their works could better capture the vitality of Quebec's rural culture than his own abundant photographs For these and many other
