Varghese,2009-11-01 Is death the end Or to put it another way do we survive bodily death Some shrug their shoulders and declare we simply can't know Others just say No And a few flying their philosophical colors pretentiously profess to not even understand the question Curiously the overwhelming majority of human beings throughout the course of history have taken it for granted that death is not the end that there is a life after death This striking and seemingly instinctive belief has been embodied in the religious traditions and philosophical reflections of most cultures There is Life After Death is the first of its kind in that it assembles and analyzes a comprehensive range of data on life after death and then provides a framework to understand the data No previous book has given a concrete structure of the afterlife that is based on the accounts of eye witnesses as well as on data from diverse sources Above all the book provides exciting and compelling answers to the urgent question what lies on the other side Love and Death Ross Channing Reed PhD,2009-02-10 Philosopher Ross Reed Ph D refers to an eclectic array of thinkers in Love and Death an Existential Theory of Addiction in particular existential philosophers Soren Kierkegaard 1813 1855 and Jean Paul Sartre 1905 1980 According to Dr Reed addiction is usually the result of existential or life conditions rather than underlying physiological problems Therefore it may involve not only drugs or alcohol but also relationships belief systems activities and even emotional states Anything that can serve to deflect ones consciousness from reflectively apprehending the task of becoming oneself can serve as an object of addiction If the object is another person one might ask whether in fact addiction can masquerade as love Is it possible to believe that you are in love with someone when in fact you are merely addicted to him or her In this creative and provocative work Reed argues that Sartres theory of love is in fact a theory of addiction

Conjugal love is the Divine as a feeling It is the spiritual heat and light of every soul It is the feeling of gratitude to the Universe together with the feeling of mutual love to the neighbor To receive conjugal love requires that we first will the affection of love upwards and outwards In this way we expand our sense of self to get a glimpse of the feeling of the four fold rhythm of Divine order Once the sensual rhythm of Divine order has been established as the feeling of love it purifies our feeling of self of its identification and attachment with the physical body This new spiritual perspective transforms our sense of self from personality to individuality which then awakens the feeling of conjugal love The feeling of conjugal love is our Path of Return Within the flow of the feeling of conjugal love we can sense our spiritual self first as the feeling of profound peace but then as higher states of love as feelings of being infinite and eternal
