The Habit of Being Flannery O'Connor, 1988-08-01 Winner of the National Book Critics Circle Special Award. I have come to think that the true likeness of Flannery O'Connor will be painted by herself: a self-portrait in words to be found in her letters. There she stands, a phoenix risen from her own words: calm, slow, funny, courteous, both modest and very sure of herself, intense, sharply penetrating, devout but never pietistic, downright occasionally fierce and honest in a way that restores honor to the word. Catalogue of the Pepys Library at Magdalene College, Cambridge III Eric Chamberlain, 1993-11. This volume consists primarily of a descriptive catalogue of the three albums which Pepys entitled My Collection of Heads in Taille Douce Drawings 2978-2980, put together according to the title page in 1700, three years before he died. To this has been added a catalogue of the much larger number of portraits to be found elsewhere in the Library, principally in the printed books. For convenience of reference, this stray material has been conflated with the subject index of the albums. In this way, all portraits in the Library are catalogued without obscuring the principles on which the albums were designed. ERIC CHAMBERLAIN was formerly keeper of prints at the Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge.
